THEY ASK FOR VOTES.

The Men Who Want to be Elected Next Tuesday.

THREE TICKETS IN FOSTER TOWNSHIP—FREELAND, HAZLETON, BUTLER.

Below will be found the names of the candidates in this vicinity who are looking for office. The contests in some localities promise to be exceedingly close and interesting.

In Foster Township the Prohibitionists have nominated a complete ticket, and have great confidence in their ability to poll a large vote.

It is very likely that the Democrats will elect their complete ticket this year. There are but a few candidates on the Republican side who have any chance to make a fight, and they find that work anything but encouraging.

In the borough the smoke of last night's convention has not cleared off sufficiently to form a distinct idea of the Republican ticket's strength.

The apparent satisfaction with which the ticket nominated on Monday night was received makes the Democratic candidates feel confident, and if this good feeling prevails until Tuesday their election is certain.

But the political complexion of this town in a spring election is very uncertain, and voters are used considerably by both parties.

The Poor District nominees on the Democratic ticket are popular throughout Carbon County, and they will hold their own in Luzerne without trouble.

Hazle township is expected to give its usual majority for the Democrats, and the first Mayor of Hazleton will be Harry Meyers. Butler votes for a citizens' ticket which has no opposition.

Council Meeting. The council met in special session Tuesday evening for the purpose of examining the accounts of the tax collectors. Henry M. Doudt, collector for 1891, presented a list of names which he could not collect from, some of which had left the borough.

He was exonerated from the same. Collector Moore not being present the secretary was instructed to call a special meeting any time before March 1 to examine his accounts. A committee from the Citizens' Home Co. appeared before council and asked that the janitor be authorized to light fires and take care of the reading room every night during the winter months.

The janitor was instructed to attend to the matter until the next regular meeting, when the question of extra compensation for doing the work will be settled. The committee also asked that 300 feet of one-inch rope and a sufficient quantity of iron stakes be procured, so that in case of fire the ground could be roped off for the protection of movable property and the better working of the department.

The matter was referred to the lock-up committee to make an examination of the rope now on hand, and, if they find it necessary, to order rope and stakes at once.

LAID AT REST.

The High Constable of Freeland Borough is Dead and Buried.

After an illness of a few weeks' duration High Constable Robert M. Rinker breathed his last early Saturday morning. The deceased was one of the best known men in town, and through his endeavor to faithfully perform the duties of his office he obtained much notoriety. The humorous incidents connected with his official life were often made the subjects of sketches in the TRIBUNE, and, though many readers thought them unkind, they were founded upon actual occurrences, and no one enjoyed their publicity better than the High Constable himself. He at all times took an active interest in politics, and was regarded as a good worker for the Democratic party. His age was 52 years, 10 months and 25 days, and a wife and five children, three of whom are married, survive him.

The funeral took place on Tuesday afternoon from his late residence, and was in charge of Maj. C. B. Cox, Post, with the Sons of Veterans, Drum Corps, attended in body. Services were held at Trinity M. E. Church, Rev. E. D. Miller offering a prayer and in the absence of the pastor, Rev. J. W. Bedford, the funeral sermon was delivered by Rev. Mallicew, of White Haven. The body was then conveyed to the soldiers' lot in Freeland Cemetery. At the grave Rev. Mallicew read the burial service, and was followed by the chaplain of the Post, H. G. Groessell. The regular funeral salute, three volleys, was then fired by the Post Guards, and this ended the ceremonies. The funeral was largely attended by the citizens and friends of the family.

The Next Attraction. "The Dear Irish Boy," a comedy-drama, with Mr. Gus Reynolds in the leading role, will be the attraction at the Opera House on the 26th inst. The play has been seen in this town once before and scored a great hit here. It is made interesting by its brisk action, sensational incidents, picturesque stage settings and the dancing and singing that are always a part of plays of this kind. Gus Reynolds takes the part of the old rascal, Mike McCutcheon, the central one of the play. He gives an excellent imitation of one of the most realistic and tragic of the stage. The company supporting Mr. Reynolds is described as being a more than usually capable one, and its good work is said to contribute no little to the success of the performance. The singing and dancing is another attractive feature of the play.

A Funny Shaped Baby. A child was born to Polish parents at Shenandoah of very peculiar construction. It was a perfect monstrosity in that he had two complete pairs of arms, the same number of legs, two heads, two nostrils and a single head and two bodies joined together at the middle. The arms of each body were entwined around the opposite body. The child lived five hours after birth. Dr. D. J. Langton, the attending physician, witnesses of the above state of facts. The doctor wanted the remains to preserve in alcohol, but the parents refused to comply with the request. The case is considered one of the most remarkable in medical practice.

Masquerade Ball. The first grand masquerade ball of the Garibaldi Brass Band at the Opera House on Tuesday evening has every indication of being one of the finest of the kind held here for some time. The ball will be conducted in accordance with the national custom, the witnessing of which is worth the price of admission. DePietro's Orchestra will be present, and every lady will be given a handsome masquerade programme. The proceeds will be used to equip the band with new instruments.

In the Land of Flowers. W. J. Eckert, of Freeland, who went to Florida two weeks ago to benefit his health, writes from Jacksonville that he is now enjoying the weather well and getting in fine shape. He is surrounded there, with millions of oranges hanging from the trees. Mr. Eckert and his wife are to be congratulated for their good sense in seeking such a congenial climate, where orchards are as common as our cumin buns.

Weekly Coal Report. The anthracite trade continues dull and without any material increase in the demand for coal. The output of coal is still being curtailed, and the producing companies are withholding their tonnage statements from the public at present. The general sales agents of the anthracite companies met at New York last week, and after comparing notes on the situation of the trade, exchanging stories and consuming a quantity of cigars, adjourned without transacting any business of importance, to meet again this week. The total amount of anthracite coal sent to market for the week ending January 30, as reported by the several carrying companies, was 533,619 tons, compared with 663,552 tons in the corresponding week last year, a decrease of 130,933 tons. The total amount of anthracite mined thus far in the year 1892 was 2,581,212 tons, compared with 3,041,895 tons for the same period in 1891, a decrease of 513,683 tons.—Ledger.

THE WORLD FOR 1892. "The most energetic, resolute and relentless journal in America when it sets out to accomplish any great object, I can testify to its ready humanity, comprehension and persistence."—(L.A.) HAMILTON. We can tell our Republican readers a secret and our Democratic friends a piece of good news: The World intends to do and will elect another Democratic President this year, as it elected Grover Cleveland in 1880. Whether the Democratic candidate shall be Grover Cleveland, representing the cause of Tariff Reform, or any one of a number of other Democratic leaders who can be elected, representing all the elements of opposition to Republicanism, THE WORLD will be foremost in its support. The next President will be a Democrat. But while doing this THE WORLD will give to its Republican readers, as it did in the recent campaign, a fuller and better report of Republican meetings and speeches in the Presidential canvass than the organs of their own party print. THE WORLD never favors news; it photographs events. THE WORLD is now printing an average of over 50,000 copies a day. It is the handmaid of Justice, the unriveler of mysteries, the detector and terror of crime, the friend of the weak, the best of the poor, the strength of the weak. Realizing that its power comes from the People, it gives back to them freely what ever service its influence and its resources enable it to render. With a perfect equipment, a thorough organization, capable direction and a deep determination to move on and up to higher ideals and greater achievements, THE WORLD wishes its multitude of readers a Happy New Year, and greater success than it expects from him during 1892 even more wonderful things than it has already accomplished.
