Miss Marie Kirkpatrick Bride of Urban Holtz At Ceremony Saturday

A beautiful wedding was solemnized in St. Benedict's Catholic Church, Carrolltown, Saturday, Oct. 18, at 9 a. m., when Miss Marie Kirkpatrick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Kirkpatrick, became the bride of Urban Holtz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Holtz of Hastings. Rev. Father Victor, OSB, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. The maid of honor was Edna Kirkpatrick, sister of the bride. Bridesmaid was Peggy McNulty, cousin of the bride, and Patty Kirkpatrick was her sister's junior bridesmaid. Robert Holtz was his brother's best man, and Wendell Yeckley served as usher.

The bride was attired in a white satin and lace gown with train. Her finger tip veil was fastened to a headpiece of lace and seed pearls. She carried a white prayer book with white carnations and streamers.

The maid of honor wore a ballerina gown of aqua taffeta and net with matching headpiece and carried a loose hand bouquet of mixed flowers.

The bridesmaid wore a ballerina gown of shrimp taffeta and net with matching headpiece and carried a loose hand bouquet of mixed flowers.

The junior bridesmaid was attired in a pink gown of taffeta and net with matching headpiece and carried a nosegay of pink and white carnations.

The bride placed a bouquet of white pom-poms on the Blessed Virgin's altar while the choir sang "On This Day, O Beautiful Mother."

A breakfast was served to the wedding party at the home of the bride. The wedding dinner was served at the Bearer Hotel, Carrolltown, followed by a reception at St. Boniface Church Hall, St. Boniface, in the evening.

Upon their return from a wedding trip to Niagara Falls and Canada, the couple will reside in Cleveland, Ohio, where Mr. Holtz is employed.

Colver's Community Chest Has Kickoff Meet Monday

$6,070 Set As Goal For '52-'53 Operations

Leaders for the 1952-53 campaign of Colver Community Chest were named at a reorganization meeting of the board of directors and campaign workers last Wednesday evening in Holy Family Catholic Church social rooms. The Colver Chest will begin its second year of operation this year.

Retained as chairman of the board of directors was J. W. Cizinki, general manager of the Colver Store Co.

Directors named Walter Angert to succeed William Sides as campaign chairman. Mr. Angert is mine foreman at Ebensburg Coal Co.

Under the guidance of Mr. Sides the 1951-52 campaign went over the top by more than $2,000.

Charles Buterbaugh, president of Colver Parent-Teacher Assn., and an active civic leader, was named publicity chairman, the same post he held last year.

Goal for the drive is $6,070, slightly higher than the chest's first year goal. Kickoff for the drive was held Monday evening of this week at a meeting in the church hall.

Members of the campaign committee are Mr. Angert, Mr. Buterbaugh, Robert Moreland, M. H. Kline, Oliver Ball Jr., and John Zawiskie.

Frank Lagana, "Star of the Week, $1.00.

The chest received an encouraging start toward meeting its goal when Colver Local 860, of the UMWA, voted to contribute some $4,500 to the drive.

Officials announced that the local voted to contribute $6 per man. Membership in the local is about 760 men.

Chest officials said a $1,000 emergency relief fund has been set up this year. Three men were named to an emergency relief fund committee to govern the fund. They are Rev. A. Ray Howland, Mr. Kline and John Huigus.

Included among groups and agencies which receive financial aid from the chest are Colver Parent-Teacher Assn., the junior band, school athletics, recreation fund, emergency and Christmas basket fund, Girl Scouts, Scouters' Club, midget baseball, polio, Pennsylvania Assn. for the Blind, Salvation Army, United Defense Fund, Heart Fund, and others.

With the exception of Greater Johnstown Community Chest, the Colver Chest is the only one in the county.
