Members were inspired last Miss Mellie Marie Kuhnley, daumeeting with the preview of a dided arrangement brought in by Miss Agnes Palcho. This arrangement showed that we can go beyond flowers to other natural artistic forms, and make dried arrangements fresh and different. Then too, dried materials are most useful in bridging the long gap between late autumn and apring. This will be the main feature at Monday evening's meeting on Nov. 28, at the Moose Hall beginning at 8 p. m. Members are urged to participate by bringing their creations.
