

FREELAND TRIBUNE.

VOL. III. No. 28.

FREELAND, PA., THURSDAY, JANUARY 1, 1891.

$1.00 PER YEAR.

BRIEF ITEMS.

—Happy New Year.
—Something new—1891
—Firemen's ball on the 16th.
—Good weather for sleighing.
—"Nobody's Claim" on the 8th.
—The bargain season is coming.
—Who will be the next Burgess?
—What are the prospects for '91?
—Prophecy predict a hard winter.
—Is business dull? Try advertising.
—Did you make a good record in '90?
—Will you keep your new resolutions?
—Washington's birthday is the next holiday.
—Was the past year one of joy or sorrow to you?
—Go to Kline Bros. mill for your flour, chop, hay, oats, etc.
—Tickets for the firemen's ball can be obtained of the members of the committee.
—The regular monthly meeting of the borough council will be held next Monday evening.
—The choir of St. Ann's Church was tendered a sleigh ride by Rev. F. P. McNally yesterday.
—That 1891 will be a happy and prosperous year to all our readers and patrons is the New Year's greeting the TRIBUNE gives forth.
—Rev. D. W. Jones, of Crozer Theological Seminary, will preach in English in Lindsay's Hall, Freeland, next Sunday at 6 p. m.
—Holiday visitors in town are numerous, and many a fireside was brightened by the presence of some long-absent friend or relative.
—Louis Hartman, of South Heberton, aged about 50 years, died on Sunday. The remains were interred at Eckley Tuesday afternoon.
—The Salvation Army has leased Donop's Hall and a branch will be located here as soon as the necessary preparations are completed.
—Rev. William Davis, of Nanticoke, will preach at the Welsh Baptist Church of Upper Lehigh next Sunday at 10:30 a. m., and at 6 p. m. in English.
—"To remember the poor and needy" is a good resolution to make to-day, but let this remembrance assume the shape of something substantial and palatable.
—At an early hour this morning the restaurant and saloon of Wm. R. Jeffreys was placed under charge of the new proprietor, Daniel Bonner. Mr. Bonner invites his friends to give him a New Year call.
—Daniel Bonner and Miss Mary Mellon, both of Freeland, were married at St. Ann's Church on Christmas by Rev. M. J. Fallis. The young couple start out in life with the best wishes of all their many friends.
—A farewell was tendered to John Turnbach on Saturday evening at the Cottage Hotel by the employees of the Drifton Shops. Mr. Turnbach enters upon his duties as clerk in the Treasurer's office on Monday.
—The secretaries of the various beneficial, social and secret societies of the section will confer a favor upon the TRIBUNE and the members of the organizations by sending a list of the newly-elected officers to this office for publication.
—Are you a candidate for nomination at the Freeland or Foster convention next month? If so, let the voters know you're out. Put your name in the TRIBUNE and every citizen in the borough and township will soon hear of your aspirations.
—The TRIBUNE this week makes its appearance a few hours earlier than usual. This is done that the employees may enjoy the holiday properly. As the paper goes to press the ball of St. Ann's Pioneer Corps is assuming a brilliant aspect.
—Jos. J. Dowling and Miss Sadie Hanson, in their new version of "Nobody's Claim," are given high praise by persons who have seen them in their respective roles. Two weeks ago the company closed a successful engagement at the National Theatre, Philadelphia.
—The members of the Freeland Citizens' Hose Company are making strenuous efforts to make their annual ball, which occurs on the 16th inst., a grand success. A large number of invitations have been sent out to neighboring companies, and a good time is expected.
—Hon. James A. Sweeney has severed his connection with the Plain Speaker, and will take a position at Harrisburg under the incoming administration. By the way, the Speaker has lost a good man, but Jim's course is "onward and upward," and the TRIBUNE wishes him success while climbing the slippery ladder of fame.
—The election of next month has not yet awakened the usual annual patriotism which generally pervades the hearts of many citizens at this time of the year. Candidates in the borough are exceedingly modest in announcing their claims. Certain folks, however, smile a peculiar smile and intend to lay low until election day, when strange things will come to pass.
—Fair and Festival.
A fair and festival for the benefit of the Welsh Baptist Church, of Woodside, will be held at Donop's Hall, Freeland, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, January 14, 15, 16 and 17, 1891. Refreshments will be served to ticket-holders, and they can take supper or oysters. Tickets are 25 cents each.
—Trustees Meet.
The Board of Trustees appointed by Governor Beaver for the Hazleton Miners' Hospital, met at the Hospital building Saturday last for the purpose of effecting an organization. The whole of the members being present, the following officers were elected: President, Eckley E. Cox; Vice President, James H. Roark; Secretary, J. H. Hadenbach; Treasurer, David Clarke. A large number of applications for positions in the hospital were received, but no appointments were made, the trustees preferring to view the Ashland Hospital and similar institutions before making any appointments.

Killed Instantly in the Mines.

