Graduation Photos Hold Resemblances

Time marches on and, in its passing, the cycle of years brings many changes—changes which so often merge to an initial point. As we scan faces of groups of each Spring's graduate we notice resemblances; we count a certain number from the left or right of a picture, then look for a particular name. And how often we are amazed to find the reason for the marked resemblance we saw—the youth is a descendant of a former schoolmate of ours; the last a daughter of a former playmate.

This year the Cover Picture of Saturday's Johnstown daily holds especial interest for us. The four Patton-Chest seniors present a heart-warming sight, more so because three of the boys are sons of former residents of this vicinity. In other words we know their parents when...

Kenneth Trexler who has served as president of the class during its four years of high school, is a son of Thomas and Elizabeth (Simon) Trexler. A former resident of this place, Mrs. Trexler was a schoolmate of this reporter at Hastings H. The class treasurer for the past two years, Viola Lann is a daughter of Harry and Viola (Stotts) Lann. Both Mr. and Mrs. Lann at one time lived in this vicinity, the latter being a "nest door" neighbor of ours as it were. The Kirk, Stotts and Kline farm adjoined in Elder Township. And, incidentally, Mr. Lann is a nephew of Mrs. Trexler, mentioned above.

The third member of the youth group—Isabel Ott—is a descendant of pioneer settlers of St. Boniface. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Ott. Born in St. Boniface, Minn., Ott is grandson of the late "Squire Ott," prominent St. Boniface resident.

Two brothers who are natives of Hastings played important roles in the Jefferson County High School Band Festival held this spring in Skyville-Henderson Joint School. They are Valgene and Donald Routh, sons of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Routh of Hastings.

A music supervisor at Skyville-Henderson was host for the event. Valgene, now supervisor of music education in the Allegheny County Schools, Cumberland, was guest conductor for the festival. "Daddy" is a 1932 graduate of State Teachers College, Indiana, and is doing graduate work at Pennsylvania State University.

"Val," also an Indiana graduate, received his master degree from University of Michigan and recently completed studies for his doctor of education degree in music education at Penn State. He formerly taught instrumental music in the Rockwood schools before going to Cumberland where he was chairman of the music department at State Teachers College, Lock Haven. He is conductor of Jaffa Shrine Band Altoona, and is a member of numerous musical organizations and fraternities.

Two young men who are natives of Hastings will be ordained to the priesthood this month. They are Cecil John Donahue OES, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Donahue, and Arthur John Heitz, OES, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin A. Heitz.

The Sacred Order will be conferred Saturday, May 22, at 9 a. m. in the St. Vincent Archdiocese Church, Latrobe. Each will offer his first solemn Mass in St. Bernard's Church.

Father Cecil's first solemn Mass will be on Sunday, May 23 at 9:30 o'clock. That afternoon at 2 o'clock a reception will be held at the Donahue home in East End.

Father Arthur will offer his solemn Mass the following Sunday, May 30, at 9:30 o'clock. A reception from 3 to 5 p. m. will take place in St. Bernard's social room when the young priest will give his first friendly blessing.

Joint Birthday Party At Adams Residence
A joint birthday party was held last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Adams in honor of their daughter, Judy and Patty. Patty was five years old on May 5, while Judy was eight on May 22. Games and lunch featured and the two little girls received a nice assortment of gifts. Guests at the combined observance included: Don, John and Bobby Sibert, Jim Wells, Donna Angert, Arlene and Estelle Busby, Jean Ann and Kathy McElroy, Rebecca and Roberta Sibert, Dolly Fontino, Peggy Walls, Teresa and Jimmy Angert, Susan and Glenn Kibler, Margie and Don Thomas, Kelly Vaino, Judy Green, Joyce Hunsicker, Cecile and Shirley Schilling, Bonnie Smith, Bernadette, Mike, and Ed Sullivan, all of Hastings, and Mary Louise Morrison, Kelly, and Cathy Wright, Linda, and Raylene, all of Johnstown.

10 Lettermen Will End High School Careers
Ten lettermen of Hastings-Elder High School will close athletic careers this spring when graduation day rolls around. Six of the senior lettermen participated in football four seasons. Another had four years of varsity baseball and still another was on the track team four years. Among the graders is Jim Kolony, an all-star last term. The list of athletic lettermen here follows:

Andrew Belkowski, Mike Cavallo, Walt Depto, Walter Donahue, Jim Kolony, John Phillips, Ed Stitts, Cornelius Waksman, Fred Woodell and Tom Yeager.

Italian Rhubarb Said Good Food
Now, we've always known that there's some good eating each Spring along woodend trails or in freshening meadows. But last week, while traveling through an alley as a route of shortest distance between two points, we were amazed at what we saw. Down on his knees, digging with a sharp implement was "Goat" (as everyone here knows Anthony Fiasco), digging out huge stalks of gray-green rhubarb.

"What in the world are you going to do with the burdock?" we asked. "Eat 'em," replied Goat. Then he went on to explain "We call this Italian rhubarb and prepare it like spinach. It's a native of the old world, but widely naturalized in America, is popular as a diaphoretic and diuretic and as a remedy for many diseases. Mrs. Mary Fiasco, Goat's mother, who has been a diabetic for many years, includes in her diet every edible green she can obtain. In fact, she has become quite an outdoors gourmet, and has long relished various greens with epicurean delight."

