ST. PATRICK'S HONOR.

Fittingly Commemorated by the Freeland Societies.

A LARGE PARADE IN HONOR OF IRELAND'S PATRON SAINT—HOW THE DAY IS BEING OBSERVED IN OTHER TOWNS AND CITIES.

St. Patrick's Day was celebrated in Freeland with the usual parade of the Catholic societies of the parish. Mass was read at St. Ann's Church at 8.30 A.
M. by Rev. F. P. McNally, who delivered a lengthy sermon upon the characteristics of the Irish race. The time was formed at the march in the parade of a lengthly procession in the order last week. The societies were formed in one division in the following order:

- Grand Marshal—James Harkins.
- Aids—Dum. O'Donnell, Jas. McCarthy, John Brady, A. Rusowick, C. G. Koons, Rev. M. J. Fallin, Rev. F. P. McNally and Rev. J. S. Mazotas in Carriages.
- St. Patrick's Cornet Band.
- St. Patrick's Beneficial Society.
- Garibaldi Italian Society.
- St. Michael's Greek Society.
- Freeland Polish Band.
- Polanski Guards.
- Kosciusko Guards.
- St. Kasimer's Polish Society.
- Drifton Drum Corps.
- Pioneer Drum Corps.
- St. Ann's T. B. Pioneer Corps.
- St. Ann's Cadets.
- Freeland Drum Corps.
- Young Men's T. A. R. Society.

The Green Men, under command of Marshal James McCarthy, Capt. William Gillespie and Lieut. Dominic Timony and Michael Boyle, turned out the largest number, 365 men.

Several societies turned out strong and made a good showing. Including musicians there were 966 men and boys in line. In the evening a ball will be held at the Opera House by the St.
Patrick's Beneficial Society.

The finest demonstration in the State to-day took place at Scranton this morning under the auspices of the Ancient Order of Hibernians (B-ard of America) of Lackawanna and Luzerne Counties.
The parade, consisting of three sections, was headed by the mayor and other city officials. The first section was composed of twenty-three military companies, divided as follows: Ninth Regiment, N. G.
P., two; Thirteenth Regiment, N. G.
P., two; Hibernian Rifles, six; Phil Sheridan Rifles, five; St. Leo's Battalion, three, and one each from the Sarsfield Guards, Moughlin Guards and the Second C. T. A. U. Regiment.

The second section was made up entirely of the A. O. H. of upper Luzerne, eighteen divisions of the order participating. Cony A. O. H., John J. Brislin and Captain William Kelly, formerly of Drifton, were assistant marshals of the section.

The third section consisted of Lackawanna A. O. H. fifteen strong divisions taking part. Over 5000 men were in line.

HAZLETON.
Division No. 19, A. O. H. (B. of A.), left town at 12.30 P. M., under command of Marshal Peter Mackin, for Hazleton, where they parade this afternoon. At Foundryville they were joined by Division No. 24, of Eckley. The parade there is one of the largest on this date for some time. It consists of three sections. The first is composed of four A.
O. H. Divisions—No. 19, Hazleton; No. 20, Eckley; No. 19, Freeland; No. 6, Honey Brook. The two others include the temperance and benevolent societies of the town and vicinity.

Rev. F. P. McNally, of Freeland, left at 12.16 P. M. to-day for Jermy, Lackawanna County, where he delivers an address this evening. His subject is "St.
Patrick and the Irish people then and now." Father McNally is quite a favorite with the people in the upper end of the diocese and receives many invitations to lecture there.

CARBONDALE.
At Carbondale an interesting parade of Lackawanna and Luzerne divisions of the Ancient Order of Hibernians (B-ard of Erin) was held to-day. The ranks were well filled, but owing to the distance few of the members of the order from Luzerne took part.

At Eckley this morning the Catholic societies paraded the town and attended mass, which was read by Rev. Thos.
Brehony. Division No. 29, A. O. H., carried for the first time its handsome new flag of Erin, which cost $150.

At a meeting of the Citizens' Hose Company last evening a committee consisting of Timothy Boyle, E. P. O'Connell, and B. F. Rite was appointed to meet the L-cup committee of council in reference to rules governing the junior.
The joint committee will meet at the council room at 7 o'clock on Monday evening.

At a meeting of the P. O. S. of A. Hall on Monday evening next by Garfield Commandery, No. 8, Knights of Malta. The supreme commander of the order, Owen K. Wilt, of Bethlehem, will deliver the lecture. The public is cordially invited to be present. Admission free.

A rumor having been circulated that I made certain remarks concerning some of the councilmen I hereby offer a reward of $25 to any person who can prove that I have at any time used the alleged derogatory language. A. GOFFERT.