Patrick Moy, 16 years old, employed at the Green Mountain Colliery of Cox & Bros. & Co., met his death instantly while at work on Saturday. The boy was engaged as a driver, and while driving his mule up a heavy grade was struck by an empty car, which, through the fault of someone yet unknown, had been allowed to come rushing down the track in an opposite direction. The car, on its race down the incline, had attained a terrific speed, having started almost at the face of the gangway, and the grade of the road was one degree. About seventy-five yards below where the car started there was a bumping-block, placed to prevent just such an accident as this, but the velocity of the car was so great that it broke through this obstacle and continued onward until it met the boy and mule, killing the former and seriously injuring the latter.
After the accident an examination of the car was made, resulting in the discovery of four springs, one in each wheel, placed there, after the collision, no doubt by the party whose negligence caused the boy's death. The attempt to escape suspicion of neglect by this means did not succeed, and the Inspector of the district at once ordered a thorough investigation. The boy was a son of Mrs. James Logan, of Green Mountain and up to two weeks ago had worked in Drifton. The remains arrived here on Monday afternoon in charge of Undertaker Brislin, and the interment was made in St. Ann's cemetery. The funeral was largely attended.

To Celebrate New Year's Day.

Freeland Council, No. 348, Junior Order United American Mechanics, will celebrate to-day by a parade through the principal streets of the town. The parade will move promptly at 3 o'clock, and will consist of four divisions, divided as follows:
Chief Marshal—A. W. Washburn.
Aids—B. F. Davis, Jacob Wolfe.
FIRST DIVISION.
Will form on Washington street, facing South.
Hazleton Liberty Band.
Shawnee Council, No. 54, of Hazleton. Lafayette Council, No. 50, of Hazleton. Lehigh Council, No. 101, of Lehighton.
SECOND DIVISION.
Will form on East Front Street, facing Washington.
P. O. S. of A. Band, of Freeland. Camp, No. 147, of Freeland. Camp, No. 253, of Sandy Run. Camp, No. 31, of Hazleton. Camp, No. 37, of Lattimer.
THIRD DIVISION.
Will form on West Front Street, facing Washington.
Hazleton Junior Cornet Band. Visiting Organizations.
Freeland Council, No. 348.
In the evening a ball will be held at the opera house under the auspices of Freeland Council.

St. Ann's Church Fair.

The fair at the above church opened on Christmas Day under the most auspicious conditions. The large tables are loaded down with hundreds of handsome and valuable articles, many of them having been presented to the fair by members of the congregation and the societies connected with this church. Every evening since its opening the building has been crowded with a merry and jovial lot of people, and there is no better place at present to spend a pleasant hour. Several of the articles on exhibition are to be disposed of by contests, and dozens of pretty girls, with neat little books in their hands, are endeavoring to induce the visitors to part with a portion of their small change. The more valuable articles are going off on chances, which gives to all investors an equal opportunity to win something of value for a small amount of money. The fair will remain open for some time.

Shutting Down on Free Puffs.

The Editorial Association of the Lehigh Valley at a recent meeting came to the conclusion that they were doing more for the public than the public was doing for them, and decided to hereafter to abolish the lavish distribution of free puffs, the insertion of marriage and death notices free and the printing of any resolution of any character and any length merely for the asking. Many people seem to think that the labor of type-setting, printing, proof-reading and distributing, not to mention the expense of paper and printer's ink, and the enormous wear and tear of a newspaper plant, is just nothing at all, and everything is pure profit.

Marriage Licenses Granted.

The Register of Wills granted the following licenses during the past week:
M. E. Grover, of Freeland, to Miss Hattie A. Tubbs, of Shickshinny.
Patrick Dougherty, of Plymouth, to Miss Grace O'Gara, of Freeland.
Patrick O'Gara, of Freeland, to Miss Bridget Kennedy, of Stockton.

PERSONALITIES.

—Miss Bridget O'Donnell, of Philadelphia, is visiting her parents at Drifton.
—Daniel Duffy, formerly of Freeland, now of Philadelphia, is visiting in town.
—C. O. Boyle took an early train this morning for Philadelphia to attend to business in that city.
—Andrew Pfaff, the efficient book-keeper for J. P. McDonald, spent Christmas with his family at a Philadelphia.
—John Barton and wife spent Christmas with friends at Mauch Chunk. They returned home on Monday afternoon.
—Thomas J. Hughes, of Upper Lehigh, is visiting friends at Statington this week, after an absence of over eight years.
—Hon. D. M. Evans and family, of Pittston, returned home on Tuesday after spending a week among friends at Upper Lehigh.
—Hon. Wm. R. Jeffreys returned from Harrisburg on Monday and reports that extensive preparations for the inauguration of Governor Pattison are being made.
—John Owens, of Upper Lehigh, and Mrs. Hughes, widow of the late William Hughes, of the late Mill Hill, Wilkes-Barre, were married on the 24th ult. They will take up their residence at Wilkes-Barre.

Three Persons Brutally Murdered.

