—Do not fail to be present at the Tigers picnic on Saturday evening, June 21st. In the afternoon the Tigers and the Junior Glimers will play a game of ball at the park, and it will be a hot contest, as each club has one game won. Depiero's orchestra will supply the dancing music.
—A communication has been received at this office in regard to the South Heberton school house, but as the matter neglected to sign his name to it, we are compelled to lay it over. We demand the name of the writer of all communications, not for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith.
—Thomas Tolly, a former resident of Hazleton, but for the past four years has resided in England, returned to this country on Monday in company with Messrs. Willet and Turner, of Dudley England; the latter two gentlemen are here for pleasure. Mr. Tolly and his friends are the guests of Mr. Birkbeck. They will make a tour of the States and will visit Niagara Falls before they return to their native country. The gentlemen are delighted with the country as far as they have gone. Mr. Tolly will return to England in a few months and will bring his family with him and take up his residence at Hazleton, and settle down as one of the solid business men of that town.
—The ball held by the Junior Glimers Base Ball Club, of Highland, at Yarnes Opera House on Friday evening, May 29th, was what we predicted—a financial and social success. About a half an hour after the doors were thrown open streams of humanity could be seen flowing in till the spacious ball-room was comfortably filled. After a number of various dances the grand march took place, led by Master of Ceremonies Hugh McGill and Miss Bella McGill, both of Highland, and was participated in by couples. A conspicuous feature of the occasion was the handsome programmes, which were distributed to each and every person present. Credit is due to the different committees who executed the work assigned them in a proper manner. Depiero's orchestra furnished the dancing music.

On the Death of Annie Ulrich.

Lines composed on the death of little Annie Ulrich, who died in the woods, near Upper Lehigh, three years ago:
Darling Annie we have lost thee,
Why didst thou go away?
We have listened for thy foot steps,
But our watch was all in vain.
In the nights these words I uttered—
"O! My child where canst thou be?
Do I hear thy voice calling?
Dear man, do come to me!"
Dear mother, do weep no more;
For me came a shining Angel
And bore me to the other shore,
Where there is no hour of parting,
All in joyful peace and love,
Where are thousands of such children
Singing 'round the throne above.
On that dark night, yes, I wandered,
Where no one could hear my cry;
But that Angel did me reply—
"And these words he did reply—
"For not, my little pilgrim,
"Thou'rt long on mountain high,
Thou art found among the jewels
In the home beyond the sky."
When on earth I was a stranger;
Here is my native land,
With ten thousand white robed Angels
'Round the throne of Christ I stand,
Singing everlasting anthems,
Golden harps within their hands,
Crown of glory upon their foreheads;
O! What sweet and happy land.
O! That night my dearest mother,
As upon the rocks I laid,
Almost crushed, wet and hungered,
Little Annie was laid,
In the morning when I awakened
I turned my eyes up to the sky,
They fall upon the rocky pillars,
Little Annie now must die.
HENRY J. EDWARDS.
Upper Lehigh, May 30, '90.

A Big Tunnel Project.

The Erie Railroad Company has decided to build a tunnel between Forest City and Honesdale, connecting the Carbondale and Honesdale branches, and shortening the distance from New York to Buffalo over fifty miles. The mountain will be tunneled for a distance of thirteen miles and will cost $2,000,000. The work will be commenced as soon as possible. To those who are acquainted with the topography of the country this news will not surprise them, as the project has been under way for many years, and the only serious obstacle to its completion seemed to be its great cost.

The Dead-Lock Broken.

The Plymouth Township School Board met on Monday evening and organized as follows: President, Neal Sweeney; Secretary, Jno. Flynn; Treasurer, Frank Randall. They then took up the business of electing a Township Superintendent of schools, and David B. Gildea was placed in nomination and elected by acclamation. This was a wise move on the part of the directors to take as Mr. Gildea is eminently fitted for the position. During his last term, as their superintendent, he has made wonderful improvements in the schools of that township.

Under the head of reports of borough officers the street commissioner presented his report for work done on the streets for the month of May, 1890, amounting to $196.70. A motion was made and carried that the report be approved and that orders be drawn on the treasurer for the amount.

