PAGE 4.B

Order State Police To Take Hand In Violence At Mines Will Not Interfere With Peaceable Picketing

Peaceable Picketing
State police will act against aryone involved in dynamiting of strip-mine operations or assaults on workers.
This was the statement by R. Woodside, attorney general of Pennsylvania, last week as Pennsylvania declared war on what the Ceneral Pennsylvania Open Pit Mining Assn. calls "a virtual reign of terror."
The strip mine owners recently The strip mine owners recently

6:15-Little Thester 6:30-The Lone Ranger 7:15-Bob and Ray 7:15-Political Speech 7:30-Dinab Shore Show 7:45-News Caravan 8:90-Stop the Music 9:00-Herb Shriner Time 9:30-Big Town 10:00-Martin Kane, Private Eye 10:30-Electric Thester 11:00-Playhouse of Stars, "Songs Arthur Schwartz" 12:00-Preview wrote Gov. John S. Fine com-plaining of 12 cases of dynamiting and arson and destruction of equipment and property valued at more than $500,000. Woodside said the "alleged lawlessness had been brought to his attention by Gov. Fine. Wood-side's statement said:

"These alleged depredations have been and are now under investigation by the Pennsylvania FRIDAY, MARCH 21 power unit were damaged and fuel from the machine's tanks ignited. Cases of stone-throwing also have occurred from time to time.

