

Coalport and Irvona

Plans Shaping for Physical Ed Revue Slated On Apr. 20

Plans are made for the third annual Physical Education Revue to be held on Friday, April 22, at 8 p. m. in the Beccaria-Coalport-Irvona Senior High School Auditorium. A matinee for grade school pupils of the BCI Joint Schools will be held on Wednesday, April 20, at 2 p. m. All grade school children will be admitted free at the matinee. All students in Junior and Senior High Schools will participate in the performance. Only 500 tickets will be sold for 50 cents each and can be obtained only from junior and senior high school students. No tickets will be sold at the door. Children under school age will be admitted for ten cents. Because the front entrance of the auditorium will be used in the performance, patrons are urged to be seated in the auditorium by 7:45 p. m. The performance will begin promptly at 8 p. m. and consequently the front entrance door will be locked.

Tipplers Run Away With Honors In Bowling Loop Play

Results of last week's action in Coalport A & B Bowling League were announced. The Tipplers won top honors in both the team single and three-games with high scores of 944 and 2632.

Plotzels paced second in singles with a 236 and Pete's Service was 3rd with an 896. In triples Pete's was second with 2538 and Plotzels, third, with 2527.

S. Poniast won the high single individual award with a 236. Mike Bungo was second with a 206 and K. Rydholm, third, with a 224. K. Rydholm was high in individual three games with a 577 with S. Poniast, 2nd, with a 573 and Mike Bungo, 3rd, with a 554 score.

The team results follow:

Pete's Service-4
P. Soss	149	175	198
M. Young	153	185	201
T. Walker	162	189	207
M. Salom	159	171	178
Wm-4	Totals	788	856

Dean's Body-4
J. Kitchner	151	136	133
D. Gwynn	127	138	118
D. Red	119	145	136
G. Harrison	115	125	125
Wm-4	Totals	619	702

Tipplers-3
Mike Bungo	177	151	226
J. Bellotti	197	134	231
K. Rydholm	224	180	177
V. Medvedev	165	132	166
J. Hahn	161	151	209
Wm-3	Totals	827	944

Plotzels-1
M. Barro	169	145	148
S. Poniast	170	165	154
P. Plotzels	168	169	236
J. Serafini	159	171	178
Wm-1	Totals	613	981

Adams Service-3
X. Hewitt	125	185	133
J. Adams	132	162	143
M. Matthews	178	145	172
J. Jenkins	153	161	176
Wm-3	Totals	588	624

IOOP-1
O. Bell	124	175	145
M. Myers	145	136	139
L. Hennek	145	136	139
C. Sackett	151	114	168
Wm-1	Totals	565	531

BCI Faculty-3
O. Brady	129	153	164
R. Whitaker	179	152	143
E. Turchick	145	169	169
J. Maderno	129	145	168
Wm-1	Totals	542	644

Coalport Novices-1
R. Sherry	149	139	125
D. Jeffries	179	162	177
C. Cresswell	144	127	171
J. Pefferman	144	127	171
Wm-1	Totals	514	500

Dr. Fays R. Doyle of Philadelphia and Dr. Russell G. Doyle of Altoona were week end visitors with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Doyle.

Miss Weatherley To Be Honored At "Open House"

Event to Be Held After Performance Apr. 15

Dr. A. Pauline Sanders and Mrs. Leroy Caskey, co-chairmen of the Hospitality Committee for "Jeanie With the Light Brown Hair" to be staged on Friday, April 15, at the auditorium of the BCI Senior High School, in Coalport, announced today that "Open House" will be held following the Friday night performance in the auditorium for the BCI Joint PTA members, committees of the performance, cast, the Board of Education of the BCI Joint Schools, and these mentioned immediate families.

Barbara Weatherley, author of the monologue, will be guest of honor. Mrs. Weatherley will be accompanied to the BCI area on Thursday, April 14, by her husband, Dr. Paul Joseph Weatherley of Elkins Park. Deiores Peoples of Irvona will provide piano music of Stephen C. Foster during the social event.

Barbara Weatherley, lecturer, writer, philosopher and dramatist, accepted the invitation to make a benefit performance in her own "Jeanie With the Light Brown Hair" and will appear Friday night, April 15, as "Jeanie," giving the story of the love and life of Stephen C. Foster, composer of much beloved American ballads.

Barbara Weatherley is a member of the Pennsylvania State Council of Education, and is one of the few women on Pennsylvania Governor's Committee on Educational Television. She first studied speech under the late Dr. Frances Harvey Green, and then continued her studies at the Academy of Dramatic Arts, University of Pennsylvania, Rutgers summer school and recently completed a course in Television and Radio at Temple University.