The report was approved and a motion made that an order be drawn on the treasurer for the amount due to the burgess.
At this stage of the business a question was put as to the advisability of keeping the police force on special duty, the members of council claiming that the expenses were becoming too high. A long discussion followed, but no action was taken on it.
Under the reports of committees the street committee reported that they would visit the street on Tuesday and make report of their findings to the council at a special meeting to be held that night, and requested that the secretary notify Franz Mackl, Civil Engineer, of Mauch Chunk, to attend to the work of laying out the streets, in the portion of the town, that are not graded as soon as he can.
The question of assessing the dogs was spoken of, but no action taken.
B. F. Davis was appointed chief of the Fire Department to serve out the term of Philip Geritz.
The council adjourned to meet at the council room Tuesday evening at 7 p. m.

SPICIAL MEETING.

The council met in special session on Tuesday evening, all the members being present.
The street committee reported having made a tour of the borough and recommended that a crossing be placed at the intersection of Main and Ridge streets, on north side, also one at the intersection of Main and Washington streets, on north side, and that the alley crossing between Main and South streets, on Washington be relaid.
The committee also reported having examined the grade stones of several streets that required to be placed in position so as to enable the property holders to lay their gutters and sidewalks.
The following streets require to have grade stones placed on them: Main street, at the east end, Washington street, at northern end and near borough line, and Centre street, at the north end. They recommended that the service of a competent surveyor be procured to give proper lines and grades, and that the stones be set in the places designated by him. It was agreed to engage Franz Mackl, of Mauch Chunk, to do the work.
Complaint was made that the water coming from the township down Walnut street was causing a great deal of damage by washing dirt and gravel into the gutters, and it was agreed to notify the township supervisor having jurisdiction over that road to turn the water from coming down Walnut street.
The secretary was instructed to order 200 feet of crossing stone from John Danak of White Haven to be sent to the street commissioner for use of the borough.
There being no further business the council adjourned.

Left for Wales.

Mr. Wm. G. Davis, of Drifton, left that place on Monday morning for his native country, Wales; and before leaving he was the recipient of a very flattering testimonial from Supt. Kudlic, which we publish by request.
OFFICE OF COXSE BROS. & CO., DRIFTON, LUZERNE COUNTY, PA.
TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN,
This is to certify that the bearer, Wm. G. Davis, has been in the employ of Coxse Bros. & Co., as a miner, for a term of nine years, and during that time has proved himself to be a faithful and competent workman at any and every kind of work that he was asked to do. Mr. Davis returns to his native country, and should he return to this place at any future time he will be cheerfully re-employed.
Respectfully,
EMERSON KUDLIC,
Mining Engineer.

Decoration Day.

Decoration Day in Freeland passed off quietly. The parade in the afternoon was quite a large one, though the services of the G. A. R. at the cemetery were ponderous on account of rain. The oration to be delivered at Birkbeck's grave near the Freeland cemetery, was transferred, on account of the rain, to Lindsay's hall, where the orator of the day, Mr. Geo. H. Troutman, discoursed to a fair-sized audience. Our town was beautifully decorated throughout the day.

STATE NEWS.

