Local PTA's Spring Festival Highlight Tomorrow Night

Event At High School Building to Begin At 5:00, Feature Supper, Fashion Show; Public Invited

Come one! Come All! That's the chant today as all residents of Patton and vicinity, as well as surrounding communities, are cordially invited to join the fun in carnival spirit and attend the Spring Festival to be held in the Patton-Chest High School tomorrow, Friday, April 29, from 5:00 to 9:30 p. m. The annual event is being sponsored by the Patton-Chest PTA.

Folks are urged to start the evening by taking the family to a dinner out. Servings start at 5:00. Home Cooked Meals, with a choice of meat or fish and all the coffee you can drink. Priced at only 50 cents. Carnival Concessions in the school gym. Fish pond surprise packages, various games of skill and chance with prizes for everyone.

Baked Goods. Get your week end baking. A wide choice of delicious home made pies, cakes, cookies and nut rolls. Homemade candy! Fudge, divinity, penuche and seafoam. Delicious!

Doll Exhibit. An exhibit which everyone should visit. Dolls from all over the world from the collection of Mrs. S. Raymond Cromer. Boy dolls, girl dolls, funny dolls, unusual dolls, chimney dolls—just all kinds.

Fashion Show. In auditorium or assembly hall. See the latest fashions on beautiful models. Floor show also.

Lunches will be served at all times throughout the evening. Enjoy yourself. Bring the entire family for an evening of good, clean, jam-packed entertainment.

Mrs. Nuss discussed drying flowers by using borax. The complete technique was included in the monthly bulletin which she had prepared together with instructions for other types of drying and a list of special preservatives of cut flowers.

The committee and list of the members for tables at the Christmas Tea were also announced in the bulletin.

The civic committee announced that six shrubs have been purchased as a beginning of the planting project at the Patton Recreation Park.

A program of exceptional interest will be presented at a monthly meeting May 23 at the Moose Home. Three films, "Dream Come True," "Banquet of Beauty," and "Way to Better Vegetables" will be shown by N. D. Colavincenzo, field representative of the plant food division of Swift and Company, Chairman for the evening.

The Patton Parent-Teacher Association has announced the completion of final plans for the party and breakfast to be held at the Patton Eagles' Ballroom on Friday, May 6, following the annual Junior-Senior Prom of the Patton-Chest High School.

Among the features will be a selection of a king and queen, the king to be named "Kanehaneha" and the queen, "Liliuokalani." There will also be featured a Hawaiian dancer named "Lilaeau" and the Hula Honies. Music for the event will be by the Hawaiian Trio. There will also be several surprises as well as prizes.

The Juniors and Seniors attending the party will be served by four lovely Hawaiian maidens.

A number of FHA members from Patton-Chest High School attended the home economics open house at the Penn State University on Saturday, April 23.

Many educational home making exhibits and demonstrations were viewed by the group. These exhibits were set up by the college students. The group also was able to attend the spring fashion show which was presented by the college home economics clothing department.

Before leaving the campus, the girls enjoyed a most interesting tour through the girls' dormitories and the girls' gymnasium.

Attending were: Shirley Bosar, Rose Marie Fedor, Carolyn Rudess, Ida Mae Link, Jean Ann Link, Betty Lou Kirkpatrick, Ruth Holten, Mary Olive Holten, Viola Holten, Gene Wharton, Joyce Bako, Margaret Sutton, Rita Sutton, Delores Thomas, Vesta McConnell, Marjorie Lechene, Mary Olive Stoy, Mary Ann Yahnke, Betty Ann Weiskand and Eleanor McNulty.

Accompanying the group were Mrs. Leo O'Leary, FHA adviser and the drivers of the cars, Miss Mary Homyak, Mrs. Francis Yahnke and Stephen Bakajza.

Banns of Matrimony Published Here Sunday

Banns of matrimony were published Sunday for the first time in St. Mary's Church for Miss Simone Solomon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cy Solomon, and Robert Boslett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Boslett, of Bakerton. Their marriage will take place May 14, in St. Mary's Church.

Banns of matrimony were published for the second time in St. George's Church for Miss Eleanor Brodosky, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Brodosky, of Herriman Avenue, and Paul Jenkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Jenkins, of Terra Cotta Avenue. They will be married May 7, at 9 a. m. in St. George's Church.

'Garden Quiz Down' Provides Info, Fun Here Monday Night

Club Purchases Shrubs For Planting At Park

A "Garden Quiz Down" prepared by Mrs. M. M. Nuss was the feature of the program at the regular monthly meeting of the Patton Garden Study Club Monday evening at local Moose Hall.

Two teams led by Mrs. Paul McGough and Mrs. Anthony Anna competed with the questions proving to be not only informative but in many instances created a great deal of hilarity among the members. Mrs. McGough's team was winner with Mr. McGough also leading as individual high scorer.

Prizes of garden seed were given with each member of the two teams sharing in the prizes.

A number of flower arrangements were on display including three lovely spring arrangements by Mrs. Edna Miller, Mrs. Paul McGough and Mrs. Ambrose Yahnke. Mrs. Nuss exhibited an unusual "Devils Tongue" plant as well as some spring seed flowers.

Included in the program was presentation by Mrs. McGough of the way to test the soil. Mrs. McGough reported on the African violet show she and Mrs. John Nagle recently attended in Pittsburgh.

Mrs. Nuss discussed drying flowers by using borax. The complete technique was included in the monthly bulletin which she had prepared together with instructions for other types of drying and a list of special preservatives of cut flowers.
