Motor Club Seeks Turnpike Location

Construction of the proposed Erie-Pennsylvania Turnpike link through the Johnstown area was called for a Monday night by the Johnstown Motor Club.

Board of Governors of the club, meeting in Ft. Stanwix Hotel, imanimously voted to support proposals for building the new turnpike extension through this district.

A resolution drawn up by the board was forwarded Thesday to T. J. Evans, chairman of the Pa. Turnpike Commission.

To County Home

Cambria County is $800 riche because of the generosity of a 55-year-old Italian immigrant mi ner who died last year.

Both he and his wife have remained quite active despite the advancing years.

Mrs. Bernard, who will be 75 Nov. 3, does her own housework and enjoys spending time with her hobby, crocheting.

Her husband's favorite pastime is gardening.

All of the couple's six children were on hand for the celebration.

They are Peter, Anthony, Joseph, Mrs. Antherson, all of Barnesboro, and Mrs. Gennaro Cantalope of Spangier. There are 20 grandchildren and 3 great-grand-
