May Crowning On Sunday, St. Mary's

Last Sunday afternoon, May 13, St. Mary's Catholic Church, Patton, held a most impressive May Crowning ceremony with the entire student body of the Parochial School participating. Children who received their First Holy Communion that morning lent their share to the solemnity of the occasion, the spotless whiteness of their attire bespeaking the immaculate purity of their souls.

Many former graduates of the school and the seventh grade girls carried flowered wands with which they formed an archway for the May Queen, Alice Weller, and her attendants, the eighth grade girls, who in turn were attended by the children of the first grade acting as flower girls. Robert Sunneri and Thomas Gray were train bearers and Mary Ann Smith carried the crown.
