—WANTED: A bright, intelligent boy, about 15 years of age, who is willing to work. Apply to Kline Bros. at the mill.
—The Hayden Glee Club of Freeland will give a concert at the Sunday school rooms of St. James' P. church, Drifton, on Saturday evening.
—John Sweeney, a miner at Hazle Brook colliery, had one of his legs broken and was otherwise injured by a fall of coal in a gangway on Friday.
—Thomas A. Williams of Hazleton took the position on Monday of inscible foreman at No. 2 Highland, made vacant by the resignation of D. O. Pritchard.

—"See 'em drop"—the potato bugs—soon as they get a dusting of air-laked lime. Better and safer than Paris green, and it makes your potatoes grow. Sold by Kline Bros.
—The public installation and entertainment conducted by Camp 147, P. O. S. of A., at the Opera House Friday evening, was witnessed by a large audience, who were treated to a very pleasant and humorous programme.
—At St. Ann's church, on Sunday evening Denis Drifton and Miss Bridget Dugan of Bristol, Pa., were united in marriage by Rev. M. J. Fallishe. Hugh Gallagher and Miss Madge Borer of Drifton were groomsmen and bridesmaid.
—A farewell party was given by Mrs. M. L. Lubrecht at her residence last Sunday evening, preparatory to the removal of the family. A large number of her intimate acquaintances were in attendance and a most enjoyable time was spent. Depiero Bros. furnished the music.
—Freeland boys can always hold their own, no matter to what part of the world they may drift. From the Telluride (Colorado) Journal we learn that Ed. McGietrick, son of Commander of her McGietrick, has just beaten the record of that state in a rock drilling match held at Telluride.
—Mrs. Rowlands of Front Street, who has been an inmate of the Danville Insane Asylum for the past seven months, died at that institution on Tuesday. Her remains arrived here yesterday and were taken to the residence of her son. The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon.
—Harvey Davis, son of George Davis of Drifton, has passed an examination and entered as a law student. He will study under our townsman John D. Hayes, which is a guarantee that nothing will be left unattempted to instill in him a thorough knowledge of the profession which he is about to enter.
—High Constable Rinker has four large hogs in the borough pound, which he seized upon yesterday morning. We pass by the fun created by his Highness in getting them into the pound, and incline to the belief that in his case Rinker has done the people of the borough, and especially those who use the sidewalks, a meritorious act. Well done Rinker.
—Late on Tuesday night an attempt was made to break into Geritz's jewelry store on Centre Street by two men who succeeded in effecting an entrance from one of the side windows. Mr. Elmer Brunner, who is employed by Mr. Geritz, sleeps in the store and was awakened by the noise. Before they could get fairly in he fired a shot from a revolver and the would-be burglars made their escape. This is the second attempt that has been made on this store within a short time.

Verdicts of the Juries.

On Saturday afternoon acting under instructions from Inspector Jonathan A. Buckley, J. P., empaneled the following jury and held an inquest on the body of Patrick Burke, who was killed at No. 1 Drifton on July 24; Foreman, John M. Powell, 2nd; Evan Woodring, Frank O'Donnell, G. O. Boyle, P. F. McNulty and Edward Kelly, who viewed the body, examined a number of witnesses and rendered the following verdict: That Patrick Burke came to his death in Hazle Township on the 24th day of July, 1889, by being struck with loaded coal cars while standing alongside the track at No. 1 slope, Drifton, caused by the said cars jumping the track, and that said death resulted accidental.

The jury in the case of Michael Niesk, who was killed at Drifton July 23, heard the testimony of several witnesses Thursday afternoon and rendered the following verdict: That Michael Niesk came to his death in Hazle Township on the 23rd day of July, 1889, by being caught between cars, at No. 1 breaker, Drifton, and that the said death resulted through the carelessness of Mike Cellitt and Frank Garrone, in allowing cars to leave the turnout without being coupled, and not having the switches properly turned. And we do further censure the company for not providing some system of safety switch or other apparatus whereby the loaders can be protected under the pockets of the breaker when leading cars, while cars are being run from the turnout.

The Excursion Postponed.

