County in the past decade socked the area cage fans right smack in the face this past week end is news poured from Madison Square Garden in New York that that own Red Flashes of St. Francis Lit when St. Francis routed CCNT in the flashes of St. Francis this week end are off to the National Invitation Tournament, the foremost and the biggest one in the nation. We can't help but feel that as the news still holds many cage man spellbound at this time, it also must have a great number of disinterested sports fans a bit total. For the past few years we predicted on several occasions that the day soon the big-time collegate basketball circle would recognize our Frankies as an outanning team, and fivite them into their fold. And this is exactive that happened last week. We always tried to give our less a little limide "dope" on the goings on of the St. Francis to Brooklyin in Flash the best kind obta nable anyways.

So now you know why we are

The NIT bid is a big one for mot certain whether St. Francis y missing top notch hasketball, the best kind obta-nable anywhere.

By now you know why we are taking a little "dig" at the number of disinterested basketball ann always gramabled that St. Francis was a fly-by-might outfit and they would sconer at at homes and watch a couple of mismatched wreatters making fools of themselves on television.

The news that the NIT recognised St. Francis as one of the top telegram of the nation by inviting them to heir tourney, streety must swondering just what happened. But we'll still say, "Wc told you see the Flash cage achedule for the first game of the NIT be telecast will be on the Garden of the NIT be telecast will be of the NIT and the second telecast of the NIT to be telecast will be of the NIT and the St. Francis as one of the togother was the second telecast of the NIT and the second telecast of the NIT at home and wreatters making fools of themselves on television.

The news that the NIT recognisms of the nation by inviting them to heir tourney, streety must earn of the nation by inviting them to heir tourney, streety must earn of the nation by inviting them to heir tourney, streety must earn of the nation by inviting them to heir tourney, streety must earn of the nation by inviting them to heir tourney, streety must earn of the nation by inviting them to heir tourney, streety must earn of the nation by inviting them to heir tourney, streety must earn of the next season. Bet it's a grant wordering just what happened. But we'll still say, "Wc told you read the daily newspapers against the tourney will be on Saturday. March 13. from $2.00 pm. The second telecast of the NIT and the property and the part of the NIT and the NIT and the part of the NIT and the NIT and the NIT and the NIT and the part of the NIT and the NIT and school are up to par, so that an offering for a scholarship to college can be made.

Four big-time colleges are showing interest in Lane. Taking good looks at the star performer are John Carroll University of Cleveland, Ohio; William & Mary of Williams, Va., and Miami University of Florida. Penn State University has also voiced its interest in Lane. Courier Souting States

Mr. Cleero said that only recently have scouts of Miami University contacted him on the possibilities of gatting the Mountaineer star to the Florida school. The Carrolltown coach also said that of all the list of cardidates for William & Mary looked over to date the scouts of the Virginia college have cut their list to just five, and Lane is still on that list.

This year's bid marks the s'xth such post-season invitation the Frankies have received in the past seven years. The Loretto school participated in the NCAA in 1948, the Catholic Intercolle giate Tournament in 1949, the Eastern Catholic Intercollegiate Tourney in 1950 and 1951, and the National Catholic Invitational Cournament in 1952.

The acceptance of the bid necunitates the cancellation of one regular game and the playing and rescheduling of another.

St. Francis was to have played Temple University of Philadelphia in Jaffa Mosque, Altoons on next Monday, March 8, but the en-gagement has definitely been can-celled. The Red Flash basketball fans will be able to give them a real sendoff prior to their invasion of the NIT tomorrow night when they meet Georgetown in a game at the Jaffa Mosque.

St. Francis officials made every effort to cancet the game or reschedule it for a later date but

Dave Polansky of CCNY and Danny Lunch of Brooklyn's St. Francis both called it a good team with an outstanding player in Maurice Stokes. Vince Davis, the Frankies athletic director, althe Frankies athletic director, also praised Stokes and said that his team had received threotournament bids—from the NIT, the NAA and the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics—within a 24-hour period. The NIT bid was accepted, he said, because he had been looking for a chance to display Stokes in the Cardens for the past two years.

Hope Fire Company, Barnes-boro, was called to the Frank Glasser home in Barnesboro early Monday afternson after a kero-sene stove exploded in the cellar.
