Chest Springs Sets Community Event Saturday, Aug. 14

Complete Schedule Now Being Drawn Up

An important meeting to prepare final plans for the Grange-sponsored 4-H Roundup, will be held on Friday, August 6, at 8:00 p. m. in the Grange Hall, Grange members, 4-H parents and "Brothers of the Brush" are invited to attend and help with the arrangements.

This year's event has been scheduled for Aug. 14, at the request of the "Brothers of the Brush" and will be combined celebration for the entire community. The Brush Brothers will join in the parade and have scheduled a dance in the Church Hall to close the day's festivities. Other plans should be brought before Friday night's meeting, so that a complete schedule for the day may be arranged.

A bulletin on rules for project displays, floats and prizes has been distributed to 4-H and Grange members and to all members of the community, for their information.

Businessmen and merchants of Chest Springs and neighboring towns are helping with the affair by contributing prizes for the 4-H boys and girls. Their help is greatly appreciated. Solicitors will be asked to report on their projects.

Many of the farmers of the community are helping by donating the use of their trucks and wagons to be used as floats. Some of the floats will be kept and used in the parades in Ebensburg during Sequi-centennial week.

Confraternity At Chest Springs Has Dinner At Patton

In attendance at banquet held by the Confraternity of Christian Mothers of Chest Springs were Rev. Carl Wileschal, Spiritual Director, guest speakers Rev. Gerald Stephens and Rev. Joseph Troxler and thirty-five members of the group. The affair was held in the Commercial Hotel in Patton on July 28, and marked the first of such events held by the first.

Rev. Gerald Stephens spoke on the work of the Mothers' Club in his parish and its contribution to parochial progress. Rev. Joseph Troxler said that he considers a men's organization in a parish as the right hand of the priest and a women's organization as the left hand, and when a priest has such groups working hand in hand with him, the welfare of his parish is secure and much progress can be made. Rev. Carl Wileschal congratulated the group on their past works and encouraged the continuance of their efforts.

Mrs. George Stoltz, president, also commended the ladies for their cooperation and asked for their continued support. Mrs. Maude Weise, Secretary, commented on the attendance and suggested that all members attend the monthly meetings which are held on the first Wednesday of each month.

Uncle Mike Lantzy Has 94th Birthday

Spangler Man Active, Still in Good Health

Another birthday arrived today, Thursday, for "Uncle Mike" Lantzy of near Nicktown. He is 94.

Active and in good health, Michael Alfred Lantzy attends church services each Sunday and once a month receives Holy Communion with the Holy Name Society at St. Nicholas' Catholic Church in Nicktown.

The well-known area retired farmer was born in Barr Township on Aug. 5, 1860, the son of Joseph and Mary Ann (Bagley) Lantzy.

He resides with his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Kline, along the Spangler-Nicktown Road.

"Uncle Mike's" favorite pastime is visiting friends and relatives. He also enjoys playing chess and pinocle.

A widower for the past 49 years Mr. Lantzy married the former Margaret Miller on May 13, 1882. The couple became the parents of eight children, seven of whom are living.

They are Mrs. Kline, mentioned; Augustine Jr., Carrolltown; V. L. Lantzy of Spangler; Irenus A. Lakeland, Fla.; Herman W. Johnston; Mrs. Mary N. Holtz, Spangler, and Henry J. Barnesboro.

"Uncle Mike" has 33 grandchildren, 68 great-grandchildren and 2 great-great-grandchildren. Longevity in the Lantzy family doesn't stop with "Uncle Mike." A brother, Frank C., of Spangler, was 87 in June. The two men like to get together to reminisce and play cards.
