The Association, at a meeting held on Sunday afternoon, passed a vote of thanks to the Pioneer Dram Corps for being present, to the young ladies who assisted them at the party and to the cream stand and to each and every one who extended a helping hand to make their picnic a success. They also tender their thanks to Mr. O'Connell for not charging them for the lumber which he left standing on the grounds from the last picnic in order to accommodate them. The Depierre's orchestra furnished the dancing music.
Wandered From Home.
—The 3-year old son of Patrick Boyle, a section hand on the L. V. R., living at Foundryville, near Eckley, wandered away from home on Sunday morning after his mother had gone to church. Upon her return the child was missed and searching parties scoured the woods until late last evening, finding any trace of the child. The search was resumed on Monday morning and participated in by nearly the whole of the working force on the gravel train, assisted by Wm. Seiwel, Coal and Iron Politician, who succeeded in finding the little wanderer about 3 o'clock that afternoon, standing near a tree about half a mile from his home on the left hand side of the railroad, between Foundryville and Jeddo. When found he was unable to speak and his feet and face scratched, otherwise he was all right. The child was at once returned to his parents.
Flag Raising.
—The committee in charge of the ungarling of our country's flag on July 4th, 1890, at St. Ann's Convent School, have sent the following invitation to all the societies in Freeland and vicinity:
GENTLEMEN:—You are most cordially invited to participate with the members of St. Ann's Catholic Total Abstinence Societies of Freeland and Drifton in raising and unfurling to the breeze the nation's flag at St. Ann's Convent School at 1 o'clock p. m., on the nation's natal day, the 4th of July, 1890. We ask your hearty co-operation and trust that you will honor us with your presence. An early answer will enable us to designate the position of your society in the line of march. The entire programme will be made known in ample time through the public press.
Yours sincerely,
FRANK McLAUGHLIN, Committee in Charge.
ANDREW FURRY, In Charge.
JOHN McCOLE, In Charge.
As this is a move in the right direction, we hope Freeland will do her best to make this demonstration a grand success. This is not a political move, neither is it a sectarian one, but it is one that all classes of citizens can join in and pay their respects to that flag that shelters and gives liberty to the down trodden of every clime, once they become subjects beneath its folds.
Murderer Moss Found Guilty.
—"Guilty of murder in the first degree" was the verdict of the jury in the case of George W. Moss, the wife murderer of Wilkes-Barre. This case was commenced on Thursday last and continued until Saturday evening, when it was given to the jury who rendered the above verdict on Sunday morning. The murder with which Moss was charged was committed last October. Some time before the shooting he had been arrested and sent to jail for abusing his wife. On being released from jail he purchased a revolver and, in order to get revenge for being put in jail, went to his home with the intent of killing his wife and then himself, but was unsuccessful in the latter part. Strenuous efforts were made by the counsel for the defendant to save his life on the plea of insanity, but this was regarded of little weight. The principal witnesses against the defendant were his own immediate family, who were present at the time of the shooting. The prisoner has not yet been sentenced.
The Place to Get Your Clothing.
I. Reiforwich, the clothing merchant and gents' furnisher, is at No. 37 Centre street, Freeland, with a stock of goods, that for quality, cannot be surpassed in this region. Hats, Caps, Boys' and Men's Clothing a special feature. A large stock of suits made to order for $25.00 reduced to $17.00. This is a saving to persons of limited means over ready-made clothing. Clothing made to order by experienced workmen at short notice and at the lowest prices. A large stock of piece goods to select from. Ready-made clothing of all sizes and styles.
The Big Attraction
For all to see is the free for all outside exhibition of Prof. Van Vranken and his educated troupe that takes place on the show grounds on the return of the free street paving. It will be a great succession of free shows that all should see. Bear these important features in mind and don't miss anything. The day is set apart for your enjoyment, so make ready. The show will be here to-morrow.

