A New Dockage Bill.
Representative Flannery has presented a bill to the Legislature for the protection of the miners of the anthracite coal region by providing for the proper weighing of the coal and fixing the number of pounds to a ton, prohibiting dockage and providing a penalty for any violation thereof.
The bill is of the old stereotype order, and upon failure to comply with its provisions, any miner can go into court and collect by process of law such rates per ton of 2240 pounds, as may be agreed upon between the employer and employee. The bill makes provision for a check weighing and also for the part of the same—to come out of the earnings of the men, to be assessed pro rata among the workmen at each colliery and deducted from their wages by the operator.
The sixth section provides that for a refusal to comply with its provision or requirements a fine of not less than two hundred dollars, or imprisonment not exceeding six months, or either at the discretion of the court, shall be imposed.

They are charged with having printed and distributed circulars designed to injure the character of Rev. John Donohue, Presiding Elder of the Danville circuit, but formerly pastor of St. Paul's M. E. Church at Hazleton. In his efforts to deal fairly with his parishioners, had incurred the displeasure of Sutherland, a local preacher, and the latter to vent his spite had the circulars distributed. Mr. Donohue commenced proceedings against Sutherland for damages, which was compromised by the latter giving him $10,000. The United States postal authorities then took the matter in hand and he is now held on the charge first mentioned. They were given another hearing Tuesday, when, for want of evidence Mr. Maue was discharged.

The Elisteddof.

As announced in our last issue the town was full of strangers on Monday last, it being the day set apart for the holding of the grand elisteddof.
Early in the morning those near here began to arrive, and when the special train from Wilkes-Barre arrived the town presented an animated appearance.
The morning session was opened by T. J. Edwards, of Mahanoy City, who, in his own peculiar style, made a neat and telling speech, captivating his audience and holding them under submission during the balance of the day. On the platform was Prof. Harrison, Sup't. of Schools of Luzerne County; Prof. J. W. Parson Price, of New York. Each of these gentlemen made an address. The programme was then taken up and carried through with the following result: Piano solo, by Prof. Henry Herbert, of Hazleton. The Trio, "Peace to the Souls of the Heroes," was rendered by two parties. There was an award, "Power of Habit" was recited by Miss Edmunds, of Drifton, and Jane Carsons, of Mahanoy City. The prize was divided. "Dying Child," by Lizzie Ryan, of Miners Mills, Lizzie Ann Roberts and Maggie Davis, of Nanticoke. The prize $3.00, was equally divided.
The afternoon session was opened by William T. Williams, who sang "Peace on the Deep." The Soprano solo, "Eva's Lamentation;" four competitors entered. The prize was awarded to Mrs. Elizabeth Watkins, of Miners Mills. The Piano solo competition, "Whisperings of Love," four competitors entered. The prize, $2.00, was given to Maggie Ashman, of Upper Lehigh. The Trio, "The Two Bards," prize, $5.00, was awarded to David James and Richard Williams, of Nanticoke. Prof. Robert Steiner being the only competitor for the cornet solo, he was awarded the prize of $3.00. The competition for choirs, "Then Winds Breathe Soft," three choirs entered, Nanticoke, Glen Lyon and Miners Mills. Prize of $100 was awarded to the Miners Mills choir.
Evening session was opened with a Tenor solo, "The White Squall." Prize divided between Richard James, of Kingston, and David Elias, of Plymouth. The Quartette, "Ti Wyddost Beth Ddywel Fy Nhealon;" four competitors, the Miners Mills party taking the prize of $5.00. The Bevan family gave a grand exhibition of singing, and then the competition singing stanza, with piano, prize $4.00, went to Thomas Parry, of Plains. The competition, "The Light House," prize $35, was won by the Nanticoke party. By special request conductor T. J. Edwards recited "The Charge of the Light Brigade" and was heartily applauded at the finish.
The most interesting part of the day's programme was now taken up, being the competition for the grand choros, "Hallelujah." Prize, $250. Glen Lyon, Miners Mills and Nanticoke choirs entered. The rendition by the three choirs was such that the Adjudicator divided the prize between Miners Mills and Nanticoke choirs.
At the close of the above competition the Conductor, Mr. T. J. Edwards, took the floor and made a neat speech in which he urged his audience to remain faithful to their natural love of singing and at all times to be on the side of American liberty. He then paid a glowing tribute to General Hastings, whom he introduced to the audience amid thunders of applause. The General, in his address, traced the history of this country from its discovery to the present time, showing the part which the people of Wales had taken in the formation of the government at the time of the revolution and in the late rebellion. He also went on to state that it was not necessary for a man to be born rich that he might shine in the eyes of the world; to be endeared in the hearts of his countrymen. He spoke at length on this subject, citing as a good illustration the names of Lincoln, Garfield, Grant, Sheridan and the late lamented Sherman. He concluded his address by saying that this was not a country for any one class of people, but a country for all, where all should possess and enjoy the benefits and blessings of liberty, and should defend it with their lives if necessary. During the address he was frequently greeted with rounds of applause.
NOTES.
Prof. J. W. Parson Price was very impartial in his decisions and frequently gave the contestants some very good advice. Especially so was this in the case of the unsuccessful competitors. To them he gave words of encouragement, and pointed out to them many ways wherein they could improve. All of this, and more too, was said without giving offence.
Too much praise cannot be given to the committee and those having charge of the affair for the admirable manner in which the programme and the other laborious duties connected with the entertainment, were carried through. On the whole it was splendidly conducted and will live in memory as one of Freeland's gala days.
At the close of the evening entertainment a reception was given by the committee to Gen. Hastings in the parlor of the Cottage Hotel, where a pleasant time was spent until the early hours of morning, when all retired to their home feeling that the day had been well spent.
Accident at Highland.
William Brogan, a driver at No. 1 slope, Highland, had one of his legs broken on Friday morning by a plank striking the car upon which he was riding, and throwing him off. He was conveyed to the residence of his sister, Mrs. James Dennison, on Walnut street, where Dr. Kalb, of Jeddo, attended him.
