UTAHVILLE

Charles Flick has returned to his home after spending a tour of service with the U. S. Army in Korea. Mr. and Mrs. Frank McCormick of Atlantic City, N. J., and Mr. and Mrs. Orr Brobeck of Tyrone, visited recently with their aunt, Mrs. Iva G. Gagan, and sons and daughter, and Betty M. Flick, visited Mrs. Myrtle Brobeck, near Meadville, last Sunday. They were accompanied home by Mrs. Brobeck, who will spend some time visiting her sisters, Mrs. Gathagan and Mrs. Roby Matthew.

One of the oldest landmarks in this part of Clearfield county is soon to be removed to make room for a modern home and service station. This is the house in Allamansville, built many years ago by the grandfather of one of Utahville's oldest residents, Mr. Frank (Pop) Fryer. The building has been owned and inhabited since 1902 by Mr. and Mrs. Mead Matthew. Since Mr. Matthew's death some years ago, Mrs. Matthew has been operating a small grocery store there. Recently the property was sold to Percy Herring, who will soon take possession. Mrs. Matthew will move into a small house near her daughter, Mrs. Ed Glasgow.

Snack Will Help

Serve your pre-school child nutritious mid-morning and afternoon snacks, suggests Marguerite L. Duvall, extension family life specialist of the Pennsylvania State University. Studies made at the Montana State University Nursery School show that young children eat about the same amount of lunch whether or not they are served a snack. If the snack is served before 10 in the morning and 3:30 in the afternoon, the child eats more of it so his total food intake is increased. For snacks, try sandwiches or crackers and fruit juices.
