Christmas Packages for Overseas Servicemen to Be Mailed By Nov. 15

sent out now!

It is time to start thinking of the Christmas season if you have re-latives or friends serving with the armed forces overseas.

now and Nov. 15. The postoffice and two pounds in weight.

Military personnel are well sup-plied with food by the armed ser-vices. Besides, parcels containing foodstuffs subject to 'spoliage and vices. Besides, parcels containing foodstuffs subject to 'spoilage and breakage in transit are likely to reach overseas destinations unfit for use, they said.

The term "armed forces overseas includes the personnel of our armed forces, members of their families and authorized U. civilians employed overseas who receive their mail through

The area postmasters said the importance of mailing the Christmas packages during the designated period cannot be em-phasized too strongly—the earl-ier the better, they stated.

They added that the public can be reasonably assured that parcels sent through regular mails prior to Nov. 15 will reach their des-tination before Christmas.

iders were cautioned not to delay mailing packages until Dec-embir on the assumption that timely delivery will be assured through the use of air service. The postmasters pointed out

Area postmasters further ex-plained that after air parcels arrive overseas, delivery, in many cases, must be made via land transportation facilities available in overseas areas.

Number Needed If you want him or her to re-ceive your packages in time for the fast-approaching holiday, the gifts must be mailed between es in length and girth combined By New Workers

Prompt action is required by now and Nov. 15. The postoffice department cannot guarantee de-livery of parcels sent after next month's deadline. Postmatters of this area, however, advised against send-ing food. Military personnel are well supthose who were brought under the Social Security Act for the first time in January, 1955, according to Richard C. Wiestling, district manager of the Social Security Office, Johnstown.
