

CARROLLTOWN Carrolltown Firm Help Send Boys to Washington

Six children from St. Benedict's Parochial School, will attend the National School Boy Patrol rally in Washington, D. C., this week end. They left today, May 5. Names of the students will be found in another article in this newspaper published on the first page.

A total of $88.00 was raised to send the children to Washington by 26 local business establishments. A total of $39 will be put aside to send representatives of the local patrol to the A.A.A. Camp this fall. List of sponsors for the School Boy Patrol trip to Washington, D. C., are as follows:

Carrolltown Fire Co.	$50.00
First National Bank, Carrolltown	10.00
Bender Electric Co.	10.00
John and Fred Stevens	10.00
Miss Moller Implement Store	3.00
Sam McVuity Tavern	3.00
Main Street Garage	3.00
G. A. Shabough Store	3.00
West Main Motor	3.00
Joe Shero Tavern	3.00
Merle Kirsch Market	3.00
Paul Kelly Fairway Store	3.00
L. A. Shabough Store	3.00
W. J. White Hotel	3.00
Freddy's Cleaners	3.00
Carroll Press	3.00
Sherry Lumber Co.	3.00
Shabough Best Distributors	3.00
Day Partridge Hardware	3.00
Weekend Implement Store	3.00
Whitman Hotel	3.00
Laura's Lunch	3.00
Fannie C. West Store	3.00
Chas. Parabough Jewelry Store	3.00
Dennis Motor Co.	3.00
Miss Ruth Lumber Co.	3.00

Gerald F. Buck Enlists For Duty in Air Force

The enlistment of Gerald F. Buck, aged 20, of Carrolltown, for a four-year period with the U. S. Air Force, has been announced by Capt. Robert J. Snyder, who is in charge of the Barnesboro Recruiting Station.

Local Fire Ladies Attend Meeting in Franklin Boro

The regular quarterly meeting of the Cambria County Ladies Auxiliaries of the Fire Companies was held in Franklin Wednesday of last week. Carrolltown ladies who attended included Miss

Gift Ideas ...for Mother

- PILLOW CASES
Embroidered $2.95 $3.95
Sheets
Towels
- General Electric
ROASTERS
TOASTERS
COFFEE MAKERS
WAFFLE IRONS
PORTABLE MIXERS
- NYLON GLOVES
White & black $1.95
- SOXES
$1.95
- Dresses
COTTONS $3.95 to $5.95
NYLONS $3.95 to $5.95

DAVIS PATTON

Have your old fur coat Restyled to a FUR CAPE $49.00 per foot. Restyle the old fur coat to a beautiful new cape. Restyled by Davis Patton. Restyled with the finest materials. Restyled with the latest fashion. Restyled with the best workmanship.

Mary Stick, and Mesdames M. J. Farabaugh, A. L. Farabaugh, A. G. Kaylor, Anthony Gwizdak, Marguerite Shabough, John Feigener, Charles Zirn, Vincent Parrish, Esther Blum, H. P. Bearer, Monroe Bearer, Urban Stok, Geo. Klawich, Frances Kane, James Callahan, Herman Karheim, Ligouri Lacey, Gregory Buck and Rose Shank and Miss Hattie Lehmer.

Catholic Daughters Hold Election At Church Hall

Court Our Lady of Victory No. 722, Catholic Daughters of America, held their regular monthly meeting in St. Benedict's Church Hall on Monday evening of this week. Featuring the meeting was the annual election of officers. Miss Loretta Prindible was re-elected as Grand Regent, a position she has continuously held since the inception of the Court. Other officers chosen were Mrs. Van Harvey, Barnesboro, vice regent; Miss Mary Gavalier, Carrolltown, historian; Miss Rose Farabaugh, Patton, monitor; Emily Bush, Barnesboro, financial secretary; Mrs. Ray Shortenacker, Barnesboro, treasurer; Miss Mary Homyak, Patton, prophetess; Miss Marie Garrity, Patton, lecturer; Mrs. Mac Shannon, Patton, organist; Mrs. Ann Bearer, Carrolltown, sentinel; and Trustees for three years—Mrs. Rose-ea Donahue, Carrolltown and Mrs. Nora Ward, Barnesboro.

James Null of Sharon, Pa., was a visitor for several days last week with Carrolltown friends.

Mr. and Mrs. John McGonigal and son, Bill, of Dequosno, Pa., were Sunday visitors at the home of Mrs. McGonigal's sister, Mrs. R. H. Shabough. Mr. and Mrs. Tom Owens Sr. spent some time Sunday visiting at Clarion, Pa. Staff Sgt. Edward Brawley, Jr., Dayton, Ohio, was a week end visitor at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Brawley Sr., of West Carroll Township, The County and Local Chairmen of the Cambria County Society for Crippled Children and Adults take this means of thanking the several local Carrolltown households who recently made a house-to-house canvass for contributions in the annual Easter lily parade. The names of the boys recently were published in this column. The boys collected a total of $37.14 in all, in Carrolltown. The returns were most satisfactory.