A resident of suburban Philadelphia, Barbara Weatherley is the wife of a minister and mother of two growing girls. She is a member of the Author's League of America, the Philadelphia Music Club, the Community Chest Speakers' Bureau, the Philadelphia Council of Churches and a life member of the Chautauque New York Women's Club.

Barbara Weatherley brings to the platform a personal charm of manner, a brilliantly developed mind, and a background of many facets. Keenly interested in the development of human personality, she has devoted the past 15 years on lecture platforms and stages, interpreting her stimulating philosophies and enriching her audiences with an intelligent approach to living. By her quick-witted remarks, natural exuberance, utter poise and sincerity, she is esteemed as a superb artist. Author of many monologues, one-act plays, dramatic readings, and radio programs, Barbara Weatherley has also excelled as director of operettas and other dramatic performances.

Tickets On Sale for Event Next Week

Adult admission tickets at 50 cents for "Jeanie With the Light Brown Hair" to be staged by the BCI Joint PTA on Friday evening, April 15, at 8:15 o'clock in the BCI Senior High School auditorium, may be obtained from Mrs. Harold Fortney of Coalport or Mrs. Wallis Ruffner, Irvona, or from the various representatives of the BCI Area and their particular salesman.

Representatives include: Ruth S. Beals, Gertrude Barnhart, Ira W. McConigal, Christine Coppenhaver, Margaret Johnson, P. S. Lomire, and Edward Turchick. Children's tickets for the evening's performance, priced at 25 cents, may also be purchased from Mrs. Beals, Mr. Lomire or Mr. Turchick.

Seventeen citizens of Beccaria Township have entered the May 17 primary to vie for nominations for its ten township offices. Of the 12 Democrats and 5 Republicans running for office, no one is entered as a candidate for justice of the peace or auditor.

Those filing for candidacy are: School Director: Republicans: James Coppenhaver, mine foreman, Beccaria; Donald H. Gilligan, assistant store manager, Beccaria; and John R. Palmer, Jr., clerk, Beccaria. Democrat: Andrew E. Popyack, mine foreman from Beccaria, is unopposed.

Township Supervisor: Democrats, Seighart Brock, mine, Beccaria; and James Fulton, laborer, Coalport. Republican Dale O'Connell, farmer from Utahville, is unopposed.

Commonwealth Constable: Democrats George M. Pencock, politician, Beccaria, and George D. Spangler, carpenter from Blair City. No Republicans filed for candidacy.

Judge of Election: Democrats John Kovalsky, Jr., mine, Beccaria Precinct; Beatrice Berger, housewife, Blair City Precinct; and Leo Krusie, retired, Irvona. No Republicans filed.

Inspector of Election: Democrats, Andrew E. Popyack, mine foreman, Beccaria Precinct; Helen Reilly, housewife, Blair City Precinct; Laura Harber, housewife, Irvona Precinct; and Geraldine Enabrenner, housewife, from Irvona Precinct. Republican, Bertha Smyers, housewife, from Blair City Precinct, was unopposed.

22 Candidates File For Irvona Offices

Primary Election to Be Held On May 17

Twenty-two persons in Irvona Borough have filed petitions for candidacy in the primary election May 17 according to the report of the Clearfield County Board of Elections.

Candidates are: Justice of the Peace: Republican, S. A. Ames, appliance dealer; and Democrat G. C. Welsh, justice of the peace.

School Director: Republicans: Howard C. Newcomb, bookkeeper, and Jeanne Heil, school teacher. William Blair, laborer, is the lone Democratic candidate.

Auditor: Republican: Paul B. Lindsey, insurance salesman, has no opposition. No Democrats filed for the office.

Assessor: Republican: Earl Barnhart, teacher, and Democrat, Jess Richner, retired, have no opposition.

Constable: Democrats: D. L. Diehl, laborer, and William Collins, laborer. No Republicans filed for office.

Councilman: Republicans: Thos. W. Heil, lineman; Richard McGarvey, garageman; W. Dean Miles, auto body repairman; and Earl Spaid, laborer. Democrats, Samuel Groom, laborer; George Lucas, plumber; Edwin Phillips, laborer; Peter Soss, garageman; and Harry Frisco, laborer.

Judge of Election: Republican, Mildred Dewalt has no opposition; and no Democrats filed for the office.

Inspector of Election: Republican, Mary Mogret, Democrat: Hazel Peterson. No opposition.

Only 1 Democrat Seeks Nomination In Coalport Boro

Eight Republicans and one Democrat are entered in Primary to be held May 17 in the Borough of Coalport. It was reported by The Clearfield County Board of Elections.

