Shower of Aluminum Foil Falls On Vinco

A strange shower of aluminum foil hit the Vinco area Wednesday of last week. While most districts had only showers, Vinco got an additional sprinkling of fine strips of foil.

Strips were about an eighth of an inch wide and one to two inches in length. The strips were believed to have been blown in from some weather or radar testing experiment.

Most of the major inland areas of the Antarctic continent are named for females, while most mountain ranges and peaks, glaciers, bays and islands are named for males.

Gresh Given Life Membership By Co. Young Farmers

Name Arthur Thomas As New President

Walter Gresh, Ebensburg R. D. farmer, has been awarded an honorary life membership in the Cambria County Young Farmers Association.

His selection as winner of this year's award, the fourth given by the agricultural group, was announced at a meeting of the unit Tuesday night of last week at the Ebensburg Fairgrounds.

Arthur Thomas of Ebensburg R. D. was elected the new president of the association in balloting at a business meeting. He succeeds Earl Long, Patton R. D.

One of seven candidates for the honorary membership, Gresh was chosen on the basis of his "outstanding contributions to agriculture in Cambria County over the years."

He and a brother, Michael, operate a 157-acre farm which this year won the annual Baltimore & Ohio Railroad soil conservation award.

The honorary membership will be presented at ceremonies at the association's December meeting.

Runners-up for the award were John Bloom, Ebensburg R. D., and Earl Karheim, Finton R. D.

Other association officers are Donald Calhoun, Ebensburg R. D., vice president; John Strittmatter, Ebensburg R. D., secretary; Jay Javis, Ebensburg R. D., treasurer.