Schmidt-Sweitzer.
Rev. Nelson F. Schmidt, of Schwenksville, and Miss Eva E. Sweitzer, of this city, were married on Thursday evening, June 19, at six o'clock. Rev. J. H. Schmidt, of Freeland, father of the groom, and Rev. S. G. Wagner, of Drifton, the bride's pastor, officiated. The nuptials were solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. K. Sweitzer, at Tenth and Maple streets. Between fifty and sixty friends crowded the parlor, in which the wedding took place. The room was lavishly decorated by the bride's young lady friends. An umbrella of ferns and daisies was over the heads of the couple during the marriage ceremony. The mantle was banked with ferns and flowers. The pictures were festooned and vines trailed along the doors. There were no bridesmaids and groomsmen. The ushers were Harry Sweitzer, brother of the bride; Samuel Stahr, of Philadelphia; Ralph J. Metzger and A. H. Boyer. The bride wore a dress of cream mohair, accented with a gold brooch and a cluster of daisies, which was the wedding gift of the groom. A reception followed the ceremony, when refreshments were served. Mr. and Mrs. Schmidt left during the evening for Philadelphia, New York and up the Hudson. They will return this week to Schwenksville, where a house has been furnished for their occupancy. The friends present at the ceremony from other places were Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Schmidt and daughter Lulu, parents and sister of the groom from Freeland, Luzerne county; Samuel and Anna Metzger, of Philadelphia, and Rev. E. T. Kretschmann, of Trappe. The bride received very many beautiful gifts, which were displayed in an up-stairs room last Thursday evening. She was one of Allen's most amiable young ladies and graduated from the high school in '87. The groom graduated from Muhlenberg College, in '88.—Allentown Item.

Hartman Steinhilber and family have moved to South Heberton.
James Mayor spent a few days in Freeland last week calling on friends.

Mrs. Daniel Roarty and Mrs. John O'Donnell, of this place, were visiting friends at Summit Hill last week.
Eckley Cornet Band are practicing quick steps, gallops, quadrilles and other music for the 4th of July.
Eckley Base Ball Club's record for the season is 5 won and 1 lost. This is a record that the boys should feel proud of.
John Lavelle has moved to Silver Brook. John is a great ball player, and the Eckley Club feels down-hearted since he left.
Michael Degan, who has been living here for a number of years and was respected by everybody, has taken up his residence at Highland.
George Vanauker, of White Haven, has received the contract to paint the residence of Rev. Father Brehony and also the church building.
Eckley has some of the best base ball talent to be had in the region, and there is no reason why she should not put a strong amateur team in the field next season.
Frank Johnson, the efficient manager of the Terrors Base Ball Club, has added another charm to himself in the shape of a handsome muscacha, which he is trying to raise, and from all appearances he will succeed.
Every member of the base ball association are requested to be at the grounds every evening this week to finish the work of clearing the diamond. All outside parties are cordially invited. By order of the committee.
Samuel Klingerman and Maunus McFadden, two of the catchers who had their hands injured in the game with Silver Brook, are getting better and it is hoped that they may soon be able to play ball again, as they are two first-class players.
Mr. Hugh McGill, of Highland, has dropped off the Eckley Base Ball list and has been signed by our Eckley Club. With Hugh as catcher and Fernau pitcher our boys will have a strong battery. He will play his first game with the boys next Sunday at Jeddo with the Kickers.
There were two Hungarian weddings in town on Saturday evening, and all of the friends of the parties for miles around were invited. The music for dancing was furnished by a Hungarian orchestra from Freeland. Beer and "Polinski" flowed in abundance, and some of our native young men were not averse to taking a little of it even if it came out of a washboiler, but, as is always the case, the beer got the best of them and our nice young men had to be assisted home in a helpless condition.
About 300 people assembled on the ball grounds last Sunday afternoon to witness the game between Lattimer and Eckley, but as Lattimer failed to show up the game was awarded to Eckley by a score of 9 to 0. The audience were in no mood to be cheated out of a game, so a game was arranged between the 1st and 2nd clubs of Eckley, and a very exciting game it was. Fernau and Shearon acted as battery for the Second nine, while John Shearon and McCole acted as battery for the First nine. The score stood 3 to 6 in favor of the Second nine.
Our town was thrown into a state of excitement last Sunday morning when it became known that a small boy, 3 years old, son of Patrick Boyle, of Foundryville, had strayed away from home. Searching parties were immediately organized and commenced to scour the woods in all directions. Parties with lanterns were out all night. The collieries were thrown idle on Monday, and all the employees of Coxie Bros. & Co., together with the track men of the L. V. R. R., hunted the woods until near three o'clock in the afternoon, when John Denion found the child in the swamp between Foundryville and Jeddo. The news rapidly spread that the child was found and he was at once given to his overjoyed parents. The child is still ill, but will recover.

