Inspector Jonathan, upon being notified of the accident, responded by coming in person to the scene, after which he ordered T. A. Buckley, J. P., to hold an inquest. The following jury was empanelled: Forenan, John Burton; Hugh Malloy, Jos. D. Myers, John B. Quigley, John Rugans and John M. Powell, who went to Drifton, viewed the body and the place where the accident occurred. The jury then adjourned to meet at 2 p. m. to-day to take testimony.

YESTERDAY'S ACCIDENT.

—An entertainment showing interesting and descriptive views of the late war will be given at the Opera House this evening.

—D. O. Pritchard, inside foreman at No. 2 Highland, has tendered his resignation to Markle & Co., to take effect August 1.

—The St. Patrick's cornet band will accompany the excursion of the Young Men's T. A. B. Society to Glen Onoko on Saturday.

—Commencing with August 1 Hugh Shovlin of Highland will act as assistant freight agent with James Roarty at the L. V. station.

The Excursion to Glen Onoko.

At 9 a. m. next Saturday morning the grand excursion held under the anspices of the Young Men's T. A. B. Society to Glen Onoko will leave Freeland. The excursion will be accompanied by Depierro's celebrated orchestra, who will furnish the dancing music. Refreshments and eatables of every description can be obtained at the Glen. The committee in charge of the affair reports that all the necessary arrangements have been perfected to make this the most popular excursion ever run from this vicinity, and judging from the large number who have signified their intention of going the prospects of having a day of much enjoyment are certainly great. Tickets can be procured from any of the members of the committee or at the stations on Saturday morning. The fare is placed within the means of all and none should miss this opportunity of spending a day amid the grandest scenery of the state. The return trains from the Glen leave there at 6.30 p. m., bringing all to their homes within an hour. Tickets—adults, 80 cents; children, 50 cents.

AROUND THE SWITCHBACK.

The committee has also completed arrangements whereby a trip can be taken around the famous Switchback. The cost of the round trip is only 50 cents, and tickets can be procured at the station, on the train or from the committee. Everybody who has been there relishes the remembrance of coasting down the mountain in an open observation car, with a magnificient panorama stretching out on all sides. This, with the romantic beauty of the Glen, constitutes as pleasant a holiday programme as could be arranged.

NOTES FROM OTHER TOWNS.

-R. K. Laycock of Wilkes-Barre has mounced his candidacy for the Demo-atic nomination of sheriff.

—Make dry, solid cellar floors before the winter comes by using improved cements. Only 50 cents a sack, deliver-ed by Kline Bros.

The contract for a new bridge across the Lehigh between Lehighton and Weissport has been given to a Pittsburg firm. It will cost $25,000.

-Patrick Langan of Pittston hung himself in his barn Sunday morning. He attempted to drown himself on Fri-day, and is thought he was insane. —Nunerous incendiary fires have oc-curred in Carbondale of late, several fine buildings having been destroyed. The business men have employed detectives to investigate.

—Andrew Harkins of Lansford boasts of an egg that is hard to beat for its size. It is from a Plymouth rock chicken, and measures $\frac{1}{2}$ inches long, $\frac{1}{2}$ in circum-ferance and weighs 4 ounces.

-W. T. Carter of Philadelphia, coal operator at Beaver Meadow, who was reported dead last week, passed through this region very much alive Friday afternoon, at the time the funeral was announced to take place.

—Five miners, named Barrett, Harris, Daugher, McDonald and an unknown Hungarian, were burned by an explosion of gas in the Port Blanchard shaft near Wilkes-Barre Tuesday afternoon. It is thought that the three first named will not recover.

—The Lehigh Valley Company will purchase the Geneva, Ithaca & Sayre R. R. on the 27th of next month. The Val-ley has heretofore had a lease on it, but as soon as it is purchased outright it will be put in first-class condition and prom-ises to be a paying investment.

Sees to be a paying investment.

—Several societies of the Scranton C.

T. A. Union have, in answer to President Vaughan's letter, expressed a desire that the union and present board be continued. Some of them have passed emphatic resolutions, denouncing those who were instrumental in causing the rupture at Canton.

—The body of Patrick Gill, a young man residing near Wilkes-Barre, was found on the D. L. & W. tracks Sunday morning. The head was completely severed from the body, yet there was not a drop of blood in the vicinity, and foul play is suspected. When last seen he was with a number of companions drinking.

—The people of this county are warned against a swindler—a bogus priest calling himself "Father" Creegan—who is evidently working this way. He is a smooth rascal and he victimized Elmira and Binghamton people easily. He is not a priest and if he appears here under the name of Creegan or anything else he should be held, for he is wanted in the above cities. —Christopher Bates a Wilkes-Barre miner on going home on Saturday with his pay, gave his 7 months-old child a $20 gold piece to play with. Twenty minutes later it was stuck in the child's throat, and the frantic grandmother pushed it down. One of the physicians says that the milled edge of the coin makes it more dangerous, but Mr. Bates is of the opinion that the edge of this piece was worn smooth.

piece was worn smooth.

