COURTESY PAYS on party-line telephones, too

Little courtesies, like Mike's stopping traffic to let Gramps cross the street, help to make life happier. Consideration for the other fellow is the basis of good party-line telephone service, too. If you are always courteous on the telephone, you're sure to find your party-line neighbors the same. Remember the three R's of party-line courtesy - Relinquish the line as soon as possible when you hear others try to use it; Replace the receiver gently when you find the line in use; Regulate your calls so that others may use the line in-between.