Wilkes-Barre to-day is holding what is hoped to be the largest extended fair held in Pennsylvania. Arrangements have been made to accommodate a vast number of people, and the fair will be conducted upon the grandest scale possible. The declination of Channey M. Depew to act as president resulted in offering the honor to Ex-Mayor Grace, of New York City. Of course it is quite appropriate for Mr. Grace to take conspicuous part in any celebration which occurs on St. Patrick's Day. Every Irish society in New York has at one time or

A MILITARY COMPANY.

Will Probably be Admitted to the National Guard.

OFFICERS ELECTED AND A PER-MANENT ORGANIZATION EFFECTED—ANOTHER MEETING TO BE HELD ON SATURDAY EVENING.

In pursuance to the call announced last week a meeting of the young men of Freeland and vicinity was held at Donop's Hall on Saturday evening, and the Freeland Military Company was organized. Patrick McLaughlin was chosen as chairman of the meeting, after which the following officers of the company were elected:

Captain—Chas. Seesholtz.
First Lieutenant—Jacob Wolf.
Second Lieutenant—Robert Oliver.
First Sergeant—Jos. Birkbeck.
Second Deputy Sergeant—John W. Jones.
Second Deputy Sergeant—John B.
Quigley.
Third Deputy Sergeant—John Welsh.
Fourth Deputy Sergeant—Thos. Ashman.
First Corporal—D. J. McCarthy, Jr.
Second Corporal—Patk. McLaughlin.
Third Corporal—G. G. Pritchard.
Fourth Corporal—Wm. Crawford.
First Trumpeter—Geo. Ashman.
Second Trumpeter—Florence McCarthy.
First Sergeant's Clerk—Thos. Ashman.
Sergeant—G. G. Pritchard.

One of the members stated he had received information from Wilkes-Barre that there were no vacancies in the Ninth Regiment. The rumor had been circulated probably on account of the change which the State authorities contemplated making, which is to increase all the regiments from eight to ten companies. Although there is no chance at present to become a part of the Ninth they were advised by officials of the regiment to organize the company and to write to Adjutant General W. W.
Greenland, of Harrisburg, for a blank form of application to the National Guard.

This application is to be filled up in accordance to the forms and held until the company receives word from Harrisburg, or until a vacancy exists in the Ninth, when their committee will be called upon to go before the Adjutant General of Wilkes-Barre, and show reasons for their admission. The company has been promised the support of several high officers of the Ninth to procure their admission. They were further advised from Wilkes-Barre to procure a copy of the new tactics and to instruct the men as thoroughly as possible. Guns can be obtained at any time from the Adjutant General by giving a bond for their security. It is expected that the company will be ready to go in at a moment's notice to fill a vacancy.

The following articles were adopted as a basis for the rules and regulations which will govern the company:

Article I.—This company shall be known as the Freeland Military Company, of Freeland, Pa., and shall consist of sixty-two men, including officers, non-commissioned officers and two trumpets.

Article II.—Every member, officer, non-commissioned officer, and private shall be duly sworn in, according to military regulations, to fulfill his duty and to obey orders to the best of his ability.

Article III.—Any member failing to comply with these rules shall be fined the sum of 50 cents, and should he fail to pay the above fine he shall have a court-martial hearing and receive such punishment as the court-martial may direct.

that all whose names are on the list will be present at Donop's Hall on Saturday evening, March 19, at 8 P. M., when further important business will be transacted.

A cure for the Grip.
La grippe is prevented and cured by the timely and persistent use of N. H.
Downs' Elixir. During the prevalence of la grippe two years ago the sale of Downs' Elixir was enormous, and the cases in which the disease was broken up on the start by its faithful use were numbered by thousands. Be sure and get the Elixir on the first appearance of the disease, and persevere in taking it until cured. Sold by Dr. Schlicher.

Judge Lynch's Position.
Judge Lynch has filed a special paper stating that he did not approve of the re-appointment as jail warden of Thomas W. Haines, and would not enforce the recommendation of the prison commissioners. This will have no effect upon Mr. Haines getting the place, as Judges Woodward and Rice are expected to affirm the appointment.

Bravery Rewarded.
The Board of Fire Underwriters of New York presented a gold medal to Sergeant John R. Vaughan, of Fire Patrol No. 3, in recognition of his bravery at the Hotel Royal fire. Vaughan made several heroic rescues at that terrible conflagration, and saved the life of Attorney C. W. Kline, of Hazleton.
During the burning of the hotel he saved the lives of four other persons by making himself a human bridge. Breaking through a window on the third floor he wound one leg in a telephone wire.
With one hand he clasped the window

THEY MADE CHANGES.

Council Elects A New Treasurer and Street Commissioner.

MESSRS. DAVIS AND BOYLE IN PLACE OF GOFFERT AND McGETTRICK—THE FIRST ELECTION WAS DE-CLARED ILLEGAL.