STATE NEWS.
—Ice cream at Jacobs'.
—For bargains in paints, room moulding, calico and wall paper, call on A. A. Bachman, opposite H. C. Koons.
—The employees of the McKee Brothers' flint glass works, at Jenette, have struck because the firm employed a non-union man from Rochester, New York. About 400 men are idle and the works have closed.
—The miners in the Phillipsburg, Beech Creek and Osceola bituminous districts, have prepared a circular demanding of the mine operators a higher scale of prices, with increased pay for "dead" work.
—The Republican state convention which met at Harrisburg yesterday nominated George Wallace Delamater, of Crawford County, for governor and L. A. Watres, of Schanton, for lieutenant governor and Thomas Stewart for secretary of internal affairs.
—George Chianell, formerly of Ashland, but now a resident of Luzerne county, has accepted the challenge to run any man in Schuylkill county from a half mile to three miles for $300. George Caton, of Mahanoy City, is the first person to come to the front and offer to accept the challenge.—Ashland Record.
—The unfortunate men in the Hill Farm Mine, at Dunbar, imprisoned since Monday last week, have not been rescued. The rescuers are working night and day, but do not know the distance yet to be passed before gaining an entrance to the mine. Only the most sanguine believe that the imprisoned men are still alive, and the families and friends of the victims are gradually giving way to despair.
—The engine, baggage, express and Pullman cars and two passenger coaches of an express train on the Reading Railroad ran off the track at Tuckerton, five miles beyond Camden, Monday morning. The engine, baggage-car and one passenger coach were wrecked. Lewis F. Heller, engineer, was killed, and his brother, George Heller, fireman, was mortally injured. Three other train hands were injured, but not fatally, and all passengers in the cars had a cut shrapnel. The disaster was caused by an open switch.
—While Jno. Anderson and Joe Smith, two young men of Wilkes-Barre, were returning from Harvey's Lake on Sunday evening, driving a single horse, they were stopped by three masked men who jumped from the bushes on the side of the road and presenting pistols demanded their money. One of the robbers held the horse while his two companions attempted to get into the carriage, but its two occupants, though unarmed, succeeded in keeping them out. The robber, who was holding the horse, seeing his two associates unable to get into the carriage left go his hold and fired a shot into the rig but did no damage. The horse took fright at the shot and being free, dashed down the road, and thus saved the lives of the two young men.

Weekly Coal Report.
The anthracite markets both in the East and West are reported quiet, and little activity is expected until after the 4th of July. There is considerable coal being moved on orders placed during April and May at the then ruling prices, but there is not a great deal of new business doing at the June circular figures. Some of the individual operators report they have recently been booking many orders for the saleable sizes at satisfactory prices, but the larger companies are asking the net June circular prices, and while some of them are accepting contracts at prices closely approximating these figures, others are declining orders for immediate delivery at less than the full net prices. The general sales agents of the anthracite corporations will meet on Tuesday to agree upon the quantity of coal to be mined in the month of July and to increase the selling prices if possible.
Evidence multiplies that the anthracite coal trade is getting into very much better shape. In our statement of net earnings for the month of April the group of coal roads show a larger percentage of gain than any other. And the figures for production, stocks, &c., for the month of May, which has just been published by Mr. John H. Jones, the Chief of the Bureau of Anthracite Coal Statistics, are also very favorable in their nature. In the first place, there has been a further reduction in stocks at tidewater shipping points, reducing the amount to 719,939 tons, against a total of 1,026,107 tons on January 1. With this reduction tidewater stocks now stand lower than at the corresponding date of any recent year. Thus while the present total is 719,939 tons, on June 1, 1889, it was 962,066 tons; on June 1, 1888, 812,425 tons, and on June 1, 1887, it was 942,203 tons. It is also well to note that the month's production was in excess of the corresponding month of other years. The amount of coal, passing out on a large scale, in point of fact, the consumption was nearly 200,000 tons greater than in the same month last year, which, of course, is an especially satisfactory feature, as it indicates that the consumers and retail dealers are laying in supplies and replenishing stocks under the inducement of the prevailing prices.
The total amount of anthracite coal sent to market for the week ending July 14th, as reported by the several carrying companies, was 823,415 tons, compared with 754,555 tons in the corresponding week last year, an increase of 88,862 tons. The total amount of anthracite mined thus far in the year 1890 was 12,669,486 tons compared with 12,855,903 tons for the same period last year, a decrease of 186,057 tons.—Ledger.
