Riffling of Vehicles

Thomas Greathouse and Andrew Merva, both of Cassandra, arraigned on two charges of burglasy last Friday, were held for the next term of Cambria County criminal court.

The charges were filed by state police of Ebensburg substation with Joseph McGonigle and Dino DiYulia, juntices of the peace in Lilly and Combria Township, respectively. Both men were recommitted to Cambria County Jail following preliminary hearings.

Greathouse also was arraigned before Mrs. Elizabeth C Rowland Roensburg justice of the peace, on a charge of possessing burglary tools. He also was held for court action on that charge.

Sgt. James A. Blair, officer in charge of the local state police substation, said the charges grewout of resent thefts of fishing equipment from automobiles parked in the Wilmore Dam area.
