Miss Ann M. Lesinak Bride Here Recently

Miss Ann M. Lesinak, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Lesinak of Ashville, was married to Mr. Daniel McNichol of Philadelphia, Pa., in a beautiful ceremony at a beautiful Sacred Heart wedding at a nuptial mass in St. Thomas Church, Ashville, at 9 a. m. August 27. Rev. Father John B. Hackett performed the double-ring ceremony and Elizabeth Hufford presided at the organ.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a long white gown of chantilly lace with a skirt of lace and net over satin with a long cathedral train. Her fingertip veil was held in place with a queen's crown of seed pearls and sequins. She carried a white Mother of Pearl bouquet covered with white roses and centered by a white orchid with streamers.

Mrs. Joyce Kapello of Ashville, friend of the bride, was maid of honor. Miss Ellen McNichol, sister of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid. They wore identical ballroom-length gowns of white tulle-trimmed with red roses and matching jackets. Their headpieces and large bouquets were also of red roses.

The wedding breakfast and dinner were served at the home of the bride, followed by an evening reception. The music was furnished by Mickey Lokey's orchestra.

The couple spent a two-week honeymoon in Wildwood, N. J. and will reside in Philadelphia. The bride, a graduate of Crescen High School, is now employed as a supervisor for Bell Telephone Co. in Philadelphia. Her husband, a graduate of North East Catholic High School and LaSalle College of Phila., is employed with the U. S. Post Office.

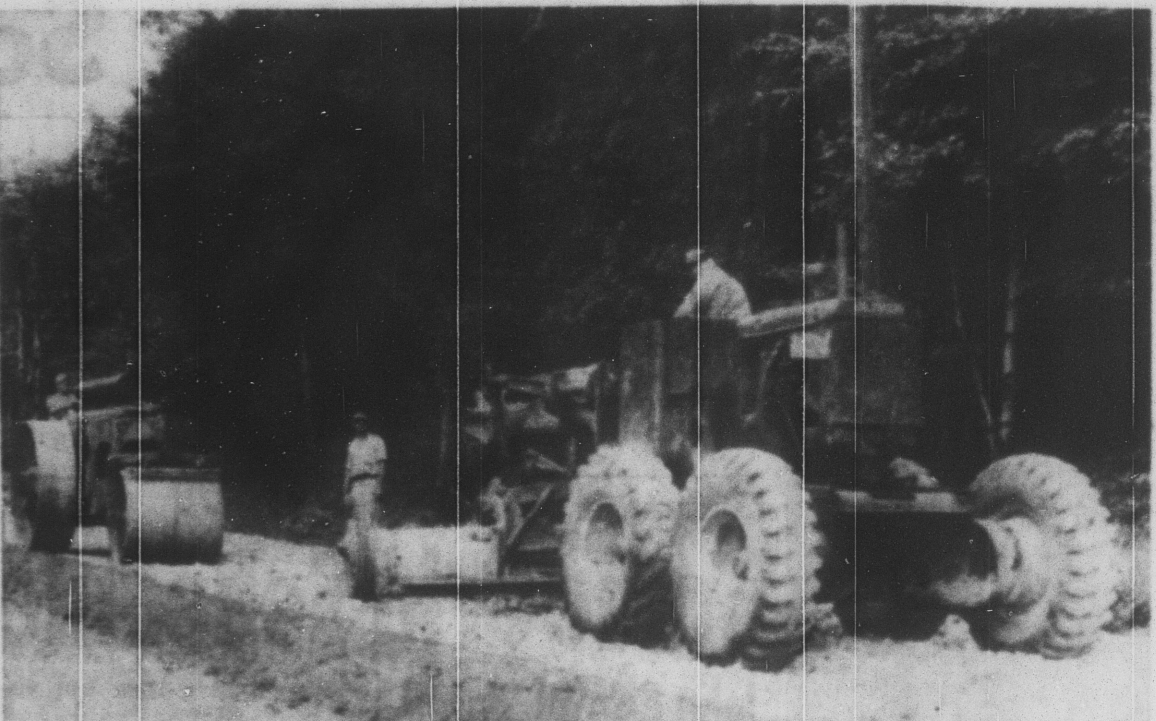

Out-of-town guests were from Philadelphia, New Jersey, Dayton, Pa., Washington, D. C., and surrounding communities.

