Any shoe dealer has in stock a number of shoes that will fit you, but this does argue that they were all made for you. Because an item in the paper may not fit your case, it does not always show that you were the one the writer had in mind.

Just 552 people took in the excursion of the Freeland firemen to Glen Onoko on Saturday. It was the best excursion Freeland has ever turned out and the crowd enjoyed the day. The committee in charge was highly complimented for the manner in which the affair was conducted.

Inter-County Pigeon Shoot.

A pigeon shooting match which will in all probability be shortly arranged, will take place in this vicinity. Mat and Fannie Cooper, of Mahanoy City, and Daniel Oliver, of Shenandoah, are very anxious to have a match with any three men in Luzerne County.

The sportsmen from this region are discussing the matter and Thomas Ely, of Kingston, Richard Williams, of Hazleton, and James Oliver, of Highland, are being spoken of as the men who will be pitted against the Schuylkill Countians. The match if arranged will be for $300 or $500 a side. The six men spoken of are all expert shooters and a close and exciting match will be the result.—Speaker.

Wild Beards About.

The following weird story of a bear chase comes from Hazleton this morning. It is too thrilling to be true, but we give it as related: Shortly after midnight as Nicholas Williams, of Beaver Meadow, was driving up the Quakake mountain between Weatherly and Beaver Meadow, his horse took fright, and he had great difficulty in inducing it to pass a black object which sat on the roadside. He eventually did so under the whip, and struck the motionless object as he passed it. The next moment he was horrified to discover that it was a bear.

The animal game chase, and although Williams urged his horse with voice and whip up the mountain, Bruin steadily gained on him, and on two occasions succeeded in clambering up the back of the carriage, but was pushed back by Williams.

This increased the animal's rage and for a third time it caught up, and despite Williams' efforts succeeded in getting partly into the buggy, but Williams used his whip on him furiously and he was dislodged. By this time the top of the mountain had been reached and with it a rapid decline, down which the horse sped at breakneck speed and Bruin was soon outdistanced. A party of men are scouring the woods to-day in search of the bear.

Quay's Convention.

The Republican State Convention was held in Harrisburg yesterday. John P. Elkins, of Indiana County, was made permanent chairman. General Gregg, of Berks County, was nominated for Auditor General and John W. Morrison, of Allegheny County, for State Treasurer. Lieutenant-Governor Louis A. Waters was chosen Chairman of the State Committee, to succeed William C. H. Andrews.

The platform adopted endorses the administration of Harrison; the conduct of the Post-office Department by Wana-maker and the State Department by Blaine; endorses the McKinley bill, and indulges in a lot of platitudes which virtually endorse the State and Philadelphia thieves who have been fattening for years on public money. Blaine's Presidential boom was nipped by the Harrison faction. Quay's influence was manifested throughout the work of the convention, and the campaign this fall must be a repetition of last year's. The Philadelphia Ledger (Ind. Rep.), in a long editorial this morning, accepts the candidates, but strongly condemns the methods by which they were nominated. It also denounces the resolutions passed and makes caustic criticisms on the platform.

FLAG PRESENTATION.

A Large Flag Given to the Public Schools by the Junior American Mechanics.

Yesterday afternoon the public schools of the borough were presented with a handsome American flag by Freeland Council, No. 348, Jr. O. U. A. M. Shortly before four o'clock a short street parade was made by the following organizations: F. O. S. of A. Band, Camden No. 147, F. O. S. of A. Mountain Eagle Co., No. 297, K. G. E. Freeland Council, No. 348, Jr. O. U. A. M. Arriving at Washington and Chestnut Streets the societies were drawn up in line facing the school building, where John Smith, secretary of the school board, introduced General W. H. MacCartney, of Wilkes-Barre, who made the presentation speech for the council. The speaker complimented the town and people for the patriotism shown, and at the conclusion of his address introduced John D. Hayes, who accepted the flag on behalf of the school board. After the band had rendered several patriotic selections the exercises ended. The flag is a very large one, and together with the pole, which is decorated with the national colors, make a very pleasing sight by the side of the schools.

Narrow Escape of a Passenger Train.