The excursion of the Young Men's T. A. B. Society to Glen Onoko, which was to take place on Saturday last, was postponed until Wednesday, August 7, owing to the inclemency of the weather on the former date. A drizzling rain set in late Friday evening and it hasn't stopped yet, but the weather department at Washington has promised that Wednesday next will be one of the pleasantest days in 1889. This postponement gives the enterprising committee further opportunities to provide for the enjoyment of those attending. A slight change has been made in the time of returning from the Glen. Trains will leave Freeland at 9 a. m. and returning leave Glen Onoko at 8 p. m. For the accommodation of those who wish to return earlier a train will leave at 6 p. m. The fare remains the same, viz., adults, 80 cents; children, 50 cents. Tickets for a trip around the Switchback can be procured from the committee, at the station or on the train for 50 cents. The St. Patrick's cornet band and Depiero's orchestra will accompany the excursion, thus insuring sufficient instrumental and dancing music.

The Examining Board Appointed.

Judge Rice yesterday appointed the miners' examining board for the fourth anthracite district. A perusal of the names will convince anyone acquainted with the mining of coal that the selections are good ones. We are personally acquainted with every member of the board, and know the residences of each, and they will do justice to the positions they are appointed to. Judge Rice's action in this appointment should command for him the approbation of all fair-minded miners in this district. The following are the names and residences of the board, together with the term for which they are appointed:
Three years—Robert Clyde, Hazleton; James Harkins, Drifton; H. F. Weed, Hazleton.
Two years—Thomas Smith, Milesville; Anthony Riley, Mount Pleasant; James Fitzgerald, Beaver Meadow.
One year—Theophilus Gibbon, Drifton; Martin Corrigan, Black Creek; Jas. Thompson, Stockton.

To Aid the Defense Fund.

A ball will be held at the Opera House Friday evening, August 16, for the purpose of aiding the fund now being raised for the defense of Rev. Father McFadden, of Greystone, Ireland, who has been incarcerated in a British dungeon for having the courage to speak words of truth to his people. Let all who love liberty, irrespective of creed or nationality, turn out and make this one of the grandest and most successful financial undertakings of the season.

Druggists Must Register.

To-morrow the ninety days limit of the act passed by the last legislature, entitled House Bill No. 112, is completed. This means that all druggists or pharmacists who do not register their names, as required by the law within 90 days after the time the bill becomes a law, will be amenable to a fine or other punishment for selling drugs. The State Pharmaceutical Examining Board has just sent out notices to the effect and a warning that the law must be complied with. This last bill is a copy of one passed two years ago. Many pharmacists at that time failed to register and it was thought wise to give them another chance and new bill provides especially for them. It does not apply to store keepers who sell the so-called patent medicines. Druggists cannot register their firm names or the name of the company, but each individual, proprietor or clerk must register his name.

—The large store room in the new Osterhook block, Wilkes-Barre, will rent for $4500 per annum.
—The annual excursion of Typographical Union No. 187 of Wilkes-Barre to Glen Onoko will be held on Tuesday.
—More than one-half of the marriage licenses issued in this county are taken out by parties with unpronounceable names.
—Make dry, solid cellar floors before the winter comes by using improved cements. Only 50 cents a sack, delivered by Kline Bros.
—The Newdealer states that Barney Brennan of Wilkes-Barre is furnishing his palatial restaurant in a manner that promises to eclipse all rivals.
—Editor George Maue, of the Hazleton Sentinel, has been elected as a delegate from the fourth representative district to the Republican state convention.

—Scotch Hill, near Plains, was the scene of an extensive cave-in Saturday morning. More than twenty acres of the surface went down, damaging several buildings.
—Sam. B. Price, of the Upper Lehigh Coal Company, who resides at Manch, is being urged to accept the Democratic nomination of Associate Judge of Carbon County.
—Michael Merkle of Minersville, one of the pioneer coal operators of Schuylkill County, was instantly killed Thursday afternoon by the accidental discharge of a rifle which he was cleaning.

—At Hazleton Sunday morning Rev. Wm. P. O'Donnell celebrated his first mass. Large numbers from here were present and St. Gabriel's church was unable to accommodate all who wished to enter.
—The Census Bureau has completed the division of this state for the census to be taken in 1890. Luzerne is in the fifth district, with Monroe, Carbon, Lackawanna, Pike, Susquehanna and Wyoming.

