Wester Was Afraid.

Wilkes-Barre was filled with disappointed sports on Tuesday. Louis Jester, who claims the title of light-weight champion of Ohio, and Charles McCarthy, of Philadelphia, were to have fought a battle for $500 a side. When the time came however, it was discovered that the principals had entered into an arrangement by which Jester was to win. It is that McCarthy's backers, who consisted of such men as Jimmy Ryan, Bob Young, Billy Leonard, Harry Green and Paddy McHale, all of Philadelphia, were apparently very indignant and affected to offer McCarthy a larger sum than Jester would give if he would only go into the ring and whip the Wilkes-Barrean. McCarthy said he was willing to do this, but Jester backed out and accordingly the stake money was returned and all bets declared off. Then in the evening Jester and McCarthy gave a boxing exhibition, but it was decided failure, everybody being disgusted with the previous actions of the men.

Free Delivery Towns.

The Senate recently passed a bill extending the free delivery system to all cities and towns in the United States of 5,000 inhabitants or over. The postoffice receipts are $5,000 or over. Chairman Henderson, of the House postoffice committee, requested the postoffice department to furnish him information as to the number of towns that would get free delivery under this bill, and what it would cost. The postoffice department has made out a list of towns which are under the Senate bill 636 towns would get the free delivery system and that the cost of establishing and maintaining them for the next fiscal year would be about $1,000,000. The following are the towns in this part of Pennsylvania that would obtain the free delivery system under the Senate bill: Ashland, Bloomsburg, Cataquesa, Mount Carmel, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Plymouth, Stroudsburg and Sunbury.

The Kester Murder Trial.

The trial of Henry Higgins, one of the suspected murderers of John and William Kester, at Seybertsville, on October 15, 1885, was commenced on Tuesday. The Kesters had considerable money in their farm house. On the night of October 15, four men entered the house, killed the two brothers, and got away with the money. No evidence strong enough to cause the arrest of any party was discovered until last November, when Henry Higgins, James Gallagher and Joseph Eycland were arrested and have since been in jail awaiting trial. The jury men are all from the upper part of the county.

Will Hurt the Children's Eyes.

In speaking of Foster's new school building at Bivanton the Freeland correspondent of the Scranton Record calls attention to a matter that ought to be remedied. He says: "The building has one serious drawback that shows a lack of wisdom on the part of the directors. The school is so situated that when the pupils are sitting in their seats, their faces will be toward the south, and consequently the sun will shine in their eyes all day long. This state of things will, in a short time, prove fatal to the children's eyes."

Fourth of July Demonstration.

If the efforts of St. John's Slavonian Beneficial Society are successful Freeland is going to witness a grand demonstration on July 4. The society is making preparations for one of the largest gatherings of this nationality that has ever assembled in this country, and the members feel confident that the display will be a most creditable one. Invitations have been sent to every part of the State where an organization of their countrymen exists. This includes the people of every religion, Catholic, Protestant and Greek, and it will be the first instance where the three denominations of this State have paraded together. The president of St. John's Society, Andrew Palak, states that even if no more than one-fourth of the invitations are accepted the parade will consist of over 2000 men. The demonstration on last July 4 was held at Hazleton, but consisted only of Luzerne County, while this year the members of the State have signified their intention to turn out here. A grand ball will also be held, the music for which will be furnished by the renowned Austrian Orchestra of New York.

Got His Nose Smashed.

Michael Kelly, of Girardville, Schuylkill County, came to town on Saturday in search of work. During the evening he looked into a number of Freeland schooners and by midnight was in pretty good condition. While coming up Centre Street in the Points he claims a number of foreigners passed him and he suddenly turned upon him without any provocation. One of his assailants, he says, held a large stone in his hand with which he struck Kelly across the nose, breaking the bridge and disfiguring him badly. He wandered around town until about 10 o'clock when he was dressed by Dr. Murray. He was unable to give a description of the men he met, and as such an occurrence is something unusual many believe he must have angered the foreigners or he would not have been attacked. He left for Hazleton on Sunday.

Great Fishermen.

J. J. Ward, D. J. Ferry, Chas. A. Johnson, James Brennan, John McGarvey and Francis Brennan left here yesterday to catch fish in the Honeyhole. On arriving there two of the party took their traps and started to fish. They fished for an hour or two and were on the point of coming home to get their guns and hunt the game club, when one of their companions discovered they were fishing in the sulphur creek that comes from the breaker dam at Upper Lehigh. They begged not to be given away.

He will return here next week to make preparations for his removal, and on Sunday, May 15, will preach a farewell sermon at St. John's. The consistency of the church will hold a meeting next Sunday to elect a pastor to succeed Mr. Miller. Rev. C. Henry Brandt, of Ursinus College, is an applicant for the position.

Fire Company Meeting.

The report of the auditing committee was presented, showing an amount of $215.91 in the treasury.