The Lehigh Valley train which arrives here at 5 A. M. from Wilkes-Barre and Scranton had a narrow escape from being wrecked yesterday morning. While approaching the junction switch of the Freeland branch and the main line near Highland the engineer, Wm. Eickering, noticed a small obstruction on the track. He reversed his engine, No. 471, as soon as possible, but was unable to stop before the switch was reached. A number of railroad spikes securely wedged between the rails was what the engineer had seen, and when the train struck them the front wheels of the locomotive bounded from the track. The truck and passenger coaches passed over the spikes without being derailed, but the sudden jar and run over the ties damaged the engine considerably. A half hour's work placed the wheels on the track again, and the train proceeded to Hazleton, where the locomotive is in the shops for repairs. The passengers were very badly shaken up, but fortunate in having such a miraculous escape. No clue of the wreckers has yet been found.

Tax Collectors Arrested.

Jacob Fox, ex-tax collector of Foster Township, was arrested Tuesday evening by County Detective Phillips, on a warrant issued by Alderman Parsons, of Wilkes-Barre, charging him with appropriating to his own use money collected from persons not assessed. These taxes are known as supplementary taxes, and amount to quite a sum every year. Fox was taken before Squire Johnson, where he was given a hearing and entered bail in the sum of $1000 for his appearance at court. Fox and Adam Sachs became his bondsmen.

On the same evening Philip J. Ferry, ex-tax collector of Hazle Township, was arrested by the county detective on a similar charge. It is alleged that Ferry's defalcation amounts to nearly $5,000. The accused both state that they will be able to disprove the charges at the proper time. The arrests were made at the instigation of Cox Bros. & Co., who intend to push the cases.

Brutal Prize Fight.

Martin Kelly and William Davis fought a desperate prize-fight at Pringle Hill Saturday morning. It looked at first as though Davis would win, but at the end of the sixth round he was minus all his teeth but two. His nose was mashed flat and both eyes closed. He wanted to go on with the fight, but the referee said it was not a contest between bulldogs, but men. He gave the fight to Kelly.

Freeland Is In This Procession.

Hazleton has just given out an extensive sewer contract, and so has Allen Meadow, and Wilkes-Barre, too, is putting down a large system of sewers. The sanitary value of sewers is becoming appreciated far and wide. People are beginning to learn that good sewers prevent much suffering and save many lives.—Easton Express.

Opportunities to Enjoy Life.

Excursion of White Haven Odd Fellows Relief Association, Mountain Park, August 29.

Picnic of Young Men of Drifton, Drifton Park, August 29.

Picnic of Scale Siding Base Ball Club, Campbell's Grove, Sandy Valley, August 29.

Ball of Garibaldi Politica Societa, Opera House, September 18.

Picnic of Tigers Athletic Association, Firemen's Park, September 19.

Neighboring Democrats.

The Democrats of Lackawanna County held their convention on Tuesday and recorded their protest against the distribution of patronage by Pattison in that county, by sending a delegation to the State Convention which will be bitterly opposed to the presidential aspirations of the Governor. The anti-Pattison forces went through without a break; sheriff, John J. Fahey; prothonotary, James G. Bailey; treasurer, George Kimbaker; clerk of the court, John J. O'Boyle; recorder, James J. Healey; register, Henry F. Koehler; jury commissioner, E. J. Ward.

The fight in Carbon failed to end so peaceably, however, and the county meeting broke up into two warring factions. The issue there was on G. W. Esser, who is a candidate for prothonotary for a fifth term. Those opposed to him elected the president, Mr. Entolow. Then followed a general uproar, and a continued a full hour. Finally the business was transacted. The 31st of August was fixed for the nominating convention, and resolutions were adopted, including one strongly indorsing Governor Pattison. The Esser men bolted and organized another meeting after the 1st. All had adjourned, and the feeling is very bitter on both sides.

MOUNTAIN PARK.

The Only Chance of the Season to Visit This Popular Pleasure Ground.

An opportunity to visit Mountain Park is offered on Saturday by the White Haven Odd Fellows' Relief Association, who will conduct the fourth of their annual excursions to this resort on the 22d inst. To the people of White Haven and vicinity this is one of the greatest events of the year, and the association extends a cordial invitation to the people of Freeland to join them in pleasure. This year the excursion will be an unusual large one, as Centennial Lodge, No. 972, I. O. O. F., of Wilkes-Barre, has combined with the White Haven folks and promise to have a large number of their friends at the Park. The fare for adults is 90 cents, children, 60 cents. Trains leave as follows: Upper Lehigh, 7:45; Pond Creek, 7:30; Sandy Run, 6:40. Returning will leave Mountain Park at 5:40 P. M. arriving by special train to Upper Lehigh at 7 o'clock.