—Dr. J. L. Miner, a prominent member of the Luzerne County Medical Society, died at Wilkes-Barre Saturday. His life was insured for $20,000, in addition to a large amount in mutual and beneficial societies.

—While engine No. 288, of the C. R. R. of N. J., was standing on a siding at Rockport on Monday afternoon waiting for a passenger train to pass, the boiler exploded, severely scalding the engineer, fireman and conductor.
—Politics in upper Luzerne are getting exciting. Campaign clubs are forming and candidates are announcing themselves in rapid succession. Pittston alone has eight citizens who want to be the Democratic nominee for Sheriff.
—Editor Rauch, of the Mauch Chunk Democrat, is about to begin a history of his personal experience in public affairs, during a period of fifty years, as political, journalistic and expert handwriting. When completed it will undoubtedly prove a very interesting work.
—More protection: The employees of the Fishback rolling mill at Pottsville struck on Monday for an increase of wages. A reduction was made in April, which the men accepted under promise of an advance when business became brisker. Business is now good, but the advance didn't come.

—According to an act passed by the last legislature the commissioners of each county are authorized to furnish all the necessary stationery of the county officials, except the sheriff. Formerly, the county officers had to provide their own stationery, and this new act will be saving of several hundred dollars to them, and an additional burden to the county.
—Squire John Gorman, one of the prominent citizens of Hazleton, died suddenly last week, in the 63rd year of his age. He is the father of John A. Gorman, Esq., well known as an active Democratic politician, now holding a position in the Indian Department at Washington. The funeral took place Sunday afternoon, quite a number from this place attending.

—The dates for the holding of the various fairs of this and surrounding counties are as follows: Luzerne, at Wyoming, Sept. 26-27; Carbon, at Lehigh, Oct. 1-4; Lackawanna, at Scranton, Sept. 10-13; Monroe, at Stroudsburg, Sept. 24-28; Schuylkill, at Orwigsburg, Oct. 1-4; Columbia, at Bloomsburg, Oct. 8-12; also at Berwick, Sept. 4-7; Montrose, at Danville, Sept. 24-27; Lehigh, at Allentown, Sept. 23-27.

C. T. A. U. National Convention.

The nineteenth annual convention of the Catholic Total Abstinence Union of America will convene at Cleveland, Ohio, from August 7 to 10. The suggestion that steps be taken to consolidate the Union with the League of the Cross, a European organization which permits moderate drinking, will not be received with much favor, if the opinions of the Pennsylvania delegates represent the feelings of the delegates on this subject. The delegates from this state, it is said, are unanimously opposed to the affiliation.

JEDDO NOTES.

James Carrigan spent Sunday with his friends at Mauch Chunk.
Miss Eliza Williams of Wilkes-Barre is visiting friends at Oakdale.
Misses Bridget and Mary O'Donnell of Phila. visited friends here last week.
G. B. Markle & Co. have about completed the building of two new barns to replace the ones destroyed by fire recently.

A. B. Harkins and Bernard Heeney left last week for Philadelphia, where they have since found employment as brakemen on the P. R. R.

