

SPANGLER

50th Anniversary Services Here Very Well Attended

All services held in connection with the 50th anniversary of the Spangler Presbyterian Church were very well attended.

Wednesday, May 18, was "Family Night." A covered dish dinner was held in the dining room of the church. This was followed by a program in the Church Sanctuary which featured music by the high school mixed chorus and a brass quartet of the high school, both under the direction of Daniel DiCicco, music supervisor of the Spangler unit. Songs were presented by the Primary Department of the Sunday School under the direction of Mrs. Geraldine Wagner.

Thursday evening's program was "Westminster Fellowship Night" and featured guest speaker, The Rev. Lowell Martin, of the television program "Heaven Speaks."

Friday was the observance of Holy Communion. On Sunday, the regular Sunday School was held at 11:00 a. m. At 3:00 p. m. the Re-Dedication service and Dedication of Memorial gifts was held followed by refreshments in the church dining room.

Mrs. Robert Caldwell was the chairman of the anniversary committee and is to be congratulated for the fine programs planned. The minister is Rev. H. Kenyon Leishman.

Among those from out-of-town who attended one or more services were: Mrs. Roy Trude of Marshall; Mr. and Mrs. Miles Ranck Sr.; Mrs. Zeta Bougher, Mrs. Minnie Whited, Mrs. James Long Sr., Mrs. Ray E. Brown, Mrs. John McGuire, Mrs. Ida Rosegrant, Mrs. W. P. Gries, Miss Kate Gill, Miss Mae Gill, Mrs. George Gill, Mrs. J. E. Hopkins and the Misses Alma and Vera Condit, all of Barnesboro; Mrs. Margaret Frank Mr. and Mrs. Jay Rodkey and the Rev. and Mrs. Plummer Harvey of Patton; Mrs. John Dunlap of Cherry Tree; Mr. and Mrs. Victor Rydholm, Mrs. Diefenderfer, Miss Ruth Black, Miss Eleanor T. Martz, all of Glen Campbell; Mrs. Tillie Lang, Mrs. and Mrs. James Stratton, Mrs. LaRue Saylor, Mrs. Bert Saylor, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Symona, Miss Jane Hunter, Miss Esther Anderson, Oscar Anderson and Miss Ann Symona, all of St. Benedict.

Mrs. Marjorie Whited Yeager of Jersey Shore; A. E. Fox of Mt. Lebanon; Robert Stratton and Hugh and Leroy Caskey of Coalport; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dukas and Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Dukas of Cresson; Mrs. John Cole, Mrs. Wm. Mitchell, Mrs. John Sewalsh, Mrs. Burtzbaugh, Mrs. Charles McCombs and Mr. and Mrs. Ward Hurd, all of Bakerton.

In addition many letters and messages of greetings and congratulations were received from former ministers and members from the following states: California, Iowa, Illinois, New York, South Carolina and in many cities and towns of Pennsylvania.

Mr. A. E. Fox, who organized the local Presbyterian Sunday School and served as its superintendent for 32 years, now residing in Mt. Lebanon, spent the week end here. Mr. Fox will be 82 years old next month.

Americianism Program Held Monday Evening

The annual Americanism Program, sponsored by Lynn Wetherson Post 569, American Legion, Spangler, and the Post's Ladies Auxiliary, was held in the local high school auditorium Monday evening.

Music was presented by the band of the Spangler Unit, Northern Cambria High School, under the direction of Daniel DiCicco, music supervisor.

The principal address was given by Paul R. Jones, district commander of the American Legion. Awards were presented to outstanding eighth grade graduating students from area schools by Mrs. John Whalen, Pennsylvania Dept. Historian of Legion Auxiliary, and also Americanism Chairman of the local Auxiliary. Those receiving awards were as follows: John Pagan and Karen Kirsh of Holy Cross Parochial School; Jeremy Domenic and Annette Kelly of St. Patrick's Parochial School; Robert Arotin and Ruth Gryboski of St. Stanislaus Parochial School; Allen Kirsh and Zaida Kirsh of St. Nicholas Parochial School and David Giunt and Pauline Preville of Spangler Public School.

Winners of the American Legion Essay contest were presented awards by Mrs. Ted Roger, the Western Director of American Legion Auxiliary.

Joseph Daniel Falger Indiana STC Graduate

Among the graduating seniors at Indiana State Teachers College is Joseph Daniel Falger. He received the degree of Bachelor of Science in Education at commencement exercises Monday, in Fisher Auditorium at the college. At the same time he also received a Commission as Second Lieutenant in the Quartermaster Corps of the U. S. Army Reserve. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Falger and is a 1951 graduate of Spangler High School.

Ladies Have An Eye For Value!

We've been hollerin' about our prices and top quality for a long time because we are proud to announce them publicly. We do most of our hollerin' through advertising... that's the way we can do it most effectively.

As a result you know what we have to sell, the special services we have to offer, and what our prices are. This being a free enterprise system, you can thus decide for yourself whether doing business with district stores will be valuable and profitable. Frankly, we feel that we have done a good job of saving you money through our efforts to maintain price and quality leadership... especially during the present price squeeze.
