Many Activities In School Spirit Week At Spangler High

In connection with the final football game with their keeneast rival, the students of Spangler High School celebrated School Spirit Week from Nov. 5 to 12. The week was sponsored by the Special Projects Committee under the direction of Dick Clawson, chairman.

Some of the activities of the week included: poster reminders (Build Up Our School—Don't Tear It Down); the fostering of school spirit by the wearing of school colors; the Junior Class the wearing of blue and gold, woolen dolls and the purchase of blue and gold shakers, both sold by the Yearbook Staff.

Various homerooms demonstrated their idea of school spirit and a prize was awarded for the one judged the best. Judges were D. R. Lovette, supervising principal and Hugo Vivadelli, high school principal. The first prize of $5.00 was awarded to the Junior girls homeroom which was judged the most symbolic and the most attractive. The second, or consolation award was won by the Senior girls and third place was given to the Sophomore girls with fourth award going to Room C in the Freshman Building. The prizes were awarded at the pep meeting last Tuesday morning which climaxed the school spirit activities.

The week was closed with the annual Barnesboro-Spangler Victory Dance held in Spangler High School auditorium last Wednesday, Nov. 2. The dance was arranged by the Senior Class of SHS and music was provided by Primo Bonfanti and his orchestra.
