

Hastings and Vicinity

By GERTRUDE M. BOUCE

Phone CHapel 7-4239

First Communion Class Made Up of 28 Boys, 32 Girls

Receive Sacrament On Sunday At St. Bernard's

Perfectly trained under the guidance and supervision of their teachers, nuns of St. Bernard's Parochial School, a class of 60 children received First Holy Communion at the 8:30 mass here on Sunday. The girls outnumbered the boys by four, there being 28 boys and 32 girls. All in white, the children presented a lovely scene as they piously proceeded to the place prepared for them to receive their Lord for the first time. The following were in the class:

Paul Dvochak, Barry Hambley, Denis Hessler, Terrence Hunt, James Kline, Daniel Lantzy, Patrick Leche, George Miller, Ronald Miller, Richard Miller, Harold Murphy, John Murphy, Michael Murphy, Daniel Novak, Joseph Ostrick, Eugene Rogay, Richard Semelberger, Edward Shuty, Lawrence Shuty, James Sodomot, Louis Solonoski, James Sral, Bernard Thomas, John Weakland, Earl Yeckley, Patrick Yeager, Paul Yeager, Judith Adams, Teresa Angert, Agnes Basista, Judith Bush, Dorothy Bearer, Nancy Born, Rita Chura, Arlene Easley, Darlene Easley, Judith Greco, Joyce Hnotkovich, Kathleen Kalis, Anita King, Pauline Kline, Barbara Kusma, Mary Ann Milosavich, Bonita Miller, Gloria Miller, Sandra Mock, Bernadette Molek, Margaret Noel, Leah Price, Gloria Phanar, Wanda Roland, Theresa Saway, Judith Semelberger, Shirley Shilling, Lorena Shuty, Donna Thomas, Gloria Worchewyk, Harold Woodley and Elizabeth Westover.

Procession Feature Of May Crowning At Hastings Church

A beautiful ceremony took place in St. Bernard Church Sunday afternoon when crowning of the Blessed Virgin Mary climaxed a procession. The clergy, altar boys and BVM Sodality took part in the procession, which got under way at 3 o'clock. Parochial School children and the class of First Communicants occupied places in the front of the church.

Miss Grace Cunningham, Sodality Prefect, was May Queen, and Father Adelbert, OSB, placed the crown of flowers in place on Mary's statue. A sermon was delivered by Father Ambrose, OSB, of St. Mary's Church. Hymns were sung, the Memorare and Marian Year prayer recited, and First Communicants were invested in the Holy Scapular. Benediction and singing of the Te Deum concluded the services.

Cite Hnat Selestok For Safety Record

Hnat Selestok of Hastings is one of five mining men who last week received national recognition in tribute to safety records. The Joseph A. Holmes Safety Association will award certificates of honor. The award winners were chosen at the annual meeting of the national safety group in Washington, D. C. Mr. Selestok was cited for working 43 1/2 years in the underground without a blemish on his safety record. He is a native of Ukraine in America from the "Old Country" in 1909 and accepted employment in the anthracite region in Eastern Pennsylvania. After a five-year stay in Pennsylvania, Mr. Selestok moved to the bituminous fields here. In 1913 he started working for Rich Hill Coal Co., remaining there until his retirement last year.

William H. Williams Local Band Teacher

William H. Williams of Ebensburg last week was elected music supervisor of Hastings-Elder Schools. He succeeds Mr. Wal Stanley of Johnstown, whose resignation was accepted at a joint board meeting here. Mr. Williams, a graduate of State Teachers College, Indiana, recently completed a three-year term of duty with the U. S. Army. The local board authorized John Nevins, head football coach; Paul Cullane, assistant football and head basketball coach; and Edward Demotko, junior varsity football coach, to attend a coaches' clinic June 21-24 at State Teachers College, Stroudsburg.

No More Copies Available Of Hymn 'My Rosary'

Since making my Marian Year offer of the song, 'My Rosary,' the 'old' edition several weeks ago the demand has been so great that all copies at hand have been given out. As no more copies of the song are available, I have decided to withdraw the offer at this time. I will also advise from all sides, including 'My Rosary' copy-

We're Sorry!

We are sorry. Through a misunderstanding between the Courier's management and photographer there was no one present last Sunday to take a picture of the First Communion Class of St. Bernard's Church. We are very sorry to have caused inconvenience for Father Adelbert, the members and instructors of the class and the parishioners of St. Bernard's. We will strive to see that other such incidents do not occur in the future.

