A Chinaman Who Fought for Us.

A Chinaman Who Fought for Us. Edward Day Cahota has the unique distinction of being the only pure-blooded Mongolian who served in the war of the rebellion. In 1857 Captain Sergeant Day, of Gloucester, Mass., purchased him at Shanghi for twenty-one Mexican silver dollars. He was the but 6 years old and received his name after that of his master and the vossel over which he was captain. Ed-ward was given to him as a convenient handle. Returning to this country Capt. Day placed Cahota in the public schools at Gloucester where he was re-eeving a good education when the war began. Cahota then enlisted, serving until the end and at all times display-ing unwonted bravery. At the end of the war he enlisted for eight years in the regular army, subsequently settling on a ranch in Colorado. He has since acquired fortune and recently returned irom Europe where he had been on a wedding trip. His wife is a German lady of good family.
