

STEVENS GREETHS HIS SUCCESSOR

ASHVILLE

ANSWER ALARM
The Asheville Volunteer Fire Company was called about 8:10 p. m. last Saturday when lightning caused a fire at a barn on the Kopp Estate at Richland. According to Fire Chief Warren Noel, the barn was a total loss. It was partially covered by insurance. Juniata Gap Fire Co. also responded to the alarm.

INJURED IN DIVING

Leonard Semindenger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Semindenger of Asheville R. D., was injured on the head at the Asheville swimming pool Thursday of last week. He was diving into the pool and his head struck the side requiring seven stitches.

The victim received first aid treatment at the pool by Eletha Burgoon, R. N., and was then taken to Altoona Mercy Hospital in the Asheville Fire Co. ambulance.

Miss Eletha Burgoon and Mrs. Ruth Beers, both nurses, were given membership cards to the Asheville Volunteer Fire Co.

Businessmen Plan Free Community Picnic At Hastings

A free community picnic at the new Hastings Community Park will be sponsored in the near future by the Hastings Businessmen's Assn.

Plans for the picnic were announced at a meeting of the unit on Monday evening the Hastings VFW Home.

Harry Draschuk and James Toski were named chairman and co-chairman of the arrangements committee. The picnic date and program will be announced later.

A discussion was held on a proposal to hold a combined fund drive for community charitable organizations patterned after the Community Chest campaigns.

The unit also announced plans to send letters to various firms supplying local business houses offering them advertising space on benches and tables in the new park.

The park is now open for basket picnics. The next meeting is scheduled for Aug. 1.

Mine Disaster Men To Speak Tonight

Barnesboro VFW to Be Scene of Meeting

Two state mine inspectors will speak at a meeting of the 15th Bituminous District Emergency Organization at 7:00 p. m. this Thursday evening in the Barnesboro VFW Home.

George S. McCas, Pittsburgh, inspector for the 29th Bituminous District, will discuss mine disasters and rescue and recovery work. He is widely known as an authority on rescue work.

William Powers, also of Pittsburgh, inspector for the 22nd District, will speak on "Mine Fires and Explosions."

George Resick, chairman of the organization, said a program of entertainment also is being planned. Mine operators, safety officials and mine safety crews have been invited to take part in a panel discussion to follow talks by the two state inspectors.

Correction in Prices!
In last week's ad of Farabaugh's Ladies' Shoppe, Patton, one lot of dresses should have been priced at $2.95 to $4.95, and summer straw bags at $1.95 up, instead of prices as listed.

Summer Isn't Vacation Time

No, it isn't vacation time for the farmers; they're in their busiest season right now. Time and energy are mighty valuable right now to them, and that's one of the reasons they shop in district stores.

They know they can get good service when they shop here. They know they save time by not having to drive many miles, not having to back traffic or look for a parking space.

They know that the save money by shopping in district stores, and they know the merchants will back up the merchandise they buy. They know prices are right and stocks are complete.

They know they can do all of their shopping here. They can have needed repairs made to equipment and tools while they get the rest of their items on the shopping list right close by.

Summer may or may not be vacation time for you. But either way, you'll want your shopping to be EASY, CONVENIENT, and ECONOMICAL in time, effort and money. So take a tip from our farmer friends, and shop in district stores.

There you're more than a customer—you are a valued friend!

Cleaner... Softer... Brighter...
BECAUSE:
We use the only drycleaning process that removes both types of soil—soluble soils removable by percarbonethylene and insoluble soils removable only by an additive. The result is complete removal of all soil from the fibers. Your clothes are cleaner, brighter looking—with natural softness to the touch.
