Temperance Men Hold Their Annual Convention.

REPORT OF THE WORK DONE THE FIRST DAY—THE LOWER END TO PARADE AT HAZLETON ON MONDAY, OCTOBER 10.

One hundred and sixty-two delegates, representing ninety-four societies of the Catholic Total Abstinence Union of the Scranton Diocese, met in Hazleton yesterday morning. The Standard gives the following proceedings: The convention was opened by President P. J. McManus, of Scranton, in a few well timed remarks, followed with prayer by Spiritual Director, N. J. McManus, Rev. J. J. Cumiskey was called upon and gave the delegates a warm welcome, following in a strong plea for the continuance of the grand and noble work already accomplished by the temperance cause.

The reports of the Treasurer and Secretary were submitted and read as follows: Total membership January 1, 1892, 7148; members admitted, 1135; members dropped, 1089, number of deaths, 40; benefits paid, $8,909; money collected, $17,750.27; amount in treasury January 1, 1892, $16,787.88; value of property, $21,595.90.

The reports of the committees were then submitted, when the convention went into committee of the whole on the subject of establishing an insurance feature and other matters.

James F. Judge and others advocated the holding of district quarterly conventions in each town in their turn, thus creating an interest in the cause.

It was decided to hold three parades on October 10.

The First District, including White Haven, and all societies south, to parade at Hazleton.

Second District, all societies in Luzerne County north of White Haven, to parade at Kingston.

Third District is composed of all societies in Lackawanna County. The place of parade for this district has not been decided, as there are three towns contending for it.

The present board of government is as follows: Spiritual Director—Rev. N. J. McManus, Scranton.

President—Rev. P. J. McManus, Scranton.

Vice President—D. J. McCarthy, Freeland.

Treasurer—John A. Collier, Pittston.

Secretary—John M. Mack, Luzerne.

To-day's sessions will be devoted to hearing the reports of the committees, resolutions, amendments to the constitution, election of officers and national delegates and new business.

Last evening a ball in honor of the delegates was given in Hazle Hill. De-Pierr's Orchestra furnished the music.

C. Y. M. Literary Institute.

The C. Y. M. Literary Institute met on Monday evening and the following programme was carried out: Instructive reading, "History of the United States," Jas. F. Sweeney. Debate, "Resolved, That U. S. Senators should be elected by a popular vote;" affirmative, Patrick McGeehan, Patrick H. O'Donnell, J. J. McMenamin; negative, J. B. Hanlon, Boger O'Donnell. The question was decided in the affirmative. Select reading, "Education and Religion," Manus McLaughlin. Recitation, "The Unmarked Grave," James A. O'Donnell. The general debate then followed the critic's report and the senatorial question was well discussed, the majority, however, agreeing with the judges that the power of election should be taken from the state legislatures. For next Monday evening the programme is as follows: Essay, "Success in Life and How to Attain It," John J. McMenamin; declamation, James McLane; select reading, J. D. Herron. The debate is "Resolved, That trades are more conducive to man's real success in life than professions;" affirmative, John McDermott, Condry Johnson, James A. O'Donnell; negative, D. S. Beckley, John McTague, John J. McLaughlin.

A Great Story.

"The Scarlet Letter," Nathaniel Hawthorne's most celebrated story, and one of the most famous in American literature, up to a few weeks ago cost, in cheapest cloth binding, $1.00, or in paper, 50 cents. We have just received a very neat and thoroughly well made cloth-bound edition from John B. Alden, Publisher, New York, which he sells for 25 cents, plus 5 cents for postage, if by mail; the same in paper covers he sells for 10 cents, post-paid. His catalogue of choice books, over 100 pages, which he sends to any one for 2-cents postage, is a literary curiosity, which every book-buyer ought to have, of course. His publications are not sold by booksellers, but only direct. Address, John B. Alden, Publisher, 57 Rose St., N. Y.

Suicide of a Miser.

John Boettcher, seventy-two years old, of Wilkes-Barre, committed suicide, while worrying over a lost opportunity of becoming rich. Three weeks ago he sold a large barren tract of land on the mountain to speculators for $300 and then learned that coal had been discovered under it, making it worth $15,000. He was a miser and had driven his family from the house, being afraid that they would steal his $300, which he always carried in gold on his person. When he discovered that he might have been a rich man had he kept the land, he loaded an old army musket, placed it against his heart and shot himself.

