Football Banquet Tonight to Feature Talk By Dr. Stull

Over 300 Expected At Invitational Event

The 1954 John Carroll High School Mountaineer football squad will be honored at a banquet this Thursday evening in the basement auditorium of St. Benedict's Church, Carrolltown. The event will begin at 6:30 o'clock.

As was announced in last week's edition of this newspaper, tonight's event is by invitation only, due to the limited seating facilities.

Besides the football team and coaches attending the banquet, the team cheerleaders, school band and directors, members of John Carroll Joint School Board, members of the faculty of the three districts and the members of the JCHS Stadium Field Committee will also attend.

An address will be given by Dr. A. M. Stull, county superintendent of schools, Joseph V. Maucher Jr., supervising principal, will be toastmaster and awards will be made by M. J. Cleero, head coach and B. J. Dillon, representing the Fox-Peale Post American Legion, Carrolltown. A dance will follow in the local Legion Home.

This Saturday, Nov. 20, 57 students, including the football team and its managers and cheerleaders, as well as the coaches, will attend the Pitt-Penn State football classic at Pitt Stadium in Pittsburgh. An all-day event, the group will also be given a meal that day.

Saturday's trip to Pittsburgh is being made possible through the combined generosity of the Bakerton VFW Post, Carrolltown Fire Engine Company and the Carrolltown American Legion Post.

Clothing Collection Point Is Hardware

Rev. Father Victor Lillig, OSB, pastor of St. Benedict's Catholic Church, Carrolltown, has urged all members of the local Parish to sort old and used clothing now for giving to the Thanksgiving Clothing Collection next week, Nov. 21 to Nov. 28.

As is announced elsewhere in this newspaper the clothing is being collected in a combined effort of Catholics, Protestants and Jews of the United States in an effort to provide some alleviation for the needs of refugees and others in many parts of the world.

Father Victor reminded local parishioners that now is the time to gather up the clothing, bedding, and blankets, clean them and get them in readiness. Clothes in Carrolltown will be collected all of next week at A. A. Lieb Hardware on Main Street.

Boy Scout Troop Committee Plans Special Session

Encouraging an active participation of commission as well as fathers and all others interested in scouting, the Troop Committee of Boy Scout Troop 71, Carrolltown, met last Sunday morning at 10 a. m. at the home of Paul Shambaugh on St. Benedict Street. The Troop Committee of Troop 71 will meet in regular session the second Sunday of each month at 10 a. m. at the home of Mr. Shambaugh, the committee chairman.

Mr. Shambaugh was elected chairman of the committee last month. Other officers are Tom Owens Jr., secretary-treasurer, Joseph Galsina, equipment supervisor and Fred Owens, publicity.

The other member of the committee is Theodore Kottwas Jr. It was announced at the session that the committee will immediately work on a method of helping members of the troop in advancement as well as make plans for activities of the troop. Named as members to supervise troop patrols were Mr. Shambaugh, Mr. Gotsnick and Fred Owens. They took over their duties at a regular troop meeting Monday evening.

Meeting last Sunday with Michael Michrins, scoutmaster, and Oliver Blos Jr., assistant scoutmaster, the committee was informed of the activities and the present needs of the troop.

The Troop Committee will meet in special session this coming Sunday morning, Nov. 21, at 10 a. m. at the Shambaugh home. Guest at the session will be Robert Steele of Barnesboro, chairman of the North Cambria Boy Scout District.

SMALL FIRE SATURDAY

Carrolltown Volunteer Firemen were called later Saturday afternoon to extinguish a small fire at the late W. C. Schrott home on St. Mary's Street. The blaze, causing little damage, started in the basement at a kerosene burner. Fire Chief Thomas Buck said this was the first time this year that the local volunteers were called to extinguish a fire within borough limits.

TEEN AGE DANCE MONDAY

Carrolltown Teen Age Club sponsored a dance Monday evening at this week in the local American Legion Ball Room. The event was furnished by the In-Booths. A large crowd attended.