UNION PRESS-COURIER

Newlyweds Feted At Recent Shower

Mrs. Louis Chura and Mrs. Johanna Beltowski of Hastings R. D. were hostesses at a shower given last Thursday evening in the Barnesboro VFW Home for Mr. and Mrs. George Baker of Hastings, who were married May 8. Bingo featured as entertainment and a nice lunch was served.

Those present were: Mrs. Francis Young, Mrs. Catherine Kline, Mrs. James Beltowski, Mrs. John Drachak, Mrs. Joseph Lobick, Mrs. John Giesler, Mrs. John Dolgas, Mrs. Mike Stislow, Mrs. Stanley Beszic, Mrs. Katherine Newman, Mrs. Helen Kommer, Mrs. Dan Yonkoske, Mrs. Betty Keith, Mrs. B. A. Baker, Mrs. Matiezyk, Mrs. Mary Kerfonta, Mrs. Martha Killander, Mrs. Paul Golowick, Mrs. Julian Giesler, Mrs. Philip Chura, Mrs. Albert Koval, Mrs. John Gerrick, Mrs. Ken Anderson, Mrs. Mary Zatoski, Mrs. Victoria Wajno, Mrs. Elaine Rose, Mrs. Mae Williams, Mrs. Anne Cowan, Mrs. M. G. Burkey, Mrs. Pearl Smith, Mrs. Anna Wargo, Mrs. Paul Dolgas, Mrs. Pauline Ferenac, Mrs. John Clark, Mrs. Heidi Yelovsky, Mrs. Theresa Falls, Mrs. Margaret Walsh, Mrs. Rose Certo, Mrs. Stanley Giesler, Mrs. John Chura, Mrs. J. Lodic and Misses Dorothy Pardee, Martha Pardee, Alice Westover, Catherine Kommer, Betty Kommer and Lena Stevens.

Anointed Hands

Anointed hands that raise the Sacred Host, Devoted to the ministry of God, How oft is life they give us pure, and more they bless. Of all, ere we depose beneath the sod. Eternal Priest, by whose dear Precious Blood All stain of deadly sin was cleansed anew, Keep pure the hands that liberate the blood That purifies our souls for God - for You!

Chaste hands empowered to convey the manna that absolves offense and strife, O Bless these hands whose blessing shows the way To Heaven's Gate and Everlasting Life.

Us Bowlers Won't Bodder Enywon!

Wal, this is the last column for Us this season. Aint yuh glad? Us won't bodder enywon for awhile. But Us just wants to speak our mind in peace this week, by announcing the standin of our gals at the conclusion of the 1963-64 seasons. Top yinnah was Powerhouse Gert, best was Cap Sam, and third was Slim Norma. Rosie-Poste was low the list follows: Gert Nagle, 167; Esther McKillop, 166; Norma Conco, 162; Edna Bessie, 161; Kay Mittie, 96; Jeroma Miller, 98; Gertie Houck, 94; Margaret Gallo, 84; Betty Scott, 82, and Ross Anna, 80.

Local Folks At Dinner Honoring D. R. Lovette

Hastings people attending the testimonial banquet in Barnesboro last week for D. R. Lovette, supervising principal of Spangler School, were Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Ulrich, Dr. and Mrs. F. C. Peters, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. John Brazill and Mr. and Mrs. David Commons, as well as Mr. and Mrs. Philip Strittmatter. The latter couple reside in Ebensburg, but Mr. Strittmatter is a member of the Hastings faculty. Being president of Cambria County Branch PSEA, he represented that group.

Mr. Ulrich represented the Association of Secondary Principals in Spangler last week. He is a member of the Hastings faculty. Mr. Commons, member of the Spangler faculty, was a member of the Art Committee which assisted in planning and working for the event.

Hastings Fire Auxiliary Ladies At County Banquet

Hastings members attending the banquet of the auxiliary to Volunteer Firemen's Association of Cambria County and Vicinity in Spangler last week were: Alma Crona, president of the Hastings auxiliary, Ada Hills, Edna Seifridge, Edna Becker, Agatha Born, Evelyn Stewart, Eva Yeager, Gertrude Baker, Genevieve Overberger, Helene Semelberger, Helen Holts, Hazel Sellers, Helma Kline, Ida Strassler, Julia Kline, Lena Yahner, Marie Link, Martha Nevins, Rosalia Plocek, Bea Januska, Theresa Plocek and Alberta Easley.

