Rosalind Lehmer Barnesboro Queen
Miss Rosalind Lehmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Leir, was crowned "Miss Barnesboro Queen" at a beauty contest held Sunday evening at Lewis E. Belcher Post #143, VFW, Barnesboro.

In addition to winning a $25.00 U. S. Saving Bond, which she donated to the Carmelite Order of Nuns at Loretto, she will be entered in the District 25 contest to be held in conjunction with the Loyalty Day celebration in Spangler next week.

Miss Lehmer is chairman of Carrolltown Girl Scout units and leader of the Senior Troop. Judges at the event were Mrs. Eugene Nastasi, Mrs. Angelo Lualto and Robert McNulty.

Carrolltown Technician Receives Driver Award
A Carrolltown man was among seven TV technicians honored safe driver pins in ceremonies recently at the Johnstown Branch office of RCA Service Co. He is Joseph Rosmus of Main St. Mr. Rosmus also serves as adviser to Boy Scout Explorer Post #4, St. Benedict.

The award, based on each technician's daily driving record, includes a lapel pin. Some 1,800 men over the nation were cited by the firm's home office in Camden, N. J.

FASTER COMMUNICATION FOR FIREMEN

Fire Chief Tom Buck listens over the FM-radio phone now part of Carrolltown Volunteer Fire Co. equipment, as Frank Shank (left) and Dave Farabough (right) test the "handi-talkie" to be used for quick communication in emergencies. The radio phone also may be used to contact neighboring fire companies.

Approximately 251 students of the first and second grades of the John Carroll Joint School District and St. Benedict's Parochial School in Carrolltown will receive their inoculations of the Salk An-ki-Polo Vaccine today, April 28, in the office of the joint district's school nurse at Bakerton Elementary school. This was announced today by Mrs. Jean Beaver, R.N., school nurse and Miss Anna Marjory, elementary supervising principal of the district.

The "shots" will be given the students beginning at 9:00 a. m., under the supervision of Dr. Raymond L. Dandrea.

Students of the East Carroll Twp. first and second grades will be vaccinated at the school on buses of their own district. Students of St. Benedict's Parochial School, Carrolltown, will travel to and from Bakerton on buses of the West Carroll Twp. district.

Additional reports on the coming bake sale and plans for next week's meeting featured a regular meeting of Boy Scout Troop 71, Carrolltown, Monday evening of this week. The session, held in basement scout rooms of the local Parochial school, was in charge of Michael Michrini, scoutmaster.

Oliver Stolz Jr., assistant scoutmaster, who will be in charge of the troop's bake sale on Saturday, May 7, heard reports on plans for the event from scouts. The bake sale will begin at 1:00 p. m. in the church basement. Proceeds of the event will be used for funds to send the boys to the week summer camp in July.

Mr. Michrini, who had roll call and read patrol meeting reports, listed plans for the troop's participation in the North Cambria District spring camporee in June. He also told boys that if money for summer camp was in council hands by June 8 an additional 50 cents per boy could be saved in addition to the 50 already saved on each boy by making early reservations for the camp site.

The troop's three patrols are currently working on posters for the bake sale. Stunts were presented by the Pioneer and Racoon Patrols and a recreation period was held.

Next week's meeting will begin promptly at 8:30 p. m. due to church services during May. The meeting will end at 7:15 p. m. All scouts were requested to be in all uniforms for next week's session.

Cleveland Miss Weds Paul Shero
Miss Veronica Kozloski, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Kozloski of Cleveland, O., became the bride of Paul B. Shero, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Shero of Carrolltown, at a double ring ceremony performed at 10 a. m. on Saturday, Apr. 16, by Rev. Arthur Joseph Kline in St. Joseph's Catholic Church, East 144th St., Cleveland.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She was attired in a white gown of net lace and carried an orchid with Beth-lehem stars. Miss Mary Margaret Rosenberger, maid of honor, wore a dress of yellow net and lace. Best man was William Prosser of Carrolltown.

Bridesmaids were Susan Depto, Helen Robinson and Dorothy Stalar, all of Wheeling, W. Va. They were attired in dresses of rainbow colors. Ushers were Anthony and Peter Kozloski, brothers of the bride, and Fred Shero, brother of the bridegroom. Kathy Pockavage and Victoria Rosenberger served as flower girls.

Dinner was served to about 250 persons, and a reception was held in the Moose Home at Cleveland at 5 p. m.

A private first class in the Army, Mr. Shero graduated from Carrolltown High School in 1952 and was later employed by Chase Brass & Copper Co., Cleveland.

He entered the Army last September, and now is stationed at Ft. Knox, Ky., as an instructor with the First Training Regiment at the Replacement Training Center there.

John Kuntzman of Carrolltown, Method Crusader of Patton and Ardrey Ivory of Chest Springs, spent several days fishing in Clinton County recently.

200 Attend JCHS Concert On Sunday

Approximately 200 residents of the area were in attendance at the annual band concert of the John Carroll Joint High School Band last Sunday evening at Doyle Hall, St. Francis College, Loretto.

The program was termed very successful. Michael Karolchik, band director, said a number of area band directors were present at the event. He also said a masterful job was done by Paul Flinn, of Crescon, guest conductor.

The audience was very appreciative of the fine and varied numbers presented by the band. The various solo numbers were also well received. The band's program this year consisted of numbers of strictly American origin.

School officials also offered a sincere thank you to St. Francis College for the use of their auditorium.

Eight Nominated For 'Teen Queen' Honors On June 6

Eight young ladies from Carrolltown were nominated for election as the "Queen of Teen-Agers" of Carrolltown Teen Age Club for a special closing-season semi-formal dance and celebration Monday, June 6. The June event, to mark the close of the Teen Age Club season in Carrolltown, will be held at American Legion Home.

Nominated for the "Queen" role were: Misses Donita Luthar, Dee Hayes, Mary Ann Shambaugh, Mary Ann Lieb, Arlene Zira, Venesky Bearer, Anne Buck and Patty Kirk.

According to adult officials of the local Teen Age Club a special celebration will mark the event.

The local club will hold a Senior Dance next Monday evening from 8:00 to 11:00 p. m. at the local Legion Home. Music will be furnished by Barry Cole and his Orchestra. All Seniors will be admitted free of charge and others will be admitted at 50 cents per couple. All teen age couples are invited to attend.

Lockhoff Is Guest At 4-H Ag Meeting

Harold Lockhoff, assistant county farm agent, discussed projects at a meeting of Carrolltown Agriculture 4-H Club on Tuesday evening in St. Benedict's Parochial School.

During the session, John Duzanzy turned over $6 to Treasurer Vincent Farabough, as proceeds from a 5-pound and a 2-pound egg given away at Easter. The larger was awarded Vincent Farabough, and the smaller egg was given to Paul Shero. The club treasury now has $23.25.

Talks were given by Robert Shero and John Duzanzy on last year's projects.

Plans for the next meeting, to be held at 7:30 p. m. May 28, include demonstrations by Ralph Hegner and John Duzanzy on setting out of plants, and by Robert Shero and Vincent Farabough on mixing of fertilizer.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Cunningham spent last Sunday visiting in Johnstown.
