Cresson's Indians Downed Friday By Altoona Cath.

Cresson High Indians suffered their second straight defeat last Friday night as Altoons Catholic took a 13-6 win over the Indians at Altoons.

With Gene Engleman connecting on 6 of 7 pass tries, the winners went over the heads of the invading Indians to take the win.

Altoons scored in the second and fourth periods with Cresson scoring near the close of the con-

With only 2% minutes less in the first half Engelman eased a 34-yard pass to Beilinger on the Creason eight. The end scampered across the goal for the TD.

Altoona scored with two minut es gone in the final frame when Engelman hitting Vinnie Stock with a 22-yard aerial on the 12 and the latter racing to paydirt. Cresson tallied after the ensuing kickoff one a long march. Burley took a pass from Rickens on the Altoona eight and ran the rest of the way into the end zone.

First downs were even at 6-6. The summary: Altonna-13