A horrible and cold-blooded murder of three persons took place on Monday at Broderick's Patch, a small village near Wilkes-Barre. The details of the crime are revolting to the extreme. It appears that John Tirello, a Hungarian from Edgerton, who had been in the village for a few days, entered the saloon of Michael Curley, and in the presence of the latter's five-year-old daughter, Mamie, who was holding an infant, shot Mrs. Curley, who was working at the wash-tub in the front part of the bar-room, and then shot Curley, who had just come down stairs.
Tirello next turned and shot a man named Michael Holok, a Hungarian, who died instantly, and then, laying the revolver upon the prostrate form of Curley, decamped for parts unknown. The shot entered Mrs. Curley's head from the back and she died instantly. Curley was shot through the forehead and lived two hours.
There were apparently only five persons in the room at the time of the shooting. Curley, his wife, Holok, Tirello and the little girl. The first three are dead, and the child is too young to make an intelligible statement.
The theory that Tirello did the shooting is most reasonable, but there are a few persons who hold that Curley shot Holok in an altercation, and Tirello, who was implicated, did the rest of the shooting.

TIRELLO ARRESTED.

Tirello was arrested at Jermyn Tuesday and brought to Wilkes-Barre, arriving there at 3 o'clock. On personal appearance he is a bad looking specimen of the riotous Hun. He is very poorly and uncleanly clad, and bore the general appearance of one who would not hesitate to take a hand in the darkest of deeds. He was apprehended by James Timlin, a saloon keeper in Jermyn, and detained there till County Detective Philip's made the arrest.

CURLEY ACCUSED.

The stories told about the sad occurrence are very conflicting. The prisoner himself tells a very straightforward story, in which he accuses Curley of doing all the shooting.
The Pittston Gazette gives the following account as told by Mat Daley, a driver in the employ of Hughes' brewery: Daley, who is prepared to take an oath that what he says is true, was delivering beer to a customer on the opposite side of the road from the saloon when the tragedy occurred. He heard several shots fired, and looking across the road he saw the Hungarian Tirello run out the door and down through the fields. A moment or so afterward Mrs. Curley came running to the door, and when she saw the tragedy occurring, she ran to the side of the road leading to a small porch when her husband came up from behind with a pistol, which he held up to the back of her head. Mrs. Curley fell to the floor, and the husband re-ferred the house. A few moments after Daley who had by this time run to the place, heard another shot fired inside. In company with others he entered the saloon and found Curley lying on the floor with the bullet wound in his head, through which the brains were protruding. Near by the Hun, Holok, was lying on the floor, with a bullet wound in his head also. The revolver was found hanging to a button on Curley's breast. This is the story that Daley is prepared to swear to, and he says that another witness will corroborate him in what he says.

Expert Hunters.

Three of Eckley's famous hunters a few weeks ago, while wending their way below Old Buckmanstown, were startled by a strange looking animal and one of the party fired and killed it. Upon examination it proved to be a tame cat. The same party a few days ago were traversing the same ground and looking for some game, when they espied a fine looking catamount and killed it. The person who killed the cat the week previous, thinking that a mistake had been made, asking "if it was as big as the one he shot," when the answer came back, "yes, two as big as his." It is not safe to talk catamounts to him now.

Don't Go Hunting After To-Day.

Ten dollars reward will be paid by the Freeland Game and Fish Protective Club to any person furnishing information that will lead to the arrest and conviction of any person or persons killing, or having in his or her possession, after being killed, any hare or rabbit or any other game, after December 31, 1890, or any time before November 1, 1891. Ten dollars will also be paid for information that will lead to the conviction of any person or persons who have used a ferret in killing rabbits during the past season.

Mercantile Appraiser Appointed.

The County Commissioners held a meeting Saturday afternoon and appointed Thomas McGraw, of Beach Haven, as mercantile appraiser for 1891. The appointment of Mr. McGraw meets with general approval throughout the county, and the Commissioners are entitled to commendation for their foresightfulness in recognizing the defeated candidate. The papers in which the appraiser's list is to be published are the News-Dealer, Shickshinny Echo and the Democratic Waechter, of Wilkes-Barre.

Balls at the Opera House.

Freeland Citizens' Hose Co., Friday evening, January 16.
Tigers Athletic Association, Friday evening, January 23.

Special Announcement.

We have made arrangements with Dr. B. J. Kendall Co., publishers of "A Treatise on the Horse and his Diseases," which will enable all our subscribers to obtain a copy of that valuable work free by sending their address (enclosing a two-cent stamp for mailing same) to Dr. B. J. Kendall Co., ENOSBURG FALLS, VT. The book is now recognized as standard authority upon all diseases of the horse, as its phenomenal sale attests, over four million copies having been sold in the past ten years, a sale never before reached by any publication in the same period of time. We feel confident that our patrons will appreciate the work, and be glad to avail themselves of the opportunity of obtaining a valuable book.
It is necessary that you mention this paper in sending for the "Treatise." This offer will remain open only a short time.