C. T. A. U. Convention.

Acting under instructions from the Rt. Rev. Bishop O'Hara the seventh annual convention of the Scranton C. T. A. U. Union, which terminated so suddenly at Canton on June 22, was re-convened in St. Thomas College building, Scranton, at 9:30 a. m. Tuesday morning. Rev. N. J. McManus, spiritual director of the Union, opened the convention with prayer, after which His Grace, the bishop, made a most eloquent address to the delegates assembled. The principal portion of his address were directed to grievances that had arisen among the members in the past, and in order to avoid any further trouble of a like nature he had appointed a committee of clergymen and laymen whose duty it would be to meet within a reasonable time and formulate a constitution and by-laws for the government of the union that should meet his approbation. At the close of his address he stated that there would be no appeal from the decision of this committee, and if this was not acceptable to the societies he would place them under charge of their respective pastors. The committee consists of Revs. John Finnen, V. G., Pittston; E. J. Phillips, Plains; T. F. Coffey, Carbondale; O'Hara, Wilkes-Barre; J. J. Cummins, Hazleton; and Messrs. D. J. Campbell, Scranton; H. McNiff, Plains; John Keating, Pittston; and Cornelius Mack, Wilkes-Barre. Amidst hearty applause the bishop then withdrew.
Rev. Father O'Hara of Wilkes-Barre was next introduced and spoke at great length. The secretary then called the roll of societies and eighty-eight delegates responded to their names. Two sets of credentials were presented from the Taylorville society. Mr. Jas. F. Judge of the same district, from Taylorville for the adult and cadet societies. The president stated that the cadets of Taylorville were dropped from the roll because they had but two members and that such action had been reported at a Canton convention. They were not admitted.
The work of the convention was then taken up where it was left off, at the division of the parade, and was as follows: First district, from White Haven to Andover; second district, from White Haven to Pittston; third district, Scranton and Dunmore; and that portion of Lackawanna County lying south of Scranton; fourth district, all portions of Lackawanna north of Scranton, including the county; fifth district, all of the diocese north and west of third and fourth districts.
At the afternoon session the officers of the different districts reported parades on October 10, 1889, to be as follows: First district, from White Haven to Andover; second district, from White Haven to Pittston; third district, Scranton and Dunmore; and that portion of Lackawanna County lying south of Scranton; fourth district, all portions of Lackawanna north of Scranton, including the county; fifth district, all of the diocese north and west of third and fourth districts.
The election of delegates to the national convention now took place and resulted as follows: Rev. P. J. McManus, Rev. E. J. Phillips, Rev. Father McAndrews and Charles Lavan. The convention then went into the election of officers, and the following were elected: President, Rev. P. J. McManus, Green Ridge; Vice President, D. J. McCarthy, Freeland; Secretary, C. C. Donovan, Scranton; Treasurer, John A. Collier, Pittston. The office of marsh was assigned and the office of sergeant-at-arms substituted, and the incumbent to be selected from among the delegates in attendance at the conventions. Waverly was selected as the place for holding the next convention.

Weekly Roll of Honor.

The roll of honor for the week ending July 26, in Freeland Select School is: Laura E. Koons, Grete Keislich, Annie Carey, John F. Hartman, Freddie Koons, David Carey, Willard Drasher, Michael Cabbage and Willard Drasher. H. L. EDMUNDS, teacher.

Beat His Wife to Death.

On coming home to supper Friday evening Mark King, a resident of York, found his wife lying helplessly drunk. This so enraged him that he beat her insensibly, causing the blood to ooze from her mouth and nostrils. Becoming alarmed he sent for a physician, who pronounced the woman dead. He then went to Hazleton where he surrendered himself, and at present is in the county jail awaiting trial. The couple were both excessive drinkers and had not lived happily. Mrs. King, who was aged 48 years, was buried at Tamaqua on Monday.

Musical Talent Appreciated.

The Plymouth Star, speaking of the removal of one of our townmen to that place, says: "Rev. John Hague, who has been preaching for the English Baptists for several weeks, has decided to cast his lot with the Plymouth people, and on the first of August he will remove his family to this place. Mr. Hague has a son, John Arthur Hague, who is a skillful musician and an excellent instructor on the piano and organ; also a daughter who is a fine soprano singer, and who has won a number of prizes in musical festivals in Schuylkill County. The young people will therefore prove a valuable addition to the musical society of Plymouth, no doubt."

Pence to His "Ashes."

He lay in cold and solemn sleep. His sudden death was most deep. O youth so fair, what was the cause? Must be decided by the laws. So six good men, all tried and true. Went to his home, the corpse to view. His form was stiff, his visage pale. His mother wept and did bewail. Upon his lips by close inspection. Could be seen minute projection. 'Twas in color a sickly brown. Some called it "hair" and others "down." On every cheek in massive lumps. Tears plunged down by mighty bumps. "Oh! tell me won't you," said friend John, "where, oh! where, is poor Charlie gone?" The coroner spoke in language mild. "As weak and gentle as a child. 'Your loving friend you need not hunt. He's gone to where the ground holds grunt." "Has he been murdered? was he drowned? No marks upon him have been found. Save on his finger tips a stain. A scarlet colored mark so plain." The jurors in united breath. They said "he died an awful death. He broke the laws of etiquette. And smoked the deadly cigarette."

BASE BALL.