Mine Workers, Owners In Central States Agree Coal producers in Illinois, Indiana and West Kentucky have signed new agreements with the United Mine Workers providing $2-a-day pay increase for miners. This brings virtually the entire soft coal industry under new agreements for which the pattern was set in earlier negotiations between UMW President John L. Lewis and eastern operators. —School Zone means 15 m.p.h. speed for all vehicles.

ion driving, balancing cars on two wheels, rolling jolopies end over end, and "diving" speeding cars from high elevations. Among the events are the "roll over" series, the "slide for life" and a sensational exhibition of auto-acrobatics with stunt men balancing themselves on top of speeding autos.

The highlight of the show, however, is the "rocket car" leap. In this leap the distance "rocks" through space from a launching ramp to a receiving platform. Another standout event is the "wing-overs" in which three of the nation's top stunt men—Buddy Brooks, Buck Cowling and "Lucky" Lee Grable balance new cars on two wheels for 150 feet or more.

Tomorrow's program begins at 2:00 p. m. Six area priests are among 15 who have received new assignments at St. Vincent Archabbey, College, Seminary and Preparatory School, Latrobe.

Announcement of the assignments was made over the week end by Rev. Dennis O. Strittmatter, OSB, DD, archabbot. They are effective as of today. Rev. Demetrius Dumm, OSB, instructor in Scriptures at the seminary, has been named to succeed Rev. Ermin Smith, OSB, as vice rector of the seminary.

Father Demetrius, son of Gordon Dumm of Ebersburg R. D., who also acts as moderator for the Wimmer Correspondence Course (an informational course for non-Catholics), received his bachelor of arts degree from St. Vincent in 1945, and graduated "magna cum laude" from Saint Anselmo in Rome in 1949 with a S.T.L. and "cum laude" from the same college with a S.T.D. in 1950. During 1950-1952, the new rector, who speaks five different languages and writes 11 of them, studied at Ecole Biblique et Archeologique Francaise in Jerusalem, Palestine. The Pontifical Biblical Commission of the Vatican awarded him both the bachelor of sacred scripture (S.S.D.) and the licentiate of sacred scripture (S.S.L.) in 1952. Father Ermin, a native of New Germany, is the new socius of clerics, a position formerly held by Rev. Melvin Rupprecht, OSB, who was appointed chaplain of the college. Father Ermin also served as a prefect in the seminary as well as vice rector.

Other changes include: Rev. Maximilian G. Duman, OSB, of Nicktown, associate professor of biology, to assistant chaplain in the college. Rev. Camillus Long, OSB, of New Germany, assistant headmaster of the preparatory school, to chaplain of the college. Rev. KDKA-TV Will Televis 13 NCAA, 6 Steeler Grid Games

Pitt-Syracuse, Notre Dame-Michigan State to Be Among Top Attractions Under Present Schedule In a joint statement issued by Harold C. Lund, general manager of KDKA-TV, and Vic Maitland, advertising director for the Duquesne Brewing Co., it was disclosed last week that all six of the away-from-home games of the Pittsburgh Steelers are to be telecast on KDKA-TV, Channel 2, Pittsburgh.

While the arrangements have already been concluded for two Sunday contests and one Saturday affair, a doubt still exists as to the possibility of clearing lines for the Los Angeles opener on Oct. 2, but the station remains hopeful that this will be accomplished. KDKA-TV has also arranged to carry the full NCAA schedule consisting of 13 games, four of these to be telecast in color.

Included on the attractive color line-up will be the Pittsburgh game on Saturday, Sept. 24, Notre Dame and Michigan State on Oct. 15, Notre Dame and Penn. Nov. 5; Army and Navy, Nov. 26 and North Carolina and Duke, Dec. 3.

Six Steeler Games Listed The six away-games for the professional Pittsburgh Steelers, with approximate times, are listed as follows: Sunday, Oct. 2—at Los Angeles from 6:00 to 8:45 p. m. Sunday, Oct. 23—at New York, from 2:00 to 4:45 p. m.
