NOTES FROM OTHER TOWNS.

One hundred tailors in Pittston are on strike for an increase of wages.
Slavonic societies from everywhere held a large parade at Hazleton on Saturday.

General Hastings will act as chairman of the Welsh cisteddod at Mountain Park on June 20.
Luzerne County has 67 prisoners in the county jail and 163 inmates in the Danville Insane Asylum.

Terrence McGee, thirteen years old, was drowned while bathing in the Susquehanna near Nanticoke.
The Weatherly Herald has begun its twelfth year with brilliant prospects ahead for the town and paper.

One Pole was killed and another injured by a fall of coal at the Green Mountain colliery on Tuesday.
Edward Rodgers, of Wilkes-Barre, and Miss Mary A. McCloskey of Beaver Meadow, were married on Tuesday.

The Clan-na-Gael of Luzerne and Lackawanna Counties will hold a union picnic at Mountain Park on June 27.
Democratic candidates for county offices are hobnobbing and placing themselves in the hands of their friends.

Editor Maloy, of the Lansford Record, issued an eight-page paper on Saturday, filled with appropriate Memorial Day reading.
The Register of Wills is doing a rushing marriage license business since the 1st inst. June brides in Luzerne promise to be as numerous as butterflies.

P. F. Caffrey, of Ashley, chairman of the Knights of Labor Legislative Committee, was appointed yesterday to the clerkship in the Executive department at Harrisburg.
John Armstead, claiming to be a United States officer, compelled nine Nanticoke saloon-keepers to pay him $50 each or go to jail. He was discovered and is now in "Limbo" himself.

"Big Joe" and Basil Franco, two of the Jeanesville survivors who went starving as freaks, have sued Haydon & Co. for $25,000 damages. Their prospects of not getting it are very good.
Wallace's circus showed at Hazleton on Monday and at Pittston on Tuesday.

The papers of our neighboring town seemed scarcely able to raise it high enough, while the Pittston scribbles say it is composed of scores of gamblers, fakirs and all-around toughs.
Sam Small's lecture on "Is Civilization a Failure?" leads the Newdealer to remark that it is in a great many respects—as for instance a man who steals bread for a starving family getting six months in jail, while a cashier or bank president who steals millions gets off with a couple of years.

A Philadelphia "Press."
Sub-Editor of American Paper—Say, Mr. Hoopercup, there's a report of a terrible eviction case. A woman, who was defending her home against the evictors, was fatally shot.

Editor—You don't say so; write a good strong article on it showing what an infernal system of despotism exists in Ireland, in contrast with the glorious liberty of our American institutions. You don't know how to put it.

Sub-Editor—Yes, but this wasn't in Ireland, you know. It was in Pennsylvania. But I suppose I'd better condemn it pretty strongly all the same.
Editor—You idiot; what are you thinking of? No; if you say anything about it, denounce the lawlessness of the foreign clients who think they can come here and have everything their own way.

BECKLEY NOTES.
P. J. Tolan spent Memorial Day with his parents at Wilkes-Barre.
Misses Annie O'Donnell and Bridget Haggerty spent a few days with friends at Freeland last week.

Michael P. Campbell, ex-President of St. Mary's T. A. B. Society, spent Sunday at Freeland last week.
John Wagner, who has been ill for the past month, is getting better.

The Terrors and Silver Brooks crossed bats last Sunday afternoon. Six innings were played when the game was stopped on account of rain, the score standing 6 to 10 in favor of Silver Brooks. The fans who were present were Ward's home run hit by O'Donnell's great fly catching in left field.

The cornet band of this place held a picnic here on Saturday evening. Dancing was kept up until a late hour, when all returned to their homes well pleased with the evening's enjoyment. The music was furnished by Messrs. McGroarty & Kelly's Orchestra.

Coal Prices Advanced.
The anthracite coal trade has assumed its normal condition for this season of the year. The demand for coal is light and prices are less firm than they were, while the output of coal is being increased. There was a spirit of activity noted early last week, but this was due to purchases in anticipation of an increase in prices on June 1. Reports from Western lake distributing ports indicate an improving tendency in the anthracite trade there.

The stocks of coal throughout the West and Northwest are reported to be well depleted, and there is noted considerable inquiry for coal for shipment during this and next month. The reports from Buffalo confirm the above, and shipments of anthracite from that port are active and increasing. The New England trade is quiet and without noteworthy change. In Philadelphia and vicinity there is little new business doing, and several of the larger anthracite companies as well as individual operators are said to be cutting prices materially. The General Sales Agents of the Anthracite Companies met at New York on last Thursday and agreed to advance the prices 15 cents per ton. It was also agreed to make the output of anthracite for the month of June 3,250,000 tons.

It would require superhuman comprehension for any one to form an idea of how much money was spent by the last Republican Congress. The actual appropriations come near $61 for every hour of the 1890 years. A. D. which had expired before the footings of the expense of two years of Radicalism in the United States were made up. If you are a Republican, multiply 1890 by 365, the product by 24, and divide this latter product into $1,008,000,000 so that you can get for yourself some idea of what Republicanism means when it is expressed in figures.—Catawauqua Record.

The Ashley Observer has a humorist for an editor, but that does not prevent him from dropping chunks of logic among his jokes. Last week he fell into an inquisitive mood over fools, and said to his readers: If the people put a saddle on their backs and invite the monopolist to get on and ride and he does not do it, he is a fool. If the monopolist puts a saddle on the people's back and then attempts to get on and ride, and the people do not kick, they are fools. Which fool are you?