Donate Blood Here From 1 to 5 Today

Area residents are urged to allow at least an hour of their time this Thursday, May 20, for a visit to the Red Cross Bloodmobile which will be at the Hastings Methodist Church basement from 1 to 5 p. m. All walk-ins will be accepted.

However, to expedite visits, some prospective donors previously contacted by Rev. J. Walter Skillington or Mrs. Edith Niebauer, who head the committee in charge here, in order to arrange appointments. Residents should require little reminder of the importance of this blood collecting program. During the past week blood demand jumped considerably in this county's hospitals. At Miners' Hospital, 18 patients were used. A total of 781 pints were dispatched to hospitals and the armed forces, reports reveal.

Dorothy McDermott Bride On Saturday

St. Bernard Church was the scene of a pretty Spring wedding Saturday morning when Miss Dorothy McDermott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick McDermott, became the bride of Fred Soisson Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Soisson, all of Hastings. Father Flavian Yelisko, OSB, former assistant pastor at St. Bernard's, officiated at the double-ring ceremony preceding the nuptial high mass at 10 o'clock. Mrs. Eleanor Ertler, Carrolltown, was her sister's matron of honor, and Donald Parrish, cousin of the bridegroom served as best man.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother Paul, wore a ballerina gown of white Chantilly lace. Her brief veil of nylon illusion was attached to a seed-pearl tiara. She carried a bride's missal topped by a white orchid. Mrs. Ertler was attired in a ballerina gown of Spring green with matching headband. She carried a colonial bouquet of yellow carnations. Bouquets of white snapdragons adorned the church altars.

Following the ceremony a reception took place in the social rooms of the church. Dinner was served at 5:00 p. m. in the Patton American Legion Home. Mrs. Soisson is a graduate of Hastings High School and holds a secretarial position in Washington, D. C. A graduate of St. Vincent Prep School and College. Mr. Soisson is a pre-medical student at Georgetown University. They will reside in Washington.

Mass Schedule Changed For This Coming Sunday

A changed schedule of masses will be in order Sunday in St. Bernard Church, as follows: Low masses at 6:30, 7:30 and 8:30 a. m., First Solemn High Mass to be sung by Father Cecil Donahue, OSB, at 9:30, and at 11:30 a low mass.

Father Cecil is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Donahue of Hastings. He will be ordained on May 22.

Real Pinochle Hand Held By Mrs. Quinn

Playing a game of pinochle at a home in St. Boniface recently, Mrs. Catherine Quinn of this place enjoyed an honest-to-goodness card thrill, when she held every card in her hand, amounting to 31 points. She held a straight in diamonds, pinochle, Kings and Jacks.

BAKE SALE

A bake sale will be held by the Hastings 4-H Club on Saturday, May 29 in Easley's furniture store. An assortment of good home-baked delicacies will be offered for sale.

Fred Boyle and Paul Kitchen of St. Boniface were visitors in Grassspan on Friday. Members of Hastings 4-H Club plan taking a tour of Hershey some time in June. The young people are grateful to Hastings Rotary Club for sponsoring their capons.

Donald Bush, USN, of Bainbridge, Md., was at his home on Fourth Avenue for the week end. Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Houck, Mrs. F. G. Postner, Mrs. Rose Franklin and Mrs. Catherine Quinn were at DeLore's Friday where they visited Father Raymond at St. Catherine's Church rectory.

Mr. Frank Grimes is spending some time with relatives in Detroit, Mich. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Huether Jr., of Spangler, announce the birth of a daughter in the Spangler hospital on May 18. Huether is the former Dolores (Lantzy) Paoli of Hastings. Miss Betty Gevick, student at State Teachers College, Indiana, was at her home here Friday weekend. Mr. and Mrs. Patrick McDermott visited Sunday in Carrolltown at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Britter.

Banns of Marriage Published Sunday For the First Time in St. Bernard Church for Paul Louis Marcuzzo of Hastings and Miss Edna Delozier of St. Augustine. The wedding is set for June 5.