—Eleven won and five lost.
—Arthur James, formerly of the Gintlers, is doing great slugging for Tamaqua.
—The man that said Freeland was weak at the bat didn't see Sunday's game.
—The York club, of the Middle States League, will probably be pitted against Freeland on Sunday.
—An attempt is to be made to reorganize the Mauch Chunk club. The new grounds at the Walnut are nearly completed.
—In five consecutive games last week the Phillies had made eighty hits, a record that was never approached by any club yet.
—Catasauqua will play at Summit Hill on the 10th inst. They have discarded the name "Lone Stars," and will be known only as the "Catasauqua club" hereafter.
—The anthracite coal regions should have a representative club in the Middle States League. Hazleton or Shenandoah can't support a good club, so what's the matter with Pottsville?
—Wilkes-Barre lost two good players when John Irwin and Ed. Beecher were sold to Washington on Friday. Their release was purchased mainly through the efforts of Arthur Irwin, captain of the Senators. Beecher will play in right field and Irwin on third. Pitcher Fitzgerald signed with Rochester, and Home Run Flannigan goes to London, Canada.
—The Jersey City club disbanded Saturday, and the Atlantic Association now reduced to six clubs. The club lost $17,000 last year, and has been a steady loser this season. Wilkes-Barre still leads the Association, but is selling its best players. The average attendance in the different cities was no more than 600 or 800, a number which Freeland could double every day in the week.
—Shenandoah will play ball with Freeland. That fact was demonstrated to the satisfaction of four hundred people at the park Sunday afternoon. Tray, Heffernan and McGietigan were compelled to leave the pitcher's box, and as no twirlers remained to share the same fate, Shenandoah willingly gave up the contest at the end of the seventh inning, the score standing 12-2 in favor of Freeland. A better game would probably have been played if the weather had been favorable, but the result could hardly be different judging from the manner the home club hammered the ball.

Who Examined Them?

The collieries of Schuylkill County have been overrun with Poles and Hungarians during the past week who came from Hazleton and Upper Lehigh in search of work. The examination of miners in that section, it is said, has caused a great deal of trouble to this class of people, who have little or no experience in mining.—Ashland Leaf.
It can hardly be possible they left this region on account of the examination of law, as that is not in effect here so far. The examiners of this district were not appointed until yesterday.

Weekly Coal Report.

The anthracite trade continues dull and without any new or especially noteworthy feature. The demand from the West for the domestic coal is slowly improving, and chestnut coal commands a higher price there than can be had for it in the Eastern markets. The recent reduction of 50 cents per ton in the all-rail rate of tolls on anthracite from the mines to Chicago, of which the Pennsylvania Railroad gave advance notice to the other members of the Trunk Line Association and to which out in the rate they demurred, but were compelled to meet it by the action of the Pennsylvania Company, has been brought to the attention of the Trunk Line Executive Committee, who will consider the matter at their next meeting. The Eastern anthracite trade is quiet, and there is now less coal being shipped in that direction on old orders. There is also reported little new inquiry for anthracite from the East. For the fancy high grade red coal the service being exactly 30 was the largest for any week of this year, reaching nearly a million tons, being over ninety thousand tons in excess of the production for the previous week and nearly fifty thousand tons greater than the output in the corresponding week of last year. The query almost everywhere in coal trade circles is: Where is all the anthracite going to? But the answer has not yet been found.
The Lehigh Valley Company has just contracted with the Globe Iron Works of Cleveland, Ohio, for two additional new steel steamships, of 2500 tons carrying capacity each, which are to be built in time for service at the opening of the next spring season. The "Seneca," the last of the triplet steamers of similar character already built for the Lehigh Valley Company, will start on her first voyage in a few days. When completed the five steamers will enable the company next season to operate a rapid high class freight service between Buffalo and Chicago, the steamers sailing from each port on alternate days.
The total amount of anthracite coal sent to market for the week ending July 20th, as reported by the several carrying companies, was 916,211 tons, compared with 833,110 tons in the corresponding week last year, an increase of 47,101 tons. The total amount of anthracite mined thus far in the year 1889 was 17,527,374 tons, compared with 18,578,158 tons for the same period last year, a decrease of 950,784 tons.— Ledger.
