Parents of All Children Between 8 And 11 Urged Attend Meeting Next Tuesday Evening

Scouting in the Patton community will take another big step in the way of providing a complete program of scouting for children of all ages. Cub scouting for boys between 8 and 11 years of age is now being organized in Patton, under the guidance of the North Cambria District of Adm. Robert E. Peary Council, Boy Scouts of America. And plans are also under way to organize Brownie Girl Scouts for girls between 8 and 11 years. Mrs. Stephen Stasko of S. Third Ave., Patton, one of the organizers of cub scouting, announced today that a meeting of all parents interested in organizing cub and brownie units in Patton and the nearby areas, will be held next Tuesday, Mar. 1, at 7:30 p. m. at the Patton Moose Home. Next Tuesday's meeting is being held for all mothers and fathers of eligible children, as well as all other interested persons. The session will be in charge of Michael Blastramin, field executive of Adm. Peary Council, Johnstown. Two other leaders in cubbing from the council will also attend the session and address the group. A motion picture on the introduction of cubbing will also be shown. It was announced that scouting is one of the best ways in

Catholic Book Week Marked By School

Playlet, Displays Tell Story At St. Mary's

The pupils of St. Mary's Parochial School, Patton, are commemorating Catholic Book Week, this week, Feb. 20 to 26. In order to teach children the importance of reading the right type of literature, the eighth grade class of the school prepared a one-act playlet "You Are My Voice" by Thomas A. Lennon, associate editor of Young Catholic Messenger, one of the official Catholic school papers. The playlet explains the amount of wonderful work which is being done by the Catholic Press in America. Students of the school learned from the play that there are 100 diocesan newspapers and two national publications. There are 29 Catholic newspapers which are published in foreign languages, 400 American Catholic magazines and 39 foreign language magazines. Students taking part in the play were John McConnell, Irvin Bender, Ronald Marull, Geraldine Cavaluchi, Alma Dietrich, Mary Louise Merriman and Marlon Shust. Through the zealous efforts of the children of St. Mary's, the school's library officers were able to purchase a number of new books and Catholic magazines for the observance of Catholic Book Week and Catholic Press Month.