After being a patient for some time in Miners Hospital, Spangler, Mrs. Edwin Goss returned Saturday to her home here. Mr. and Mrs. A. X. Baker of Patton were guests Sunday at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Baker.

Father I. A. Strittmatter and Bernard Ratchford of Cresson were visitors in town Sunday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Cordell, Mrs. C. J. Cordell Sr. and Miss Alberta Cordell of Patton, and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Kirsch of Spangler were guests Sunday at the Paul Easley home.

Miss Naomi Binder, Mrs. A. J. Strittmatter and Mrs. F. G. Postner were award winners when Mrs. M. P. Strittmatter entertained the two-table Contract Bridge Club at her home in East End Friday evening.

At a recent annual election of officers for 1954, Barnesboro Court, No. 722, Catholic Daughters of America, Mrs. Mary (Yeager) and Mrs. Ruth McNelis was named trustee for three years. Mrs. Jennie E. (Hoover) Bradley, 83, who died recently in Altoona, was an aunt of Gordon Hoover of Hastings.

Catholics the world over are joyful at a coming event, the canonization of St. Pius X, on May 29 in Rome.

Mrs. Bernice Madis, of Washington, D. C., is spending the week at the home of her parents, and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Damm and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Walters of East End. Mrs. Ann Link, eighth grader at St. Bernard's Parochial School here, took first honors in her school with the best essay in the Altoona Register's Marian Year Essay Contest. She carried two institutions in the diocese were sent to the board of judges for final evaluation.

Mr. and Mrs. William Guegnon and son Billy were visitors in Altoona on Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. I. C. Yeager and son Myron of Juniata, and Miss Mary Proletti of Altoona, visited Sunday at the Daw Weakland home in East End. James Gill was admitted to the Spangler hospital on Sunday for observation.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Richards and children of Washington, D. C. spent the weekend here at the home of the lady's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Niebauer. On Friday evening, Mr. and Mrs. John Parrish of Patton were guests at the Niebauer home.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Robinson of Detroit, Mich., are visiting here with the lady's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick McDermott and other relatives.

A-C Michael Forberger came here from Donaldson Air Force Base in South Carolina to spend the weekend at his home. On May 21 he leaves for Camp Kilmer, N. J., where he will spend several days before going to Toussaint Air Force Base in France.

Mrs. Sue Hricko recently returned from Girard, O., where she attended the christening of a new granddaughter, Nancy Susan Airhart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Airhart. Mrs. Airhart is the former Louise Hricko.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Rhue and children, Deborah and Tony, and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Rhue and children, Rusty and Linda, Pontiac, Mich., were weekend guests here of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Kline and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Wetherston. Floyd Rhue wishes his many friends and relatives here to know that he appreciates the cards and get-well greetings he received while a recent hospital patient in Pontiac, following his accident while at work.

Did you guess the missing words in last week's "Spring Jingle"? They are: Soil, seed, corn, oats, sprout and grain. Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Kline and Mrs. Francis Amadee visited one day last week at the Charles Fox home in Ebensburg, and also visited with relatives in Johnstown.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack McCann and daughter Eleanor of Houtzdale were visitors in town Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Seymour and sons John and Joseph of Patton visited here Saturday evening at the E. M. Weakland home. Mr. and Mrs. Francis Amadee of Patton R. D. visited the Weaklands on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Love and daughter Eleanor of Houtzdale were visitors in town Saturday. Miss Anna Miller, employed in Akron, O., was at her home in East End over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene McDermott and children of Detroit, Mich., spent the weekend at the McDermott home in East End. Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Zeglin and Mrs. Richard, Eugene and Dennis were in Patton Saturday where they enjoyed the Armed Forces' Day parade.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren O'Leary of Patton were guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Dvorchak.

Banns of marriage were published Sunday for the first time in St. Bernard Church for Paul Louis Marcuzzo of Hastings and Miss Edna Delozier of St. Augustine. The wedding is set for June 5.

After being a patient for some time in Miners Hospital, Spangler, Mrs. Edwin Goss returned Saturday to her home here. Mr. and Mrs. A. X. Baker of Patton were guests Sunday at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Baker.

Father I. A. Strittmatter and Bernard Ratchford of Cresson were visitors in town Sunday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Cordell, Mrs. C. J. Cordell Sr. and Miss Alberta Cordell of Patton, and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Kirsch of Spangler were guests Sunday at the Paul Easley home.

