BOTH SIDES OF MCCARTHY-ARMY CONTROVERSY