Charles R. Shabough, President of the First National Bank of Carrolltown, attended a bankers' meeting in Altoona Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Shabough were in the Poconos for a couple of days this past week, where Mr. Shabough was attending a meeting of insurance salesmen. Mrs. Rose Arble of Altoona, spent a couple of days over the week end in Baltimore, Md., where their brother, Rev. Father Aloysius Luther, OSB, died last Friday. They accompanied the body to St. Vincent Archabbey, Latrobe, where funeral services and burial took place Tuesday.

Nineteen women were "tapped" early last Thursday morning at Pennsylvania State College by Chinese, junior women's activities honorary. Numbered in the group was Miss Juliana Fees, daughter of District Attorney and Mrs. Fred J. Fees, of Carrolltown. The women were chosen for their character, leadership ability, scholarship and service to the college, according to Joyce Buchanan, president of Chimes. They were tendered a breakfast in McElwain dining hall.

NICKTOWN By ROSE MARIE HUBER

Ted Kirsch Is Honored On 18th Anniversary

A surprise birthday party was held in honor of Ted Kirsch, at his home here last Sunday evening. The evening was spent in playing games and a lunch was served. Ted was the recipient of many gifts. Attending were the following: Jane Lieb, Joe Hoppel, Janet Lieb, Dolores Parrish, Anna Mae Kirsch, Dick Hoppel, Bernard Kirsch, Vincent Kirsch, Billy Joe Kirsch, Janet Kirsch, Gloria Tursch, Theresa Lieb, June Lambou, Huber Kline, Norman Kirsch, Joe Bepko, Bill Hoppel, Janet Smith, Lorraine Lieb, Ann Farabaugh, Kay Lieb, Dave Kirsch, Tom Bollenbaugh, Dick Lovetta, Dave Lieb, Dorothy Kirsch, Dave Kirsch, Mark Lieb, Bemie Pfister, Mary Ellen Norton, Clifford Kirsch, Jim Roisen, Francis Farabaugh, Joann Huber, Walter Lieb, Jim Kline, Louis Kirsch and Ted Kirsch.

Lou Hoover and Huber Kline of Cleveland, Ohio, spent the week end here at the John Kline residence.

Mr. and Mrs. Merle Parrish attended a baseball game at Forbes Field, Pittsburgh, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Morris announce the birth of a daughter on Tuesday, April 29.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Laney and son, Romie, of Johnstown, spent Sunday at the R. V. Parrish home.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles McNulty Jr. and Mrs. William McNulty of Ebensburg were Sunday afternoon visitors with relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Smith visited in Cresson Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Merle Parrish and Mrs. Genevieve Huber spent last Saturday visiting in Johnstown.

Kenneth Long was discharged from the U. S. Navy recently. He returned home last Friday and he and his wife and daughter moved to Summerhill.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Karheim of Patton spent Sunday in town at the U. C. Kline home.

VAN ORMER By MRS. ELMER KEITH

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lovell and sons, Lynn and Gary, visited over the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Stuart of Punxsutawney.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Weld and sons, Larry and Dale, of Pittsburgh, visited over the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Keith.

Mrs. Jack Hanna and daughter, of Johnstown, visited recently with local relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Van Westover and sons, of Altoona, visited on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cash Gray Sr.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hartman and family of Amshry visited on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Stins.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Whittaker and family of Coalport visited on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Whittaker.

Miss Civitta of Blandburg visited at the James Stine home recently.

Miss O'Walley spent the week end with relatives in Ocochee, Pa.

Mrs. Cash Gray and son, Don, of Beaver Valley, visited recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cash Gray Jr.

Blair Myers of New Jersey visited over the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Kelly.

Mortgage At Ceremony Cresson Lodge 158, Loyal Order of Moose, last Tuesday night celebrated its freedom from debt by burning a $22,000 mortgage on the improvement of their home at 113 Ashcroft Ave. The renovations cost $75,000 three years ago.

Mrs. Walter Coalworth of Salt Lake City, Utah, visited in town last week at the home of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Mortensen.

Thomas Sherwood of Akron, O. spent the week end at his home here.

Stephen Stefanik is spending a few days in New Haven, Conn.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Vanecky of Baltimore, Md., spent the week end here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Venecky.

Mrs. Henry Fava of Trenton, N. J., visited week end at the home of her mother, Mrs. Sarah Zanoni.

Miss Veronica Horvat and Michael Dudash of Pittsburgh were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Sponky.

Week end visitors here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stockley were Mr. and Mrs. Myron Glang and son, Bessie, of Mt. Holly, N. J. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Stockley and family of Turtle Creek and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Stockley and family of Burnside.

Stanley Vasevich was a business caller in Pittsburgh last week.

Misses Eileen Farabaugh and Alice Pannock spent the week end in Baltimore, Md., where they visited friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sponky and family and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Connelly and family of Turtle Creek were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Murphy.

Service men who spent the week end at their homes here included Pat Farabaugh of Fort Eustis, Va., and Paul Flora and Mike Christoff of Ft. Lee, Va.