Freeland's councilmen held an interesting special meeting on Tuesday.
The meeting was held for the purpose of approving the bonds of Street Commissioner McGettrick and Treasurer Goe-pertz. When the minutes of the last session were read objections were made to that portion relating to the election of street commissioner. The points raised were that a full council was not present, and that the candidates declared elected did not have a majority of the council.

A recess was taken and the secretary instructed to request attorney Hayes to attend the meeting and settle the disputed question. When Mr. Hayes arrived he stated that according to the general laws governing boroughs they had a right to organize as long as a quorum was present at the meeting, but as the borough ordinance provided for a majority of a full council to elect the election of the 7th inst. was illegal and the councilmen would have to hold another.

The members then proceeded to vote for a treasurer, the following names having been presented: B. F. Davis, Albert Goeertz and Patrick Burke. The result was: Davis, 5; Goeertz, 1. For street commissioner the names of Hugh Boyle, Solomon Bacher, John Burton, Issac Davis and Frank McGettrick were offered, and the vote was: Boyle, 4; McGettrick, 2.

David Dauber was endorsed for high commissioner, John D. Hayes was elected borough solicitor and James J. Kennedy as chief of police. The regular and special police officers named at the last meeting were approved.

The bond of the treasurer was placed at $30,000, and that of the street commissioner at $500. The members of the lock-up committee were instructed to confer with a committee from the Citizens' Hose Company and prepare specifications as to what constitutes the duties of the janitor of the borough building.
When these are ready proposals will be issued for a person to act as janitor.
Adjourned to meet next Tuesday evening to examine the new officers' bonds.

A Song With 76 Authors.

Wonderful, isn't it, how many men aspire to honor which belong to others.
This is particularly true in the literary world. Somebody is always claiming the honors of the work of someone else.
Even Shakespeare has been accused of stealing the brains of others. We have all heard the song descriptive of a miner's life, beginning "At eight years of age to the breaker first I went," but few of us know who wrote it. About two months ago somebody here had the good copy of the song and advertised.
In two days he received answers from 76 men who claimed the authorship, yet strange to say, could not furnish a copy of the words. Twelve Scrantonians claimed the responsibility, but the real author has been discovered down in Freeland. He is Charles Johnson, a miner, who makes no pretensions to ability, but whose modest effort, now that it is to be published and sung on the road, will make his name well known. Others have claimed the song for years, but Mr. Johnson's friends intended to assert his rights.—Scranton Diocesan Record.

The song, "A Miner's Life" was written by Mr. Johnson in 1875, the publication at that time residing in one of the Wood-side company houses. It was composed after hearing a portion of "The Old Log Cabin in the Lane," and was at first intended as a parody on that song. It was set in type and printed by the editor of the "Tribune," a few months later, and the original manuscript has been in our possession since. Dan Hart, of Wilkes-Barre, has written a new play, "Underground," which will soon be produced in New York City, and in which it will be sung in the third act of the drama. Mr. Johnson is the author of the song and can prove it in a dozen ways.

A Long Suit Ended.
Judge Woodward has rendered a decision in connection with the great cave-in at Nanticoke in 1885 which will probably put an end to any further litigation looking to the recovery of damages from the company. The cave-in took place in December, 1885. Twenty-two men perished and their bodies are still in the mine. Since that time the relatives of the victims then entered suits to compel the company to take out the dead bodies, but the company was able to show the court that the task was an impossible one, and the plaintiffs were dismissed.
Article I.—This company shall be
known as the Freeland Military Company, of Freeland, Pa., and shall consist
of sixty-two men, including officers, non-
commissioned officers and two trumpets.

Article II.—Every member, officer,
shall be duly sworn in, according to mili-
to obey orders to the best of his ability.

to pay the above fine he shall have a
punishment as the court-martial may
direct.

County Auditors Brislin, Bennet and Rimer have commenced an investigation into the methods by which the county jail and court house was painted last fall.
Commissioners Dullard, Evans and Smith approved bills to the amount of $7222.19 for the whole work. They had made a verbal contract with Charles Corning, who took charge of the work, and agreed to pay him $3.50 a day for each man employed. The auditors expect to prove that more money was expended than was necessary.

The Deaf Reaches Court.
Attorney General Hensel on Tuesday began proceedings, by filing a bill in equity in the Dauphin County Court at Harrisburg, to test the legality of the Reading leases. The bill was accompanied by the customary notification to enter an appearance within fourteen days after service. The bill in equity is a lengthy document, filling four columns of a newspaper.

Running a Paper Now.
Rev. L. Novomesky, formerly pastor of St. Peter and St. Paul's Slavonian Lutheran Church on Washington Street, has charge at present of a Slavonian congregation at Braddock, Pa., and is editor of a Lutheran Church paper in the Slavonic language.
