crweight champion—has one of the most fabulous records in ring history. Active as a pro since 1940, he has amassed a record of 187 wins while suffering only five losses against the finest of opposition. During this stretch Peran up two winning streaks of 62 and 73 fights, respectively.

Becoming champion back in '42 bydefeating Chalky Wright, Pepheld the crown until upset by landy Saddler in 1948. Willie pained his title back the following year only to lose it to Sad by defeating Chalky Wright, Pephepeared in 11 houts during '53 and added 11 more wins to his record. He is now ranked as the division's No. 1 challenger.

Peres—both a clever boxer and ground puncher—turned pro in 1861. With 25 wins in 27 start. Lally is now ranked fifth among the featherweights. A series of TV appearances this season against Davey Gallardo has helped make Peres a great favorite among home audiences.

Lulu has had his sights on this match with Pep for some time and realizes how valuable a win over Willie can be for him. Only '10 years old, it could be that Peres will be challenging for Saddler's title before reaching the voting age.