A resident of Johnston, a barber, who is a candidate for the office of school director.

Republicans who have filed for candidacy are: J. W. Laing, running unopposed for re-election as justice of the peace; Robert O. Kupp, merchant, and Betty Rosenhamer, running for school director along with Mr. Johnston; P. S. Lomire, school teacher, and George Stasick, coal operator, candidates for councilman; Cortland Snyder, for constable; Lorraine Snyder, for Judge of Election; and Helen C. Shank, housewife, for inspector of election.

Janesville Couple Married 50 Years

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jefferies of Janesville, will celebrate their Golden Wedding Anniversary on April 11th at their home in Janesville. There will be open house to all relatives and friends of the couple.

They are parents of twelve children as follows: Mrs. Lester Campbell, of Brookville, Pa.; Mrs. Charles Mazenko, of Coalport; Mrs. Frank Eno, of Coalport; Mrs. Edward Mazenko, of Bell, Calif.; Mrs. Earl Lender of Dunkirk, N. Y.; Darrell Jefferies of Dunkirk, N. Y.; Darrell Jefferies of Coalport; Lester Jefferies of Rosebud; Howard Jefferies of Cleveland, Ohio; Raymond Jefferies, at home.

There are twenty grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. Mr. and Mrs. Jefferies were born in France.

17 Candidates to Seek Nominations In Beccaria Twp.

Seventeen citizens of Beccaria Township have entered the May 17 primary to vie for nominations for its ten township offices. Of the 12 Democrats and 5 Republicans running for office, no one is entered as a candidate for justice of the peace or auditor.

Those filing for candidacy are: School Director: Republicans: James Coppenhaver, mine foreman, Beccaria; Donald H. Gilligan, assistant store manager, Beccaria; and John R. Palmer, Jr., clerk, Beccaria. Democrat: Andrew E. Popyack, mine foreman from Beccaria, is unopposed.

Township Supervisor: Democrats, Seighart Brock, mine, Beccaria; and James Fulton, laborer, Coalport. Republican Dale O'Connell, farmer from Utahville, is unopposed.

Commonwealth Constable: Democrats George M. Pencock, politician, Beccaria, and George D. Spangler, carpenter from Blair City. No Republicans filed for candidacy.

Judge of Election: Democrats John Kovalsky, Jr., mine, Beccaria Precinct; Beatrice Berger, housewife, Blair City Precinct; and Leo Krusie, retired, Irvona. No Republicans filed.

Inspector of Election: Democrats, Andrew E. Popyack, mine foreman, Beccaria Precinct; Helen Reilly, housewife, Blair City Precinct; Laura Harber, housewife, Irvona Precinct; and Geraldine Enabrenner, housewife, from Irvona Precinct. Republican, Bertha Smyers, housewife, from Blair City Precinct, was unopposed.

Ed Eastright and daughter, Mae, and Mrs. Anna Black and daughter, Janet, visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. James Mulhollen of Bellwood.

COALPORT IRVONA

Former Utahville Lady Passes Away

Mrs. Emma Jane Luke Hostetter, 63, a resident of Altoona, and formerly of Utahville, died at noon last Saturday in the Altoona Hospital after an extended illness.

She was born in Utahville, Dec. 27, 1891, a daughter of Samuel and Moriah Jones Luke. She was a charter member of Otterbein U. B. Church of Juniata and a Sunday School teacher for many years.

Mrs. Hostetter is survived by one son, G. Donald, of Juniata; two daughters, Mrs. Clarence Hamilton of Juniata, and Mrs. William Shaner, of Altoona; one brother, Benjamin Luke, of Buckhorn; 10 grandchildren, and a number of nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held on Tuesday in Altoona.

Beaver Valley EUB Church Services

Services in the Beaver Valley EUB Church will begin tomorrow evening, Good Friday, at 8:00 o'clock with the annual Easter Cantata. It was announced by the Rev. George O. Pearce, pastor.

Easter Sunday at 6:00 a. m. the Sunrise Service will be held in the church with the annual EUB Church joining in service. All are welcome to attend. The Sunday Sabbath School, with J. H. Gates, supt., will be held at 9:30 a. m. and the Evening Worship Service will be held at 7:30 p. m.

Tuesday the Youth Fellowship will meet at 7:30 p. m. and on Thursday the Prayer Service and Bible Study will be held at 7:30 p. m.

P. O. of A. Groups To Gather Apr. 15 At Coalport Hall

The Spring Convention meeting of the District 1 and 2 of Blair and Clearfield Counties of the P. O. of A. will convene at 10 a. m. on Friday, April 15, according to an announcement made at a recent meeting of Camp 187 at Coalport. The convention will be held in the Coalport IOOF Hall.

