

Kiwanians Hear Musical Program By CHS Chorus

A music festival presented by the music department of Carrolltown High School featured the meeting of North Cambria Kiwanis at Central Hotel, Carrolltown, last Thursday. Robert Caldwell has charge of the program. During the evening, Joseph Boes, supervisor of music at Carrolltown, directed the chorus of the school in a fine program of songs, consisting of the following numbers:

Mixed Chorus—"The Cherubim Song (Hortiniansky); "All in An April Evening" (Robertson); "Battle Hymn of the Republic" (Arr. Ringwald); Girls' Chorus—"Moonlight Bay" (Wenrich); "Were You There?" (spiritual); Boys' Chorus—"Ready When He Comes" (spiritual).

The mixed chorus also rendered the CHS Alma Mater, composed by Mr. Boes.

International Good Will Week will be observed this Thursday by the Kiwanis Club. Fred B. Buck will be in charge of the program, to be held at Carrolltown.

Personnel of the chorus groups taking part in last Thursday's program follow:

J. P. Ehrhart Observe 49th Anniversary Here
Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Ehrhart of 819 St. Joseph Street, Gallitzin, marked their 49th wedding anniversary on Sunday, Apr. 16. The celebrants spent their entire married life in Gallitzin, where they were married Apr. 16, 1902 in St. Patrick's Catholic Church. Mrs. Ehrhart is the former Miss Elizabeth McIntosh.

Mr. Ehrhart, who celebrated his 75th birthday last October, is a retired PRR employee. Eight children were blessed to the union, the following five are alive: Joseph P. Gallitzin; Frank, the son; Mrs. Philip George, Gallitzin; Mrs. Virginia Huford of Summit, and Paul Ehrhart, Munster.

J. F. Bernard Elected President of Lions Club
J. F. Bernard, supervising principal of Gallitzin Schools, was elected president of the Gallitzin Lions Club at a dinner-meeting Monday evening in the Horseshoe Trail Tavern, Gallitzin. Mr. Bernard succeeds Melvin Pollock.

Other officers elected were: Bertram Huey, first vice president; Din Bell, second vice president; Frank Lentz, secretary; R. C. Adams, treasurer; Dr. J. G. Lascione, tall twister; Dr. J. G. Lascione, Joseph J. Quinn, S. S. Gutwald and John Ord, directors, and Alvin, Buck and Robert Harlow, lion tamers.

C. C. Peyton, manager of the Associated Credit Bureau of Altoona, and former instructor at the Altoona Undergraduate Center of Penn State College, spoke on "Credit and Collection."

Bertram Huey, manager of the Lions basketball team of the community midjet league, gave a report on activities of the team and of the banquet for season being discussed by a midjet basketball league.

The next meeting of the Lions Club will be held at 6:30 p. m. (DST) Tuesday, May 15, in conjunction with a meeting of all Lions Clubs at 7:30 p. m. in the Oriental Ballroom, Gallitzin.

Gallitzin Athletic Assn. Banquet Held Thursday
The eighth annual testimonial banquet, sponsored by the Gallitzin Athletic Association, was held last Thursday evening in the Oriental Ballroom, Gallitzin, to honor the Gallitzin High School Athletes. Joe Major, Johnstown Catholic cage mentor, was the guest speaker.

Rev. Father Eugene Bradley, pastor of St. Patrick's Catholic Church, Gallitzin, also spoke. He appealed to the athletes of the community to make their high school graduates, so they may settle there. The pastor also urged newer industries for the community.

Ralph J. Albarano, head football coach, said the football schedule will be revised for next season, so that Gallitzin High will meet more teams in its own class.

Guy G. Monick, head basketball mentor, said he expects to see good cage teams in Gallitzin since the little league is producing current stars of tomorrow. He praised his team for defeating Altoona to capture the St. Francis Varsity F Tournament.

Edward Maruca, senior letterman in both football and basketball, received the top honor of the night—the American Legion Most Valuable-Player Award. It was presented by James Lupinetti, the commander of Post 174, Gallitzin.

Football letters, miniature footballs and sweaters were presented the following night: Edward Maruca, Robert Laird, Tom Kroskey, Raymond McTavish, John Stevens, Huga Donaldson, Angelo Bonjornio and William Ruzak.

Maruca and Laird were the only ones to get the above-mentioned awards plus basketball letters and miniature basketballs. Coaches Albarano and Monick presented the awards.

Toastmaster was Amos Raymond, past president of the association. Joseph P. Bernard, the supervising principal, led the pledge of allegiance to the flag. Invocation was pronounced by Rev. Father James Kirkpatrick, assistant pastor of St. Patrick's Church. Paul Bender, president of the association, gave the opening address.
