Mrs. Dubetsky, 61, Is Buried Monday

Funeral services were held on Monday at nine a. m. with a high mass of requiem in St. Bernard church here for Mrs. Lenora Dubetsky, 61, of Hastings, who died April 5 in Newark, N. J. Interment was in the church cemetery. Mrs. Dubetsky had been an invalid after suffering a paralytic stroke several years ago. She was undergoing treatment in a Newark Hospital when she passed away.

Born in Houtzdale, June 13, 1893, she was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Walters. The family had resided in St. Boniface for many years.

Her husband, Anthony, survives, and these children: Mrs. Helen Ezilo and Eugene, both of Duke Center; Mrs. Esther Toohy, of New York City; Mrs. Elaine Everhard, Hastings; Mrs. Roseanna Maxwell, Alphonse, James, Donald and Raymond, all of Wichita, Kans.; George, U. S. Army, New York City; and Patricia and Beverly, both at home. There are 24 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

She was a sister of Frank Walters, Hastings; Mrs. Regina Cassidy, Pasadena, Calif.; and Harry Kramer, Pittsburgh. She was a member of the Rosary Confraternity and ICBU of St. Bernard Catholic Church, Hastings; auxiliary to the Hastings Fire Company and Barnesboro Cooties. Friends were received at the Easy Funeral Home and funeral services were held with a requiem high mass in St. Bernard's Church on Monday morning. Interment was in the church cemetery.

MY POPLAR TREE

Oh, poplar, you really beautiful sight,
With glimmer by day and a rustle at night,
Already enormous before I was born,
Your fortitude heartens me whisp'ers each morn,
Outside of my window your whys-pers enthral,
A harbor where feathered folk trustingly call,
Deep-rooted and sturdy, your arms seem to reach
Beseechingly up, as if trying to teach
That nothing below can compare
To the One
Who fosters and nurtures since time has begun,
Oh, poplar, you set an example in trust—
For living that's lofty and equal-ly just.
Creator of all, O, give us the strength
To persevere staunchly and bring us at length
To shun temporal folly, and then, like the tree,
Will always look gratefully upward to Thee.

Cubs' Summer Program Mapped