Five delegates were named to represent the local lodge, and they include Ethel Cusick, Kathryn Knotts, Anna Black, Geraldine Tomer, and Jessie Snyder, presiding at the business session, having 23 attending.

The social period was highlighted by the Rosebud Sisters' presentation of Easter gifts. Birthday gifts also were presented to Sisters having birthdays in March and April.

The luncheon committee was composed of the following: Linda Beers, Alice Beers, Ethel Cusick, Winifred Culick and Jessie Snyder, who substituted for Mollie Beers, who was unable to attend.

Girl's Second Class Badge On Display

The Girl Scout's second class rank badge and the shoulder bars were displayed by Mrs. James Young, leader of BCI Intermediate Girl Scout Troop No. 2, at a regular meeting last Thursday at Agriculture Building, Coalport.

Following the opening ceremony the business session was held. Members discussed their sale of cookies which opened Friday, April 1, and will continue until Friday, April 15. An announcement was made that the next regular meeting will not be held because of church services in BCI Area.

DAR Hears Reports From Committees

The James Alexander Chapter D. A. R. met at the home of Mrs. C. C. Lovell, Main St., Coalport, on Saturday afternoon, April 2, with 18 members and 2 guests in attendance. Mrs. Lovell was assisted in entertaining the Chapter by Mrs. James Bacon and Mrs. Francis Westrich. Mrs. D. R. Morgan of Houtzdale, regent, presided at the business session, when various committee reports were given. Miss Matilda Bell of DuBois presented a guest book to the Chapter to retain a record of guests attending each meeting.

Mrs. A. L. Hegarty of Utahville gave a reading on "Historic Highways."

Mrs. Morgan read an article on "National Defense."

The luncheon party was highlighted by the presentation of a corsage decorated in the national colors.

Two guests, Mrs. Roy Fisher of Irvona, and Mrs. S. Ricketts of Flinton, attended the event.

Mrs. Lillian Weaver Is Called By Death

Mrs. Lillian M. Weaver, 69, native of Irvona, died last Saturday at the home of a daughter, Mrs. John Galbraith, in Perkiomenville, Montgomery County.

She was born in Irvona, Nov. 17, 1868, a daughter of Samuel and Viola Bowser Sitman. She was the last member of her immediate family and leaves only her daughter, with whom she made her home, and a grandson, John B. Galbraith.

She was a member of the Methodist Church in Mount Holyoke, N. J., and of the Order of Eastern Star at Pemberton, N. J.

Dogwood Legend

This is the third year we've had this beautiful story in this edition. Our readers have begun to expect it every spring. Since spring is definitely in the air and the dogwood connected with this time of the year, and it's Holy Week, we can think of no better time to give it to them.

As we mentioned last year the "legend" was originally written by a farmer newspaper man of Ozark, Ala., J. L. Miller. He published it in March, 1936. We are reprinting it from a copy which is the invaluable possession of Mrs. Leroy Bratton of Irvona, president of the The True

Former Utahville Lady Passes Away

Former Utahville Lady Passes Away

Mrs. Emma Jane Luke Hostetter, 63, a resident of Altoona, and formerly of Utahville, died at noon last Saturday in the Altoona Hospital after an extended illness.

She was born in Utahville, Dec. 27, 1891, a daughter of Samuel and Moriah Jones Luke. She was a charter member of Otterbein U. B. Church of Juniata and a Sunday School teacher for many years.

Mrs. Hostetter is survived by one son, G. Donald, of Juniata; two daughters, Mrs. Clarence Hamilton of Juniata, and Mrs. William Shaner, of Altoona; one brother, Benjamin Luke, of Buckhorn; 10 grandchildren, and a number of nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held on Tuesday in Altoona.

Beaver Valley EUB Church Services

Services in the Beaver Valley EUB Church will begin tomorrow evening, Good Friday, at 8:00 o'clock with the annual Easter Cantata. It was announced by the Rev. George O. Pearce, pastor.

Easter Sunday at 6:00 a. m. the Sunrise Service will be held in the church with the annual EUB Church joining in service. All are welcome to attend. The Sunday Sabbath School, with J. H. Gates, supt., will be held at 9:30 a. m. and the Evening Worship Service will be held at 7:30 p. m.

Tuesday the Youth Fellowship will meet at 7:30 p. m. and on Thursday the Prayer Service and Bible Study will be held at 7:30 p. m.