Boys Over 14 Years Old Eligible to Be Explorer Members

George Butler Adviser For New Youth Group

Initial organization of Explorer Post 71, Boy Scouts of America, Carrolltown, has been taking place the past three weeks. The new unit, for boys over 14 years of age, holds regular meetings each Wednesday evening at 6:30 p. m. in the basement scout rooms of St. Benedict's School.

George Butler is acting as the Post Adviser. Members of the Explorer Post Committee are: Herman Bender, chairman, George Bender, Donald Zirn, Richard Bradley and George Houck.

Mr. Butler reported that 18 boys attended a session Wednesday evening of last week, at which time several officers were elected and a number of plans made. Officers of the Post elected were: Robert Bradley, senior crew leader; Bill Houck, deputy crew leader and William Zirn, secretary. The Post will divide the members in crews in the very near future.

The Explorer Post Committee has planned to meet with the Adviser and the members of the Post at least once a month in regular session, although each member of the committee will be assigned to help out one of the Post's crews, and will meet with the crew a separate times during the month.

Mr. Butler announced that the members of the post, have planned for a hike to be held on Saturday, Dec. 4, at a place to be announced. They also have planned for a four-day hike to begin on Dec. 27 and end on Dec. 30. Other tentative plans call for a sleighing and skiing party as soon as winter conditions become suitable.

Girl Scout Library Started Tuesday

Peggy Campbell was elected president of Girl Scout Troop 179 of Carrolltown at a meeting on Tuesday evening of this week in the Scout Rooms of St. Benedict's School.

Other officers elected were: Kathy Kuntzman, vice president; Mary Faith Dziuzanaky, scribe; Maureen Kelly, co-scribe; Suzie Kline, treasurer and Thelma Edwards, news reporter. A clean-up committee was also appointed for the next four meetings.

The meeting was called to order by Miss Campbell. A flag ceremony was held. Participating in the ceremony were: Rosie Hurley, Thelma Edwards, Maureen Kelly, Kathy Kuntzman, Suzie Kline, Mary Faith Dziuzanaky, and Miss Campbell.

The Troop voted to donate the week's dues toward the orphans fund and also decided on what they would make their mothers for Christmas. A Girl Scout Library was also started with a donation of eight books by Thelma Edwards. The recreation period was spent in cutting name tags from Christmas cards for the U. S. Marines.

Leaders present were Ruth Dziuzanaky, leader, and Joann Farabaugh, assistant leader.

Morse Code Being Learned By Boys

The second in a series of a course in Morse Code, highlighted a meeting of Boy Scout Troop 71 Monday evening of this week in the basement scout rooms of St. Benedict's Parochial School.

The session was in charge of Michael Michrins, scoutmaster. Robert Molnar, a member of the Troop and member of Explorer Post 71, Carrolltown, conducted the code instruction. Recreational activities were in charge of Oliver Stols Jr., assistant scoutmaster.

It was explained to the members of the troop that the Troop Committee is very interested in promoting regular advancement in the troop and that the committee members are going all out to help with the work of the troop. Committee members will attend the next Monday evening's regular meeting. Several members were in attendance at last Monday's session.

Number Carrolltowners At Wedding Reception

A number of Carrolltown people attended a reception Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. McCormick of Barnesboro, in honor of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jack McCormick who were married Nov. 8 in West Virginia. Jack is located in Washington, D. C., with the U. S. Bureau of Mines.

Legion Auxiliary To Collect Coupons

Two donations of $100.00 each were voted at a meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary to Fox-Peale Post 506, American Legion, Carrolltown, last week. The session was held in the Post Home.

One donation was made to St. Benedict's Church for the annual Orphans collection of the Diocese of Altoona and the second was made to the annual Christmas collection for the orphans at Scotland School. Members were urged to save as well as collect coupons themselves, as well as collect them from neighbors and friends. The coupons should be turned in at the next meeting in December, which is also featured as the annual Christmas party.

Additional Lights To Be Added to Annual Display

Carrolltown's Christmas decorations this year will present a different appearance. Chief of Police Paul Bauman and Philip Bauman, borough maintenance supervisor, have been readying the borough lighting display the past several weeks, and possibly will begin to erect the colorful display beginning next week. Additional lights will be added again this year.
