Delamater in Freeland.

On Monday afternoon Candidate Geo. W. Delamater came to town from Hazleton, where he acted as chairman of the oneidoff at that place Monday evening. He was accompanied by Messrs. Markle, Trotman and Roderick, of Hazleton, and held an impromptu reception at the Cottage Hotel. Many of the local lights of both parties called upon him and were pleasantly entertained. The Knights of the Golden Eagle Band, which was on its way to Hazleton, delivered a few selections in honor of the candidate. Mr. Delamater appeared somewhat careworn and tired, owing probably to the extensive personal canvass which is compelling him to make. A movement to have Delamater address a Republican mass meeting at this place in the course of a month or two is spoken of.

Killed at Hazle Brook.

George Kormany, a Hungarian miner, working at the shaft between Hazle Brook and the Lumber Yard, was instantly killed on Friday by a piece of coal falling on him. He was barring some loose coal out of the face of the work when the piece above him slipped down without any warning and struck him on the back, crushing the lower part of his body fearfully. The men who were loading the coal were over twenty yards away from him. He was a married man, aged 33 years, and leaves a wife and one child. He was considered to be a very experienced miner, far more so than the average of his countrymen, and as such was selected for the work he was engaged in, having held a miner's certificate. His funeral took place on Sunday afternoon, interment in the Greek Catholic cemetery at Freeland.

To Mountain Park.

Take a vacation. Change is rest. A day of travel, of new sights and scenes, will rest the mind more than a week of laziness at home with little to divert the mind from its usual occupations. How can this be done? By going to Mountain Park next Saturday with the Odd Fellows Relief Association's third annual picnic and excursion from Upper Lehigh and White Haven. Take your families along and forget your home cares for one day at least. The excursion promises to be very large. Depierro's orchestra will accompany the excursion and supply the dancing music at the park. Tickets for sale at Jos. Neuburger's and W. J. Getz's.

Died at Wilkes-Barre.

Bartholmey Dash, father of Paul Dash, of Upper Lehigh, died at Wilkes-Barre on Saturday. Mr. Dash was aged 75 years. The funeral took place on Tuesday afternoon from his late residence, 303 South Main Street, Wilkes-Barre. Interment in Hollenback cemetery. Quite a number of relatives and friends from Upper Lehigh and Freeland attended the funeral.

Technical Violation of the Mine Law.

The hearing in the case of Daniel McDonald, a mine foreman in the employ of the D. & H. Co., charged with violating the mine law, took place before Alderman Donohue, last Friday evening, at Wilkes-Barre. It appears that McDonald employed D. O. Pritchard, lately of Highland, as a miner without the latter having a miner's certificate, although he had a foreman's certificate which was produced, and it was on the strength of the certificate McDonald hired Pritchard, thinking of course that if a man held a foreman's certificate he was competent to mine coal. But the law said otherwise. As it was thought Mr. McDonald had not wantonly violated the law, the case was dismissed upon his promise to hire no more men without a miner's certificate.

Election of Officers.

At a regular meeting of the St. Patrick's Beneficial Society No. 103 of the I. C. B. held on Sunday, August 17, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:
President—Thomas A. Buckley.
Vice President—John H. O'Donnell.
Secretary—Patrick H. Hanlon.
Assistant Secretary—Condy O. Boyle.
Treasurer—Dominick O'Donnell.
Messengers—John W. McCarthy.
Marshal—Wm. A. Mulhearn.
Trustees—Jas. O'Donnell, 1st, Condy Boyle, 1st, George Krommes.
Stewards—Wm. Marley, Jas. O'Donnell, 1st, Jno. McNamee, Thos. Mulhearn, Hugh McMenamin, Peter McDevitt, P. J. McGovern, James McDermott, Charles McGill.

The Secretary's report shows that the sum of $982.00 were paid for benefits last year.

A One Hundred Dollar Foot Race.

The foot race between Dougherty and Coleman came off at Eckley on Saturday last and was witnessed by over four hundred people. The distance was about 100 yards and the stakes were $25.00 a side. Promptly at 6.30 p. m. both men appeared on the scratch, and at the snap of a pistol made the start. Coleman taking the lead and maintaining it until the first sixty yards were covered, when Dougherty took the lead and held it until the finish, winning by a yard.
Hugh Denton acted as stakeholder, James Shearon and Jed Murphy as referees, with John Evans as pistol firer. Bets were freely made, the feeling being slightly in favor of Dougherty. Coleman's friends were not slow with their money, and quite a pile of it changed hands.
Arrangements have been completed for another race of one hundred yards between the same parties. This race will take place at Hazleton on October 15, and the stakes are $100 a side.