The excursion will be accompanied by DeFierro's Orchestra and the White Haven P. O. S. of A. Band. In the afternoon Prof. Mayberry will render a number of solos on the cornet. Several improvements have been made at the Park this season. The dancing pavilion has been much enlarged, and provided with seats for the on-lookers. A bowling alley has also been added to the other amusement features. Refreshments will be provided as usual.

The purposes of this excursion are well-known. The net surplus is devoted exclusively to the benefit of the poor people in the various townships of Luzerne County who are not connected with the Odd Fellows' organization. Much good has been done by the association in the past, and many an individual and family has received its bounty.

Journalistic Improvements.

The Hazleton dailies made several changes for the better on Monday. The proprietors of the Speaker, Messrs. Sweeney and Morris, have placed the paper under the editorial management of Henry Wood, of Philadelphia. Mr. Wood did the recent Lattimer murder for the Press, and came well recommended by his Philadelphia brethren. They have also opened a Wilkes-Barre department, which is under charge of B. J. Mooney. As a Democratic daily the Speaker has a good field, and it should certainly take advantage of its opportunities in the future.

The Sentinel has departed from the magazine style which handicapped that bright journal, and now makes its appearance as a seven column folio. Its newsy briefs will be more appreciated than ever. If it would only change its politics the Sentinel would be hard to beat.

Another Man Weary of Life.

H. F. Cox, of Philadelphia, a guest at Glen Summit Hotel, attempted to commit suicide on Friday morning by cutting his throat from ear to ear. The jugular vein, however, was not severed, and physicians succeeded in saving his life for the present, although the consequences of his rash act, coupled with the condition of his system, may prove fatal. Mr. Cox is very prominent in Philadelphia society, and a member of several of the leading clubs.

He is also a noted inventor. Among his inventions is the block system of running of trains, which the Pennsylvania Railroad Company has adopted on all of its lines. His rail connection, which has been adopted by the Pennsylvania Railroad, has constructed railroads in the world. He receives an immense royalty from the Pennsylvania Railroad.

A Great Engineering Feat.

The Ashland Record has this to say of the Jeddo tunnel: The greatest engineering feat in the history of anthracite coal mining in Pennsylvania is about to begin. It is the commencement of what will be known as the Jeddo tunnel, which will be driven for the purpose of draining the flow of water from the Harleigh. It will be constructed from Butler Valley to the bottom of Ebervale mammoth vein, a distance of three miles, through solid rock, to be eight feet square in the clear. John Markle, who is to be president of the company, conceived the idea. It will open an inexhaustible supply of coal and furnish employment for many years to come.

Mine Bosses For Schuylkill.

The following persons have been granted certificates as mine foremen in Schuylkill county: William Phillips, Thomas Smith, Daniel Griffiths, Anthony Gelfert, Daniel Jones, Thomas Fudge, William L. Jones, Zacharia Miller, Thomas Jones, Coaldeale; David H. James, Pottsville; Joseph Bosche, John E. Krebs, St. Clair; Charles Behey, Tamaqua; Edwin Fisher, West Pitt Office; William D. Lewis, Minersville; John C. Jones, Pottsville.

Five Hundred Miners on Strike.

The nearest Saturday to the 20th of each month has always been pay day at Waddell's Mill Hollow colliery, near Pittston. This month, according to the rule, pay day would come on August 22. Nearly all of the companies paid last week or early this week, and the Mill Hollow output therefore decided that they wanted their pay a little earlier than usual. Yesterday morning the employees posted up a notice to this effect, and the company not responding to the same, all of the inside men, 500 in number, went on strike.

Prices Advanced and Mines Shut Down.