ASHVILLE Ashville Volunteer Fire Co. Active in Brush Fire Calls

The Ashville Fire Company have been very active in extinguishing brush fires in this area. Friday, May 2, they were called to a brush blaze at the Edwards, Wise farm near Chest Springs, and on Saturday, May 3, they answered an alarm to a forest fire at St. Augustine.

Last Children Found Only Going for Walk

Three children were found wandering down the road from Spindley City on Friday afternoon. After much questioning from Bob Edwards and several other people, Jim Burgoon finally succeeded in ascertaining their names. They were Glenn Noel, Donna and Bob Shank, who decided to go for a walk. None of them have started to school.

Ashville Drum & Bugle Corps Names Officers

The Ashville Drum and Bugle Corps, sponsored by V. F. W. Post 4115, elected officers on Thursday, May 1. Elected were President, Jack Brannigan; vice president, Paul Brannigan; secretary, Beverly Lidwell; treasurer, Lou Kelly. By-Laws, Publicity and a bake sale committees also were named.

Sonny Wright has returned to Erie, after spending the week end at home.

Mrs. Ed Scanlon visited with Lorraine Miller on Friday night.

ASHVILLE Ashville Volunteer Fire Co. Active in Brush Fire Calls

The Ashville Fire Company have been very active in extinguishing brush fires in this area. Friday, May 2, they were called to a brush blaze at the Edwards, Wise farm near Chest Springs, and on Saturday, May 3, they answered an alarm to a forest fire at St. Augustine.

Last Children Found Only Going for Walk

Three children were found wandering down the road from Spindley City on Friday afternoon. After much questioning from Bob Edwards and several other people, Jim Burgoon finally succeeded in ascertaining their names. They were Glenn Noel, Donna and Bob Shank, who decided to go for a walk. None of them have started to school.

Ashville Drum & Bugle Corps Names Officers

The Ashville Drum and Bugle Corps, sponsored by V. F. W. Post 4115, elected officers on Thursday, May 1. Elected were President, Jack Brannigan; vice president, Paul Brannigan; secretary, Beverly Lidwell; treasurer, Lou Kelly. By-Laws, Publicity and a bake sale committees also were named.

Sonny Wright has returned to Erie, after spending the week end at home.

Mrs. Ed Scanlon visited with Lorraine Miller on Friday night.

Linda Fregly Elected President of Colver 4-H

Linda Fregly was elected president of Colver 4-H Club at a meeting in Colver Presbyterian Church the other evening. Others named to office are Betty Lou Kuncelmann, vice president; Jeanne Kuncelmann, secretary; Alice Bright, treasurer; Mary Jane Aitken, song leader; Elva Gates, game leader, and Dolores Burket, reporter.

"Buttons and Bows" was chosen as the name for the new organization. Members will participate in a sewing project during the summer months.

Next meeting is scheduled for May 21 at 7:30 in Colver Presbyterian Church.

The most enviable of all titles, large or small, is that of being an honest man.

Shirley Conrad, Reba Dempsey, Dorothy Eyer and Miss Eckley of Cresson attended a spaghetti supper at the home of Dorothy Passonita in Dysart last week.

Betty Conrad was a patient at Altoona Mercy Hospital recently. Low Dasciano and Gene Eyer visited the Seagrave Fire Truck factory in Columbus, Ohio, on Monday of this week.

Cpl. A-2C Thomas Murphy, of Greener Air Base, Mass., spent a few days with his parents here recently.

Elyne Brannigan, Dorothy Eyer, Frances Brannigan and Hilda Pugh visited with Louise Kane in Altoona on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gibbons of Cresson were visitors in town over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bieswenger visited with Louise Kane in Altoona on Sunday.

Hilda Billard and Mrs. Eleanor Ingram spent Sunday with Helen Hollen.

Mr. and Mrs. Ham Hhincerich of Altoona and Mrs. Mary Hilt were Sunday callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tony Hincerich.

Mr. and Mrs. C. McCoy and children of Chest Springs visited Mr. and Mrs. Vince Bieswenger Sunday.

Mrs. Joseph Gaida won an electric percolator and an electric iron on the Home Town American Program. This was the ninth weekly prize.

Mr. and Mrs. Boland of Ebensburg visited Warren Noel on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Merle Hammond and sons, of Huntingdon, visited her mother, Mrs. Germaine McKinney, recently.

Why is that so many people think that being broke is something to write home about?

See it now!
The wonderfully new and different—

CYCLAMATIC FRIGIDAIRE

It's a Food Freezer and Refrigerator combined!

And you get all these exclusive features too!

- One-piece porcelain food compartment
- Quick-freeze Ice Traps
- Bin-size, oil-ports-in Hydrators
- Famous Motor-Mixer mechanism with 3-Year Protection Plan
- Aluminum shelves that cannot rust
- New Food-Safety Indicator
- Beautiful, Raymond Lowry Styling

Model IR-106
DISPLAYED

Also see the 2 other Cyclamatic Frigidaires—and the new Deluxe, Master and Standard Models, priced from $699.00

Bender Electric Company

Phone 2401

CARROLLTOWN, PENNA.