The Place to Get Your Clothing.

I. Reiforwich, the clothing merchant and gents' furnisher, is at No. 37, Centre street, Freeland, with a stock of goods, that for quality, cannot be surpassed in this region. Hats, Caps, Boys' and Men's Clothing special feature. A large stock of suits made to order for $25.00 reduced to $17.00. This is a saving to persons of limited means over ready-made clothing. Clothing made to order by experienced workmen at short notice and at the lowest prices. A large stock of piece goods to select from. Ready-made clothing of all sizes and styles.

Wilkes-Barre's Great Calamity.

At five o'clock Tuesday afternoon the most terrible cyclone that was ever experienced in this State struck Wilkes-Barre. From what point it originated is not known. The suddenness of its coming was one of its most awful features. The heavens were as black as night and the wind blew with most frightful velocity. Whole rows of trees were blown down. Following this hundreds of houses were unroofed, partially blown over or completely demolished, and worse than all, the visitation of death was sent upon a number of people.

Large districts in several sections of the city are in absolute ruin, and the damage will reach over one and a half million dollars. Passenger trains and locomotives at the depot were blown over, and everywhere in the city electric light, telephone and telegraph poles are down. The devastation is to be compared with nothing in the memory of the oldest inhabitants.

Four men are known to have been killed in the Hazard Wire Rope Works. A house on Scott street fell in and three of the inmates were killed. The huge stack of the Kyle planing mill fell on a man and two horses and all were killed. Two little colored girls were killed by a falling building on South Main street. Two men suffered death by the falling of a portion of Stegmaier's brewery, and a third incurred the same fate through the almost complete demolition of S. L. Brown's business block on East Market street.

The latest account places the loss of life at seventeen. Several persons from here visited the scene yesterday. Many poor people have suffered heavy losses, and the scene which they had invested in homesteads were wiped out in ten minutes. Building mechanics of all kinds can find employment there for weeks to come, as it is already known that fully 200 buildings have been blown down or otherwise damaged. Many of the structures were of large size and great value.

SOME OF THE LOSSES.

Approximate losses only can be given, as follows: Hazard Wire Rope Works, $25,000; S. L. Brown, $20,000; St. Mary's Catholic Church, $15,000; Malinkrodt Convant, $3,000; Murray Shaft, $10,000; Hollenback Shaft, $5,000; White Haven Ice Co., $8,000; Lehigh Valley Depot, $2,000; Pennsylvania Railroad Company's Round House, $3,000; Alhorn's Pork Packing House, $5,000; Paine's Oil House, $3,000; Manufacturing Co., $3,000. In addition to these hundreds of citizens have suffered losses running from $500 to $5,000.

BASE BALL.

—The Soapies defeated Harleigh on the latter's grounds on Saturday. Score, 22-16.
—Lebanon and York (better known as the Cuban Giants) play at Wilkes-Barre on Labor Day.

—The Upper Lehigh club was defeated at Sandy Run on Saturday by the score of 8 to 2.

—A very important meeting of the Freeland Base Ball Association will be held at Miller's Hall to-morrow evening.

—Rain stopped the Young America-Gimlet game at Highland on Sunday in the third inning. The score was 8-1 in favor of the Gimlets.

—Saturday morning the Tigers leave for Summit Hill, where they will play with the team at that place and add another to their long string of conquests.

—The New York and Philadelphia Players' League clubs play at Tamaqua on October 18. A little management could bring those two teams to play an exhibition game here about that time. It would pay.

—The appearance of the Freeland club in three double uniforms on Sunday was quite a contrast to Allentown, which showed up to perfection before the game in the neat uniforms of the lately disbanded Inter-State club.

HAZLETON BADLY BEATEN.

The Drifton club put up a strong game Saturday afternoon and in the presence of a fair audience defeated Johnny McGeehan's aggregation of ball tossers from Hazleton. Welch and Mulvey occupied the points for Drifton, and Hughes and Bellas did the battery work for their opponents. Much reliance was placed on Hughes by the visitors, but Drifton found no difficulty in sizing up his shots and putting them down. Welch, which pitched in his usual fine form and Hazleton made but six runs.

ALLENTOWN WASN'T IN IT.

