when it is safe for him to do so. CHTCAGO, July 14.—There is probably something in the arrest of Maurice Walsh in San Francisco, for he has been arrested there on the request of the authorities here, though they strenously deny the fact that he is wanted in Chicago in con-nection with the Cronin case or has been arrested.

While Walsh was not here at the time of the murder, he was here before the While Walsh was not here at the time of the murder, he was here before that time, and it is pretty well known that the picture shown, which was said to be Moroney's photograph, was that of Walsh, who has been identified by salos-men in the store of A. H. Revell & Co, as the man who made the purchases of the trunk and furniture there, and hired the rooms at 17 Clark street. In fact, Walsh is strongly suspected of being J. B. Si-monds, and the police think they can prove it.

Invisible Threads.

Threads as fine as this are only useful as microscopic objects, but those of 1-10,000 of an inch, and even finer, can be employed by those accustomed to handle them. Such a thread is 10,000 times less stiff than spun glass, and stronger than a picce of steel of the same size—if such could be made—and will carry weight equivalent to eighty tons to the square inch.

procureur-general reserves the right to prosecute Gen. Boulanger for other pecu-lations after the latter's trial by the Sanate

Senate. All of the documents relating to the Boulangist prosecution will be published. General Boulanger presided at a fete and banquet given by the French colony at the Alexandra Palace in honor of the one hundredth anniversary of the de-struction of the Bastlie and the begin-ning of the French revolution. Several speeches were made and great enthysi-asm prevailed.

dem prevailed. Brann Mirikers Arrested. BERLIN, July 15.—Two of the leaders of the Brunn strike, Sabotka and Palat-schek, have been arrested at Brunn. Both are known to the government offi-cials as leading members of the Czech Anarchist party, and the language they have employed in recent specelices to the strikers has been of the most seditious character. Palatschek was recently granted an audience by Count Yon Taato minister of the Interior, and his repre-sentations of the grievances of the strikers made a good impression and stamped him as a man of extraordinary ability. ability

A Fire in Lancaster. LANCASTER, Pa., July 15.—A large building on East Chesthut street, occu-pied by Osborne & Co., metal umbrella handles; C. V. Rote, iron fences; D. H. Kulp, ventilating fans, and James C. Leanan, brass foundry, has been do-stroyed by fire. The loss is large.

Petition for the Exclusion of Ameri-can Barges from Her Canals.

Petition for the Exclusion of Americ can Barge from Her Canala. OTTAWA, Ont., July 15...-Canadian barges are rigidly excluded from certain united States canals, while United States barges are not excluded from Canachan canals. It has, consequently, come to pass that United States barges are driv-ing out Canadian barges whenever ship-ments are intended to pass throug: United States canals. Canadian barges which were recently-engaged in carrying Jumber to Kingston, where it was transhipped to American barges for the rest of the journey into the United States, are now laid up. The United States barge men, finding there was nothing to prevent their coming into canadian waters, took advantage of the conditions with the above result. A petition to the governor has been prepared at Kingston, which is being signed by lumberers generally, asking the government to put Canadian canals on precisely the same basis as regards United States bottoms as United State-canadias regarding Canadian bottoms. Ozans, Mo., July 15....It is reported

United States bottoms as United States canais are regarding Canadian bottoms. OZANK, Mo., July 15.—It is reported here that Wiley Matthews, the escaped Bald Knobber, has shot and killed two men in Arkansas. They had attempted to cepture him. One of the men was named Jackson. The other is unknown.

Great Storm in Susquehanna. Great Storm in Susquehanna. SUSQUEHANNA, July 15.—A violent and destructive rain and wind storm visited this place at 5 o clock, lasting an hour. The rain fol in torrents and the wind blew down large trees and outbuildings. Some streets wore made impassable by the debris. A cow was carried from one field to another. The confiledis wero ruined. Limbs of trees were seen flying over the town. No lives were lost. Much damage is reported in the suburbs, and there were some land slides on the railroad.

Acting Secretary of State in Jall.

Acting secretary of state in Jati. DENVER, July 13.—Mr. Wyatt, acting secretary of state, has been arrested for refusing to comply with an order of the court. He was sentenced to ten days in the county jail, and is now confined in that institution. It is expected that a writ of habcas corpus will be sued out for his release.
