Notes of Carrolltown Little Boys Baseball League Games to Begin Next Week 48 Boys Registered On 4 Teams; Grading Work

Done At Diamond On St. Benedict Street Here

Carrolltown's Little Boys Baseball League will swing into ac-tion for the third consecutive season next Thursday, June 16.

Final plans for operating the bical midget league in the comnunity were made at a meeting of league officials and feam man-agers Tuesday evening of this week in the Wentz Hotel.

The official league diamond this season will be at the St. Benedict Street field, the site used by the circuit its first season of play in 1953. In re-gards to this field local league officials take this opportun-ity to thank Sterling Coal Co., of Bakerton for donating their buildozer ic order that the diamond could be properly leveled off and also to Raymon Buck of Carrolltown, an employee of the Bakerton concern for operating the equipment.

It was stressed that all boys in Carrolltown and vicinity, 8 to 12 years of age, may participate in the circuit, providing they have not attained their 13th birthday before Aug. 1, 1955. All rules governing the league are the same as those controlling the Little League Inc., Williamsport, Pa.

To date 48 boys are registered or the four-team circuit. Any boys wishing to enter the ingue may do so by contacting any team manager or R. J. Wents, committee chairman, or Rich-ard Bradley, secretary-treasurer. All registration permit slips, that must be signed by parents, must the in the hands of the respective team managers before the open-

Managers of this season's teams are: Lambert Weakland, Pirates; Joseph Shulick, Tigers; Jack Serafin, Indians, and John B. Green, Cardinals. Members of the board of arbitration are Mr. Wentz, Mr. Bradley and Ted Lapina.

Local gentlemen selected as impires are: Tom Gray, chief impire; Edward Kanik, Thomas Lonergan, George Mihalik, Sever-ta Ceschini, Jack Foster and ominic Inzana. Mr. Wentz said that any other

erson interested, whose name is sot mentioned, should contact him. "Being a community-spon-sored project, everyone is wel-come to help out and take part to the activities," Mr. Wentz

The two-half schedule will The two-half schedule will be played again this season, 18 games in each half. All games will begin at 6:30 p. m. "It is the belief of many," he added, "that some individuals have carried the virus of polio in their bodies for several weeks without symptoms and have then developed the disease when sud-denly chilled, become overtired, or been exposed to some stress or been exposed to some stress situation such as minor surgery." The suggestions, especially in the hot months, for the preven-tion of polio include: avoid large crowds and large public gather-ings, keep clean by washing and bathing frequently, do not swim in possible polluted water, keep flies away from food, avoid sud-den chilling from going into cold water on hot days, and most im-portantly, prevent fatigue from portantly, prevent fatigue from over-exertion.

One of the best-known cage stars of the decade, All-American Dick Ricketts, baseball and basketball star of the Duquesne Uni-