Miss Naomi Binder, Mrs. A. J. Strittmatter and Mrs. F. G. Postner were award winners when Mrs. M. P. Strittmatter entertained the two-table Contract Bridge Club at her home in East End Friday evening.

At a recent annual election of officers for 1954, Barnesboro Court, No. 722, Catholic Daughters of America, Mrs. Mary (Yeager) and Mrs. Ruth McNelis was named trustee for three years. Mrs. Jennie E. (Hoover) Bradley, 83, who died recently in Altoona, was an aunt of Gordon Hoover of Hastings.

Catholics the world over are joyful at a coming event, the canonization of St. Pius X, on May 29 in Rome.

Mrs. Bernice Madis, of Washington, D. C., is spending the week at the home of her parents, and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Damm and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Walters of East End. Mrs. Ann Link, eighth grader at St. Bernard's Parochial School here, took first honors in her school with the best essay in the Altoona Register's Marian Year Essay Contest. She carried two institutions in the diocese were sent to the board of judges for final evaluation.

Mr. and Mrs. William Guegnon and son Billy were visitors in Altoona on Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. I. C. Yeager and son Myron of Juniata, and Miss Mary Proletti of Altoona, visited Sunday at the Daw Weakland home in East End. James Gill was admitted to the Spangler hospital on Sunday for observation.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Richards and children of Washington, D. C. spent the weekend here at the home of the lady's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Niebauer. On Friday evening, Mr. and Mrs. John Parrish of Patton were guests at the Niebauer home.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Robinson of Detroit, Mich., are visiting here with the lady's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick McDermott and other relatives.

A-C Michael Forberger came here from Donaldson Air Force Base in South Carolina to spend the weekend at his home. On May 21 he leaves for Camp Kilmer, N. J., where he will spend several days before going to Toussaint Air Force Base in France.

Mrs. Sue Hricko recently returned from Girard, O., where she attended the christening of a new granddaughter, Nancy Susan Airhart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Airhart. Mrs. Airhart is the former Louise Hricko.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Rhue and children, Deborah and Tony, and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Rhue and children, Rusty and Linda, Pontiac, Mich., were weekend guests here of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Kline and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Wetherston. Floyd Rhue wishes his many friends and relatives here to know that he appreciates the cards and get-well greetings he received while a recent hospital patient in Pontiac, following his accident while at work.

Did you guess the missing words in last week's "Spring Jingle"? They are: Soil, seed, corn, oats, sprout and grain. Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Kline and Mrs. Francis Amadee visited one day last week at the Charles Fox home in Ebensburg, and also visited with relatives in Johnstown.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack McCann and daughter Eleanor of Houtzdale were visitors in town Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Seymour and sons John and Joseph of Patton visited here Saturday evening at the E. M. Weakland home. Mr. and Mrs. Francis Amadee of Patton R. D. visited the Weaklands on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Love and daughter Eleanor of Houtzdale were visitors in town Saturday. Miss Anna Miller, employed in Akron, O., was at her home in East End over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene McDermott and children of Detroit, Mich., spent the weekend at the McDermott home in East End. Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Zeglin and Mrs. Richard, Eugene and Dennis were in Patton Saturday where they enjoyed the Armed Forces' Day parade.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren O'Leary of Patton were guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Dvorchak.

Mrs. I. L. Binder and daughter Naomi were dinner guests Sunday at the O. L. Binder home in Patton.

With the Seventh Division in Korea, John Thomas of Hastings was recently promoted to the rank of corporal. In the service since Nov. 18, 1952, he has been overseas since last July.

Fifty Years Ago

Items taken from the files of South Cambria News May 20, 1914

Mr. Aaron Weakland has purchased the A. G. Neff property on the corner of Beaver Street and Third Avenue for $2,150. Mr. and Mrs. William Thomas drove to Uniontown on business this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rice of Gallitzin were in town with relatives on Sunday. While driving through town Monday night Peter Semelberger of near here, sustained painful injuries when his horse ran off and the buggy was demolished near Adolfsen's store. Dr. Rice was called and dressed several severe scalp wounds on the driver's head.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Easley drove to Carrolltown on Sunday. Mr. Frank Lacour moved his family to Chambersville this week. Mr. Frank Gable and lady friend attended a select ball at Gallitzin Friday night. Dr. Worrel of Patton was here Tuesday in consultation with Dr. Brumbaugh.