Wal, another year has passed! Another Bowlin Season is water under the dam—or sumpin'! Another Bowlin Party is only a memory. Las week Us "uffed ourselves at 'The Cottage' near Ebensburg. Season's results was announced, prizes awarded, an much reminiscing done. Wotta a gab fest it wuz!

A course, Us hed an ole gab-buddy wit Us, in the person of Our Nell. Nellie yooza give Us many a laff wit her antics when she bowled wit Us afore she moved to the County Seat. So Us took her wit Us fer Ole Time's Sake. She's the same Nell—funny as ever.

Lovette to Leave Post At Spangler

A former Hastings High School Supervising Principal, D. R. Lovette, will retire this spring at the close of the Spangler School District term, after being at the school helm there since 1933. Before going to Spangler he had served the Hastings district for about nine years.

Mr. Lovette and the former Anna Flynn are parents of these children: Mrs. Mary Eleanor Williams of Drexel Hill, former instructor at State Teachers College, Millersville; Dr. B. J. Lovette, Johnstown, physician and surgeon; Miss Doris Lovette, assistant personnel director of Barrett Chemical Co., Philadelphia; Ralph, in charge of precision instruments for New York and Pennsylvania Paper Co., Lock Haven; and Miss Joanne Lovette, art supervisor in Aspinwall High School, and D. R. Lovette, Jr., a senior in Temple University's dental school.

New Machine Viewed By Writer
Your reporter and husband, A. J., were guests last Thursday evening at the Union-Fresno Courier office in Patton at demonstration of the Scan-A-Graver Cadet, marvelous new piece of equipment installed last week in Patton's modern newspaper plant.

A full description of the new equipment was given in the Courier's April 8 edition, but the machine seems almost like magic, which one can only see in operation to really appreciate. In other words, "Seeing is believing."

We watched the magic needle of the Cadet, as the machine is known, etch up to 48 square inches to top quality engraving in only 22 minutes. Almost fully automatic, the Cadet shuts itself off when the plate is 80 screen plane is finished. It is surely a marvel in the field of recent inventions.

For further particulars on the new Scan-A-Graver please refer to articles printed in the Courier and also on Page 3-C of this issue.

Miss Marie Chura Weds George Baker
A pretty wedding took place in St. Bernard's Church Saturday at 9 a. m. when Miss Marie Chura, R. N., became the bride of George Baker. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Chura of Hastings R. D., and he is a son of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Baker of Hamilton, Pa. Gabriel, OES, performed the double-ring ceremony preceding the nuptial high mass.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in an ankle-length gown of white tulle, lace and net. Her finger-ring veil was secured by a seed-pearl band. Carrying a bouquet of white carnations, she placed it on the blessed Virgin altar where she picked up her bride's miment which was adorned with white gardenias and ribbon cascade. Miss Peggy Zanin of Emswath as maid of honor wore a green off pink tulle and lace, with matching headband. She carried a colonial bouquet of pink and white carnations. The bridegroom's sister, Miss Camilla Baker served as bridesmaid. In yellow, her attire was similar to that of the maid of honor, and yellow and white carnations fastened her colonial bouquet. Carl Baker was his brother's best man, and the bride's brother, Alvin Chura, was usher.

A wedding breakfast was served at the Baker home in East End, and dinner and reception were held in the bride's home. Mr. Baker is a graduate of Hastings High School, while Mrs. Baker is a graduate of Barnesboro High and Miners Hospital School of Nursing, Spangler. She is a member of the hospital's nursing staff. The couple will reside on Hastings R. D.

Gentle Clara Hugill Is Laid To Rest
Gentle and soft-spoken Clara Hugill was laid to rest Saturday at 2 p. m. in Union Cemetery, following services in the Hugill home in East End, conducted by Rev. J. Walker, Skillington of Hastings Methodist Church.

Becoming gravely ill at her home on May 1, Mrs. Hugill was removed to Phillipsburg Hospital, where she passed away at 12:25 p. m. on May 4.

Born in Johnstown Aug. 4, 1864, she was a daughter of David and Mary Price. Her husband, R. M. Hugill, preceded her in death.

Surviving are five sisters and a brother—Mrs. Sara Tompkins, Mrs. Landa Love, Mrs. Diana Taylor, Mrs. Leah Gleyze and Albert Price, all of Houtzdale, and Mrs. Bertha Atkinson, of Chambersburg, O.

A resident of Hastings for the past 36 years, Clara Hugill exemplified the true meaning of the Golden Rule. Of her could truly be said: "She never harmed any!"

Becks Announce Birth
Congratulations to Paul and Ruth (Bradley) Beck of Talmadge, O., on the arrival of "Pat and Mike". The twins, a boy and girl, were born on May 6, one weighing 6 pounds and 8 ounces, while the other tipped the scales at 5 pounds, 7 ounces. Mr. and Mrs. Beck and Mae (Kline) Rhoads of Hastings, and their three other children were born here.

A Minogue
Speaking of a faux pas—here's one: The other day we heard a radio announcer minogue our telegram from far-distant daughter, "Pat and Mike". Now, who ever heard of pages being torn from a tomb? The line reads: Each room like a page torn apart from the tomb (not tomb). Sorry, podner!

SONG COPIES NOW
Due to the generous kindness of a young musician friend, I now have quite a lot of mimeographed copies of "My Howary" on hand. In continuance of my Marian Year offer, copies of the song may be obtained, 10-cent postage fee to be included with each request. Incidentally, all postage accrued will be donated as a Marian Year offering.
