Local Presbyterian Choirs Rehearsing Christmas Music

The combined choirs of the Patton Presbyterian Church are rehearsing a program of Christmas music for presentation at the annual Christmas Family Worship Service which is a feature of the church program for the Sunday before Christmas, Dec. 21.

The choirs will present the Christmas story in Scripture and anthem with the story following the text of the Gospels of St. Luke and St. Matthew. "The Wonderful Story" with words by Raymond Earl Bellaire and music by Richard Koutz will form the background with special interpretation of the Christmas scene.

The soloists will be Donna Hopper, soprano; Catherine Swisher, alto; Nancy Auerbach, contralto; and Walter Sunseri, baritone; soprano. Mrs. John I. Barnard is church organist and pianist is Barbara Cogley and Nancy Auerbach.

On Sunday Dec. 14, the choir will present 16th Century carols as their contribution to the worship service.

Mrs. Bertison, 50, Expires On Sunday

Mrs. Susanna Bertison, age 50, of Patton, died last Sunday, Dec. 7, at the Mines Hospital in Spangler. Mrs. Bertison was born on June 7, 1902, in Osceola Mills.

The Patton lady is survived by her husband, Charles Bertison Sr., and three children—Charles Jr., Detroit, Mich.; Alexandra, Akron, Ohio; Mrs. Florence Rossinsky, Detroit, Mich.; Paul, George and Joseph, all at home. She was a sister of Mrs. Catherine Keck of Cleveland, Ohio and Andrew Penakovich of Barnesboro.

Funeral services will be held at 9 a. m. today, Dec. 11, in St. Peter's Paul's Greek Catholic Church, Patton, and interment will be made in the church cemetery.
