Rosalie Krise Bride At Loretto Church

Miss Rosalie Krise of Loretto, daughter of David Krise, became the bride of Robert J. McElheny, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar McElheny, Loretto, R. D., Saturday, Aug. 25, at 9 a. m. in St. Michael's Catholic Church, Loretto. Rev. Father Charles Diamond officiated at the double-ring ceremony. The altar was decorated with garlands of rainbow colors. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

The bride was attired in a white gown of cathedral lace with a long train and wore a fingertip veil held in place by a crown of rhinestones and pearls and carried an enormous bouquet of white lilies trimmed with streamers. The maid of honor, Verna Potter of Fallentimber, wore a green gown of lace and marquisette with a matching lace headpiece and carried a bouquet of pink roses.

Bridesmaid Betty Bosar of Patton, niece of the bride, wore a pink gown of lace and marquisette with matching lace headpiece and carried yellow roses, and Mary Byrnes of Ebsburg wore a yellow gown of lace and marquisette with matching headpiece and also carried yellow roses. Barbara Hudson of Washington, D. C., niece of the bride, was the flower girl and wore a lavender gown and headpiece and carried a small bouquet of yellow roses.

David Krise of Patton, brother of the bride, was best man. Joseph Krise of Loretto and Cletus Wills of Loretto, brother and cousin of the bride, were ushers. Ring-bearer was Charles Conrad of Loretto, nephew of the bride.

Wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bridegroom and dinner at Wissinger's Inn in Ebsburg, followed by a reception at the Grange Hall, Chest Springs, in the evening.

The couple then left on a wedding trip to Niagara Falls and Canada. They will reside in their newly-furnished apartment, Loretto. The bride is a graduate of Reade Twp. High School, class of 1947, and is employed at St. Francis College, Mr. McElheny, a veteran of World War I, served four years with the U. S. Marine Corps and is now employed at Powell Coal Co., Ebsburg.

Miss Betty Nelson, Flinton, Is Bride

In a lovely ceremony performed at the EUB Church, Highspire, Pa., Saturday, Sept. 1, Miss Betty Ione Nelson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Nelson of Flinton, became the bride of Raymond Dale Heberlig, son of Rev. and Mrs. Raymond S. Heberlig of Shamokin.

Rev. Heberlig, father of the bridegroom, performed the double ring ceremony at 2:30 o'clock in a candlelight setting of white gladioli and pompano. Music was provided by Joseph Diebler, organist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white lace and nylon marquisette. Her tiara of lace and seed pearls held a fingertip veil of illusion net in place. She carried a white satin and lace fan covered with white roses. Miss Elaine Nelson, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a gown of pink lace and net over tulle with matching hat and mitts and carried a fan of delphinium, pink roses and majestic daisies. Fred Fore of Victoria, O., served as best man.

Ushers were Harry Wallan and Melvin Reeves of Highspire. A reception was held in the church social rooms immediately after the ceremony. The couple then left on a wedding trip to New Jersey and New York.

The bride is a graduate of the Reade Twp. High School and was employed by Farm Bureau Insurance Co., in Harrisburg. The groom is a graduate of Lebanon Valley College and is now teaching science at Hancock High School, Hancock, Md., where the newlyweds now reside.