—Ice cream at Jacobs'.
—The Reading Company's Monitor Colliery at Ashland resumed operations on Monday, after five months' idleness.
—A warrant was served on Supt. Phillips, of the Susquehanna Coal Company, on Monday on a charge of manslaughter in connection with the disaster at Plymouth some months ago.
—The fire in the East colliery, in Ashland, has been reached through the shafts, but the extent of it is as yet unknown. Efforts are being made to remove the gas to avert an explosion.
—The water is again being taken out of the South Wilkes-Barre shaft. It is expected that by the end of the week the water will have been lowered enough to allow an expiration of the workings.
—A deposit of black slate, 1800 feet wide and two miles long, has been discovered near Pine Grove Furnace, in the South Mountain, on the lands of the Gettysburg and Harrisburg Railroad.
—The body of a boy about 8 years of age was found floating on the river, near Pittston, on Sunday morning. It was identified as that of Joseph Fagan, of Pine Creek, who was drowned while swimming.
—The annual convention of the Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel Workers was begun in Pittsburg on Tuesday. The most important matter to be considered will be the adoption of a new scale of wages.
—The frame dwelling of Jas. Fogerty, near Ashland, was burned on Tuesday, and Fogerty's 6-year-old son perished in the flames. Four adjoining houses, owned by John Carl and Peter Joyce, were also destroyed. Loss, $12,000.
—Peter Rice on Saturday evening attempted to ascend the Dobson shaft, near Pottsville, by clinging to the bucket, but the rope broke and he fell back fifty feet. Though no bones were broken, it is feared he has sustained fatal internal injuries.
—A charter was granted at the State Department in Harrisburg, on Tuesday, to the Plate Top Railroad Company, to run a railroad 17 miles in length, from the head of Young Woman's Creek, in Potter county, to North Bend, in Clinton county; capital, $100,000.
—Annie Benton, the 12-year-old girl, who, when found on a P. & R. train at Tamaqua on February 17, claimed to be near Ulen, in Luzerne county, and who was adopted by Joseph Rook, who lives two miles from Williamsport, left her home without known cause on Monday. Her destination is equally a mystery.
—Alice Stettler, a widow, aged 17, has been taken to the Allentown jail on the charge of horse stealing. On Sunday while passing the house where a funeral was going on she picked out one of the best of the many teams that were hitched around the premises and, quickly jumping into it, drove off. She was pursued and captured.

Weekly Coal Report.

The anthracite companies' general sales agents met at New York on Tuesday, May 27, and agreed to make an advance of 25 cents per ton in the price of streets that will be in effect on the 15th of June, which took effect last Monday. This advance in the circular prices resulted in a number of tardy dealers placing orders for coal at old prices, fearing they might have to pay the full advance if they delayed further. Otherwise there is nothing new in the condition of the anthracite coal trade to note this week. There is not much activity, excepting in the movement of coal from the mines to tide-water and from thence to the distribution points in the East, and West. It has also been agreed by the producing interests to mine only 2,750,000 tons of anthracite this month, and the representatives of the several companies have renewed their promises to not overshoot their respective quotas of the allotment. The observance of Decoration Day throughout the anthracite fields curtailed the output of coal last week.
The Engineering and Mining Journal, in its weekly review of the situation of the anthracite trade at New York, says: "A feeling of stability and confidence reigns over all. The broken week has made things a little dull, the lost day having reduced the amount of shipping somewhat. It is probable that the increased rates will have their effect in slackening the output of a little while, and the bulk of the deliveries for the first week or two in June will undoubtedly be at the old rates, though in the general market the new rates will prevail. Several large operators professed themselves unable to understand the rise in rates simultaneously with the increased output. It is explained by the increase in anticipated shipments and by the fact that several of the large companies have considerably reduced their stocks towards the end of the month, as was anticipated in this report. During the week ending May 24 the production fell off fully 500,000 tons, and it has fallen off still more this week, which adjusts the apparent discrepancy between the production up to the 17th or 18th instant and the estimated production for the month. The increase of 200,000 tons in June over May may appear large, but when it is remembered that the output for June last year was 3,330,000 tons it will be seen that there is nothing to be alarmed about. There will be a still further increase in July, owing to the demand for ships to bring ice from Maine, which is likely to continue all summer, coal shipping is slow, though the rates have not stiffened appreciably. Captains frequently refuse to wait for coal freights when they can get nearly 50 per cent. more for a short ton for carrying ice. Besides this, ice freights have advanced and continue advancing, which is expected to have such an effect on coal shippers that they will try and accumulate shipping stocks, so that they can avail themselves of empty ships without keeping them waiting and letting them slip away. The prices of anthracite for June will be demanded by the big companies as follows: Stove $3.75, chestnut and egg $3.50, broken $3.35."

The Contest to Close.

The contest for a mine compass between David James, of Eckley, and P. M. Boyle, of Drifton, for the benefit of the Catholic Church, at Eckley, will close on August 15th, and on that date the ladies of the parish will hold an evening festival for the refreshment and enjoyment of their anticipated visitors. The contest will come off in St. Mary's hall, Eckley. The public are cordially invited to be present.
By order of the committee.