—During last week there was a convention of the Daughters of America in Shenandoah. A number of the delegates registered at the Merchants' Hotel. Four who hailed from Reading were given one spacious room. Next morning one of them said they had but little sleep; that they did not know how to extinguish the electric lights, and as a last resort had opened their umbrellas and slept with their heads under them.

That Terrible Seventh It was "lovely weather" for a game of ball Sunday afternoon and two thousand five hundred people found their way to the Freeland park, where they saw the Middle States League team of Hazleton outbatted and outfielded by the home club. The Hazleton club came here with blood in their eye to seek revenge for the defeats given them last week by the Cuban Giants, Norristown and Norwalk. Several of the players knew they had todefeat Freeland or Manager Foote would undoubtedly be presenting them with their release on Monday morning. Under these circumstances Hazleton went in to win, while the Freeland club were just as determined that they should not run away with them, even though they were "professional" ball players. Shortly after three o'clock Umpire Hugh Shovlin of Highland called the game, with Freeland at the bat. Neither side had any runs to their credit until the fifth, when Hazleton made their first safe hit off Welsh, followed shortly by another, and a passed ball by Simmons let in the run. Freeland never saw anything done yet they couldn't try themselves, and they also proceeded to get a run. Gillespie reached first on a single, where he stayed until McGeehan came to bat and electrified the audience by rapping out a three-bagger to left field, sending Gillespie home. Owing to the peculiar formation of this ground a three-base hit is something seldom seen and it was several minutes before the spectators could recover from their surprise. The score was tied and the excitement registered 100° in the shade. Hazleton was blanked in their half of that inning and Freeland came in on their seventh and continued the good work was simply phenomenal for an amateur club. Many felt positive the game was safe now, but the knowing ones did no crowing until the seventh was over, as in that inning Freeland has been defeated four out of five times this season. Hazleton had scored six times. This practically settled the game, the most conspicuous of which was the day to the result and the Norwalk club, and the received the p

FREELAND VS. LEHIGHTON

Mine Foreman Leckie who left Miners ville recently to accept a position as mine foreman at the Nottingham colliery, Plymouth, has discovered the reason why so many foreigners secure employment around the mines to the exclusion of the native workmen. In going the rounds of the slope he discovered a Hungarian in charge of a breast. The foreigner was unable to read or even speak English, and in accordance with the new mine law notified the man through and interpreter that he would be obliged to give up the position. It was then learned that the Hungarian had paid the sum of $30 toget the breast, and he therefore protested against the action of the foreman. He has entered suit against. Foreman Leckie, and his will be made a test case under the new law.

BASE BALL.

—Ten won and five lost is the record of the Freeland club.

—Leviston defeated Jeanesville on Monday by a score of 5–4.

—Shenandoah professionals vs. Fredand at 3 p. m. on Sunday.

—Hazleton Actives and Drifton play at the park on Sunday morning. -On Sunday at Yorktown Tresckow was defeated by the home club. Score, 22-10.

—Lansford has leased a plot of ground 400 feet square and will have an enclosed ground shortly.

—Jeddo was defeated by the Young America club of Hazleton on Sunday by a score of 20-8.

—The Drifton and Freeland Clerks played yesterday afternoon, the former winning by the score of 26-18. —Bobby Gamble pitched the greatest game of his life at Harrisburg last week, holding Norwalk down to one hit in nine innings.

—The base ball people of Hazleton are disgusted with the excuse of a club Manager Foote has placed there. They have lost six of the seven games played.

—Hazleton was disposed to do the mule act" on Sunday, but Shovlin gave them to understand he knew a point or two about that game called base ball. Japt. Kelly took exceptions to a few lecisions, but as there were no grounds to kick upon, he said little and gave all his attention to the garden behind first base.

Freeland went to Lehighton Saturday afternoon where they met Carbon County's crack club on their own grounds and defeated them with ease by a soore of 11-3. Freeland's battery for the first two innings was Welsh and Simmons, after which McGeady went in the box, Welsh being reserved for the game the following day. Lehighton was unable to do anything with either of the pitchers' delivery, while Freeland batted the ball about where they pleased. The game was too one-sided to be interesting, but it was amusing to see Freeland during the state of the property of the state of the property of the state of the pleased. The game was too one-sided to be interesting, but it was amusing to see Freeland during the state of the pleased. The game wight be finished in time for them to catch the last train. Hugh Shovlin of Highland unpired the game.

Fatal Railroad Accident.

A shocking accident occurred Monday morning on the Philadelphia and Reading railroad near Mahanov City. Three boys, sons respectively of Charles D. Kaiser and Mr. Wadlinger, prominent business men of Mahanov City and of J. A. Reilly, ex-Recorder of Schuylkill County, of Shenandoah, were driving in a buggy from Mahanov City to Frackville. As they approached the railroad crossing a passenger train passed, closely followed by the little combination engine and car "Transit." Wadlinger, who was driving, apparently not observing the "Transit," attempted to cross as soon as the passenger train had passed. The "Transit" struck the buggy, smashing it to splinters, killing the horse and terribly injuring the boys. Wadlinger was thrown forty feet and shockingly mangled and instantly killed.