Miss Beulah Horning, one of our public school teachers, left Tuesday for her home in Duncansville. On account of the B. C. and Co. mines shutting down, Miss Clerk R. E. Gutwald has been transferred to Nanty Glo. A daughter was born Thursday to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Brillhart at their home here.

Miss Bess M. Logan, teacher of the Fourth room in our public schools this winter, left Saturday for her home in Clearfield.

Albert, 5-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Goss died at his home here Tuesday night. The little fellow had fallen from the top of a ladder, receiving internal injuries, which resulted in his death, an autopsy showed.

Rev. Horning of Duncansville was shaking hands among old acquaintances in town Monday. Electric lights have been installed in the M. E. Church.

A game of ball which promises to be entertaining if not action-laden has been scheduled to be played here on May 30, between the Red Top Coal Company's men and the teamsters. The warmer the day the hotter will be the battle waged, for there is a barrel of beer at stake. Harry McCoy has fitted up a cozy ice cream parlor.

On Tuesday morning death claimed Mr. John Nagle of St. Boniface, where he slept peacefully away at the residence of his son, John, with whom he made his home for a number of years. He was 91. Father Max officiated at the funeral services Thursday morning in St. Bernard's Church, with burial in the church cemetery.

Mr. Frank Amus commenced the erection of a new residence on Beaver Street this week. Mr. William Dillon is setting an example to many of our property owners by having a substantial brick walk place, fronting his residence on Spangler Street.

It is said that Miss Nell Luecher has secured the building now occupied by W. R. Streams for her millinery store and will occupy it as soon as the Five and Ten Cent Store moves into its new home. It is gratifying to us to see the way our property holders are improving their properties this spring.

Mr. John Fongstater had a substantial plank walk laid in front of his Spangler Street property this week.

With this issue the News comes to its readers two years old, with a circulation of over 600 - in fact about all we feel like pulling off with a hand press.

Mr. Peter Lacour was stricken with a paralytic stroke this week and we hear his condition is very low. Veto Guadagno will open his new ice cream parlor this evening.

Messrs. Guy Commons, M. L. Buck, Bernard Lloyd and a few other gentlemen have formed a walking club, the object of which is to prohibit gout, indigestion and drowsiness and at the same time give muscular and mental vitality to its members. Just as the robin shades the dew from its red breast, these men go forth for a four or five mile jaunt each the sile and back before breakfast.

THE JAMMED ZIPPER

Designers have finally solved the problem of the jammed zipper. A push of a button on a recently developed zipper puts it back into operation again when it stalls on thread or fabric. It will be on the market later this year.

DANCE Every Sunday Afternoon at the Carrolltown VFW

Musical by Popular Orchestras

Best Seller

During recent months more people have bought more Ford Cars than any other make!

Ford is America's best seller because Ford offers the most in value . . .

You get extra value in Ford's trend-setting styling . . . styling that will stay young.

You get extra value in Ford's over-all engineering that brings you more economical operation and longer car life.

You get extra value in Ford's 130-h.p. Y-block V-8 or 115-h.p. I-block Six . . . both of which have deep-block construction—high-compression, low-friction design.

You get extra value in Ford's Ball-Joint Front Suspension . . . the greatest advance in chassis design in the past 20 years, for easier handling and riding.

You get a choice of three great Ford lines: the Crestline, the Customline, and the Mainline. And you can take your pick of 14 brilliant new body styles within the three lines.

You get a choice of a wide variety of beautiful body finishes.

You get a choice of a variety of distinctive interiors—color-keyed to exterior beauty.

You get a choice of 130-h.p. Y-block V-8 or 115-h.p. I-block Six engines.

You get a choice of five wonderful power assists*: Master-Guide Power Steering, Swift Sure Power Brakes, Power-Lift Windows, 4-Way Power Front Seat, Fordomatic.

F.P.A.F. MORE PEOPLE ARE TRYING FORD... MORE PEOPLE ARE BUYING FORD!

STOLTZ MOTOR CO.

ORange 5-2161 FORD SALES & SERVICE Corner 5th & Lang, PATTON

if you can't find it at home Shop in Johnstown

Johnstown GOOD NEIGHBOR DAYS

THURS., FRI., SAT., - MAY 20, 21, 22