In the anthracite coal trade the policy of restricting output by working only four days per week and stoppage on Friday and Saturday is to be continued throughout the month, and is expected to impart a more healthful outlook. The first week's restriction reduced the output about 167,000 tons compared with the previous week, that is from 895,000 to 728,000 tons. If the remaining weeks do as well they will probably keep the August output of anthracite within the limit of 3,000,000 tons agreed upon by the coal company presidents. The second week's restriction was carefully observed by a general shut-down last Friday and Saturday. The weekly output is also reduced below the weekly figures of last year by its restriction, so that the total excess was reduced during the first week of August about 74,000 tons. The supply is still, however, 2,800,000 tons ahead of last year, and over 23,000,000 tons have been mined down to the close of last week, so that there is still an excessive pressure of unsold coal upon the market. The sales agents met last week in New York and ordered an advance of 15 cents per ton on an average in circular prices, to take effect September 1.

The total amount of anthracite coal sent to market for the week ending August 8th, as reported by the several carrying companies, was 728,654 tons, compared with 802,445 tons in the corresponding week last year, a decrease of 73,791 tons. The total amount of anthracite mined thus far in the year 1891 was 25,557,095 tons, compared with 19,606,895 tons for the same period last year, an increase of 2,860,200 tons.—Ledger.

WELSH ESTEDDFFOD.

Grand Singing by the Competing Choirs from Lakeside Park on Saturday.

The biggest musical event in the anthracite coal regions was that of the competing Lakeside Park on Saturday. Over 600 people were present. The chairman, Ted Reese, of Centralia, opened the proceedings with an address, in which he referred to the great Welsh musical festivals of past years. The prize of $75 and gold medal in the hand contest went to the Grant Band, of Shenandoah, there being no other competitors. "The Two Bards" prize, $10, was captured by Philip Evans and J. Price, of Shenandoah. Misses Annie Wynn and Lizzie Jenkins, of Mahanoy City, and Miss Jenkins, of Shenandoah, competed for a prize of $10 in a soprano solo in "Ye Breezes That Blow." The prize was awarded among the Mahanoy City competitors. Grandville, Centralia, Shenandoah and Mahanoy City furnished the contestants in a "A Leaf on the Sea" prize, $15. Shenandoah and Mahanoy City divided the prize. The summer prize of $75, contested for by Mahanoy City and Shenandoah choirs, was won by the former.

A quintette, "Good is a Spirit," was given to Mahanoy City. The baritone solo prize, $10, was awarded to Thomas Rosser, of Mahanoy City. The other contestants were Griffith Davis, Mahanoy City; John Knight, William Penn; Martin Roberts, Morea, and William Bassett, Minersville. In the "Quarryman's Chorus," prize $75, the Shenandoah Male Quartette again defeated the Hayden Glee Club. "The Hallelujah Chorus," prize $200, was sung by Mahanoy City, Shenandoah and Centralia, and won by the former. At the close of the entire audience sang the National Hymn, "Budd Mard'd O Rhyfeddod."

William Apodoc, of Chicago, urged all choirs to organize at once for the great National Eisteddfod at the World's Fair.

Accident on the D. S. & S.

An accident train on the D. S. & S. Railroad from Green Mountain colliery to Hazleton, was wrecked between here and Beaver Brook on Saturday evening. The train was in charge of James Gildea, of Honey Brook, an engineer, Charles Friel, of the same place, Charles McBride and a Hungarian. When within a mile from town, the rails spread suddenly and the train was derailed. Friel was caught between the engine and a car and held in that position for some time before assistance came. Gildea was severely scalded, while McBride and the Hungarian escaped with slight injuries.

Friel was brought to the State Hospital at a late hour Saturday night in a critical condition, suffering with a crushed leg. In order to save his life the left leg was amputated and the physician now entertains hopes for his recovery. Gildea was taken to his home, and will be able to be about in a short time.—Standard.

Wants His Wife.

Rev. Mr. Collman has entered a suit at Wilkes-Barre against his father-in-law, Rev. Conrad Knehn, under unusual circumstances. Some time ago Mr. Collman, who is a young man, went to the city to assist Rev. Knehn in his church duties, and subsequently married his daughter. The congregation, after the marriage, insisted that the young man should take a field of his own, and accordingly Rev. Mr. Collman left for Westmoreland County. After some months he returned for his wife, but his father-in-law refuses to give her up. A violent scene ensued, and, finding that he had no power over his wife's father, Mr. Collman now resorts to law.
