Local Dranchak Sisters To Enter Contest Finals

Peggy Lou Salvan of Gallitzin won first place honors in the final elimination of Ebensburg Kiwanis Club's countywide amateur talent show last Wednesday night with her singing of "Irish Lullabye" and tap dancing to "Soft Shoe."

"Wheel of Fortune" paid off for the popular Dranchak Sisters of Patton—Donna, 17, Yvonne, 16, Mona, 15, Shirley, 13, and Eva, 11. Their excellent performance won fourth place.

Herman Clauto, 12, of Gallitzin, an accordionist, was voted fifth-place winner for his presentation of "Beautiful Days."

Magistrates Pledge Loyalty As Course In Duties Completed

Members of the Cambria County Magistrates and Constables Association were given loyalty oaths when they met at the court house last week.

The loyalty oaths were administered by Mrs. Elizabeth Rowland, Ebensburg, Justice of the Peace, who is vice president of the association. Following this portion of the program, plans were completed for the group's annual banquet on April 24, at St. John's Church, Summerhill.

The banquet will be marked by presentation of diplomas to those members who completed the 26-week civil law course. The course was prepared by the Institute of Local Government at Pennsylvania State College and was taught by former District Attorney Sam R. DiFrancesco and members of his staff.

The civil law course is the second taken by the magistrates while Mr. DiFrancesco was in office. A criminal law course preceded the one just completed.

Most Area Income Tax Refunds Made

Ronald A. McCormick, Johnstown deputy internal revenue collector, disclosed this week that Pittsburgh Regional Office, Bureau of Internal Revenue, was the first in the nation to complete processing its 1931 tax returns.

It is the third consecutive "first" for the Pittsburgh office, which handles the returns of the area taxpayers. This year it completed the job just three days after the extended March 17 deadline.

Practically all area taxpayers who had refunds due have received them, Mr. McCormick said. Only a few checks remain to be mailed from Cleveland disbursing office, where the regional office forwards its processed returns.

Assign 8 Prisoners For Work On Farms

Records Considered In Action By Prison Board

The Cambria County Prison Board Monday gave Warden John McHugh permission to assign eight prisoners to work on county farms. The action was taken after board members discussed the offenses and records of each prisoner for consideration by the board. This plan was approved for future use.

Warden McHugh said the prisoners assigned to farm work will be under supervision. Even though a prisoner may be approved by the board for farm work, or if his offense does not come under the no-work rule, his assignment to details will remain discretionary with the warden.

Of approximately 60 prisoners now in jail, only about five have been given farm assignments in recent months. The eight approved Monday makes a total of 13, or less than one-fourth of the jail population.

8 et 40 Delegates Named By Ladies

Cambria County Salon, 8 et 40, last Tuesday named six delegates to the state conference May 12-13 in Pittsburgh. The action was taken at a meeting at the Johnstown American Legion Home.

Representing the local salon at the convention will be Mrs. A. P. Strook, Barnesboro; Mrs. John Whalen, Spangler; Mrs. George Belsinger and Mrs. Howard Leach, both of South-Fork, and Mrs. George Eller and Mrs. Ted Rager, both of Johnstown.

Next month's meeting was cancelled because of the state conference being held that month. Officers will be elected at the June 16 meeting.