For two hours and thirty-five minutes last Sunday the eight hundred spectators at the park were treated to an exhibition of "yellow" ball playing. The Allentown club made a favorable impression while at practice, and a good, sharp game was expected. Instead of this they became the victims of a "bottle" after the first inning and when they succeeded in casting off the spell in the eighth Freeland's score was up in the teens. The fielding of the home club at times was much below the average, but they did some very good work at the bat, Jennings and Boyle carrying off the honors in that line. Freeland opened the game and brought in one run in the first inning. When the visitors got their turn to use the stick they started off at a winning gallop and gauged Welch's delivery for five hits and the same number of runs before being retired. Freeland's second brought them nothing, while Allentown added one more, making the score 6-1 in their favor. But it was in this inning the visitors' troubles began. Cather Jennings took a hand in the game about this time and through his brilliant coaching a victory was won. One after another of the Allentown players fell victims to his captivating voice, and during the next six innings they showed what they didn't know about playing ball. One in the third inning, four in the fourth, seven in the fifth, two in the sixth and one in the seventh is the order in which the sixteen runs were made by Freeland. Allentown added two more to their score in the eighth, giving them a total of eight. Three twirlers were in the box for the visitors, but none of them could do anything to evade the slaughter. With the exception of the first inning Welch pitched a very steady game.

—Call at George Wise's Sadlery and Harness Store and examine his new and snappy stock of Fly Nets. Prices away down.

Luzerne Prohibitionists in Convention.
The Prohibitionists of Luzerne county met in convention Saturday morning and afternoon to nominate candidates for the county offices. Thirty members were present in the morning and fifteen in the afternoon. After the convention was called to order and the various officers elected the following ticket was nominated: Additional Law Judge, Agib Ricketts. Mr. Ricketts asked to be allowed to tender his resignation, but this was refused and he was nominated by acclamation. For congress, Benj. Hardin, of Pittston; County Treasurer, C. H. Cool, Pittston; Register of Wills, J. C. F. Jenkins, of Plymouth, Commissioners, J. C. Rhone, Noah Pettibone; Auditors, Fred. Hiller, W. W. Lance.

Weekly Coal Report.
The aspect of the anthracite coal trade continues discouraging, and matters are dragging along in a fashion that gives little satisfaction to operators. The public are not buying coal and the market becomes more and more overstocked. This week there has been a radical movement for reduced output. Besides the collieries that have been shut down, the Feast of the Assumption on Friday made an almost universal holiday in the Schuylkill region. This will shorten production for all the companies, and particularly for the Reading and Lehigh Valley Railroads which have been the heaviest miners and shippers. There is absolutely no change in the anthracite situation or outlook since last week. What the trade wants is a wave of arctic weather that will induce consumers to buy coal, and until something like it comes and creates a buying movement the congested condition of the coal market will continue. Even the coal agents are affected by the prevailing stagnation, for they seem to have intermitted their usual meetings to go through the farce of pretending to advance prices that will not stay up. It appears from Statistician Jones's figures that the July allotment was but slightly exceeded, 5,310,978 tons being mined when the allotment was 5,2 millions. Yet the company could hardly market this, and a careful investigation shows a slight increase in the amount at the shipping ports at the close of July compared with the beginning of the month, and that there was about 600,000 tons of coal less marketed in July than in July, 1889, while production this year is only 282,818 tons behind the same date last year. The policy now being pursued seems to be the limiting of the aggregate production to an average of about 125,000 tons per day.

The total amount of anthracite coal sent to market for the week ending August 9, as reported by the several carrying companies, was 796,445 tons, compared with 785,339 tons in the corresponding week last year, an increase of 11,106 tons. The total amount of anthracite mined thus far in the year 1890 was 19,679,008 tons compared with 19,961,826 tons for the same period last year, a decrease of 282,818 tons.—Ledger.

A Monument to Phillip Ginter.

A meeting to formulate a programme for the celebration of the 100th anniversary of the discovery of anthracite coal by Phillip Ginter, was held in Summit Hill Tuesday evening. The meeting was held in pursuance of a resolution of the Town Council of Summit Hill Borough, declaring that this important event in the history of Pennsylvania is duly celebrated. The proposed commemoration contemplates the erection of a monument to Ginter and an imposing demonstration at its completion in September, 1891.

At the meeting Tuesday night representative citizens from Mauch Chunk, Lansford and Summit Hill were present. Among other interesting letters favoring the project was one from Hon. Eckley B. Coxe, who expressed himself much pleased that the movement had been inaugurated, and promised to aid it in every way in his power. It was decided that the Town Council of Summit Hill be the executive committee and have entire supervision of the celebration; also, that there shall be a general committee, representative of the anthracite coal region of the Lehigh Valley. Of this latter committee W. D. Zelmer, of Lansford, was made chairman.

Another meeting will be held in the Court House, at Mauch Chunk, on Thursday, August 28, when the membership of the committee will be completed.
