Spangler Moves Into First Place In Industrial League

Tops Cardiff, Central City In Week End Tilt

Spangler team of the Cambria County Industrial League moved into first place last week end, one-half a game ahead of second place Lilly.

The Northern Cambria outfit downed Cardiff, 10-1, but lost out to Central City, 8-1, although they moved into the first place.

Scoring almost at will, Spangler limited Cardiff to only seven hits as they held them to a 10-1 count in a game last week at Spangler.

Paul Shabbick, on the mound or Spangler struck out 12 batters and didn't issue a single walk during the game.

With Henry Salyan holding the home forces to seven hits, the winners pounded out eight bingles and scored one run in the second, four in the sixth and three in the eighth.

McCombie and Shabbick did the pitching for Spangler. McCombie fanned 2 and walked 3 and Shabbick struck out 4 and issued 5 walks as they both together left go of 8 hits.

Pollock of the winners and K. Anderson of Spangler each hit a two-baser for the only extra-base hits of the game.