P. O. of A. Groups To Gather Apr. 15 At Coalport Hall

The Spring Convention meeting of the District 1 and 2 of Blair and Clearfield Counties of the P. O. of A. will convene at 10 a. m. on Friday, April 15, according to an announcement made at a recent meeting of Camp 187 at Coalport. The convention will be held in the Coalport IOOF Hall.

Five delegates were named to represent the local lodge, and they include Ethel Cusick, Kathryn Knotts, Anna Black, Geraldine Tomer, and Jessie Snyder, presiding at the business session, having 23 attending.

The social period was highlighted by the Rosebud Sisters' presentation of Easter gifts. Birthday gifts also were presented to Sisters having birthdays in March and April.

The luncheon committee was composed of the following: Linda Beers, Alice Beers, Ethel Cusick, Winifred Culick and Jessie Snyder, who substituted for Mollie Beers, who was unable to attend.

Girl's Second Class Badge On Display

The Girl Scout's second class rank badge and the shoulder bars were displayed by Mrs. James Young, leader of BCI Intermediate Girl Scout Troop No. 2, at a regular meeting last Thursday at Agriculture Building, Coalport.

Following the opening ceremony the business session was held. Members discussed their sale of cookies which opened Friday, April 1, and will continue until Friday, April 15. An announcement was made that the next regular meeting will not be held because of church services in BCI Area.

DAR Hears Reports From Committees

The James Alexander Chapter D. A. R. met at the home of Mrs. C. C. Lovell, Main St., Coalport, on Saturday afternoon, April 2, with 18 members and 2 guests in attendance. Mrs. Lovell was assisted in entertaining the Chapter by Mrs. James Bacon and Mrs. Francis Westrich. Mrs. D. R. Morgan of Houtzdale, regent, presided at the business session, when various committee reports were given. Miss Matilda Bell of DuBois presented a guest book to the Chapter to retain a record of guests attending each meeting.

Mrs. A. L. Hegarty of Utahville gave a reading on "Historic Highways."

Mrs. Morgan read an article on "National Defense."

The luncheon party was highlighted by the presentation of a corsage decorated in the national colors.

Two guests, Mrs. Roy Fisher of Irvona, and Mrs. S. Ricketts of Flinton, attended the event.

Mrs. Lillian Weaver Is Called By Death

Mrs. Lillian M. Weaver, 69, native of Irvona, died last Saturday at the home of a daughter, Mrs. John Galbraith, in Perkiomenville, Montgomery County.

She was born in Irvona, Nov. 17, 1868, a daughter of Samuel and Viola Bowser Sitman. She was the last member of her immediate family and leaves only her daughter, with whom she made her home, and a grandson, John B. Galbraith.

She was a member of the Methodist Church in Mount Holyoke, N. J., and of the Order of Eastern Star at Pemberton, N. J.

Dogwood Legend

This is the third year we've had this beautiful story in this edition. Our readers have begun to expect it every spring. Since spring is definitely in the air and the dogwood connected with this time of the year, and it's Holy Week, we can think of no better time to give it to them.

As we mentioned last year the "legend" was originally written by a farmer newspaper man of Ozark, Ala., J. L. Miller. He published it in March, 1936. We are reprinting it from a copy which is the invaluable possession of Mrs. Leroy Bratton of Irvona, president of the The True

DAR Hears Reports From Committees

DAR Hears Reports From Committees

The James Alexander Chapter D. A. R. met at the home of Mrs. C. C. Lovell, Main St., Coalport, on Saturday afternoon, April 2, with 18 members and 2 guests in attendance. Mrs. Lovell was assisted in entertaining the Chapter by Mrs. James Bacon and Mrs. Francis Westrich. Mrs. D. R. Morgan of Houtzdale, regent, presided at the business session, when various committee reports were given. Miss Matilda Bell of DuBois presented a guest book to the Chapter to retain a record of guests attending each meeting.

Mrs. A. L. Hegarty of Utahville gave a reading on "Historic Highways."

Mrs. Morgan read an article on "National Defense."

The luncheon party was highlighted by the presentation of a corsage decorated in the national colors.

Two guests, Mrs. Roy Fisher of Irvona, and Mrs. S. Ricketts of Flinton, attended the event.

Mrs. Lillian Weaver Is Called By Death

Mrs. Lillian M. Weaver, 69, native of Irvona, died last Saturday at the home of a daughter, Mrs. John Galbraith, in Perkiomenville, Montgomery County.

She was born in Irvona, Nov. 17, 1868, a daughter of Samuel and Viola Bowser Sitman. She was the last member of her immediate family and leaves only her daughter, with whom she made her home, and a grandson, John B. Galbraith.