Inhuman Policemen.

In a lengthy editorial the Sentinel calls attention to the cruelty of the coal region thugs which the law has labeled "coal

LAW MAKERS MEET.

Interesting Special Session of Freeland's Council.

SIDEWALK DISCUSSIONS AGAIN BOB UP TO DISTURB THE PEACE OF THE BOROUGH FATHERS—A HIGH CONSTABLE FINALLY SELECTED.

The borough council met in special session on Monday evening, Messrs. De-Pierr, Dooris, Fritzing, Rutter and Williamson being present. The minutes of the two preceding meetings were read and approved. Surveyor Mack's bill for drawing profiles and surveys was ordered paid, the amount being $20.50. His resignation as borough surveyor was accepted and goes into effect at once. A communication from the borough solicitor in reference to the extension of Pine Street was read and laid over. That official was instructed to attend to the matter of opening up sidewalks on Centre Street, from Walnut to Chestnut, also on the west side of Ridge Street, from Main to South, in the event of the conference of the council committee and the property owners failing to agree.

A. B. Welch was present and stated he had made a contract to place a fence along his Ridge Street property, but he would be willing to postpone his work on it until the committee reports.

The solicitor was instructed to try and procure the deed of the Firemen's Park from Cox Bros. & Co., and also a deed for the right of way of the sewer through the company's land. He was also ordered to push the outstanding liens against property owners for non-payment of putting down sidewalks.

Street Commissioner Boyle presented his semi-monthly report of work done under him as follows: On streets, $7.50; on sewers, $349.03; hauling pipes, $12; total, $356.53. The report was accepted and ordered paid. The commissioner stated that in laying out a section of Front and Centre Streets it was necessary to take up some of the pipes belonging to DePierr Bros. private drain. He had a connection made from their cellar to the sewer and asked for instructions as to whether he would charge them for the cost. The council decided that inasmuch as the pipes had to be removed in order to lay in the sewer the borough should pay for the work.

The appointment of a high constable next came up. There was only one applicant, David Marley, and he was given the position. He was also appointed janitor, his duties and salary to be the same as those of his predecessor. The lockout committee was ordered to examine Mr. Marley's bond and also the agreement for janitor's duties.

Burgess Gallagher reported that he has a team at work cleaning up the alleys of the borough. The council then adjourned to meet on Saturday evening, May 22, when the remaining bonds will be disposed of.

"A Yard of Pansies."

Here is a chance for everybody to get, free of cost, an exquisite oil picture, thirty-six inches long, a companion to "A Yard of Roses," which all have seen and admired. This exquisite picture, "A Yard of Pansies," was painted by the same noted artist who did the "Roses." It is the same size, and is pronounced by art critics to be far superior to the "Roses." The reproduction is equal in every respect to the original, which cost $300, and is being given free with every copy of the June number of Demorest's Family Magazine, containing "A Yard of Pansies," of any local newsdealer; or send twenty cents to the publisher, W. Jennings Demorest, 15 East 14th Street, New York.

Kind Words for a Booming Borough.

Freeland is preparing for a big Fourth of July. It is the hope of every one that the weather and the arrangements will be such on that day as to enable them to have what they expect.—Plain Speaker.

Freeland promises to outdo herself in the matter of a monster demonstration on the Fourth of July. The progressive and enterprising citizens of that lively borough make a success of everything they undertake.—Newsdealer.

Freeland hopes to attract a $40,000 shoe factory to that town, and is already jubilant over the prospects for a boom. Nanticoke News.

Deaths.

BOYLE.—At Drifton, May 14, Cecilia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Boyle, aged 17 years, 1 month and 1 day. Interred on Monday at St. Ann's Cemetery, Brislis.

FLINN.—At Eckley, May 16, Frank, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lucinda Flinn, aged 2 years and 5 months. Interred on Wednesday at St. Ann's Cemetery, Brislis.

O'DONNELL.—At Drifton, May 16, Andrew, son of Mr. and Mrs. James O'Donnell, aged 3 years and 11 months. Interred on Wednesday at St. Ann's Cemetery, Brislis.

SEWELL.—At Jeddo, May 13, Albertus, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sewell, aged 1 year and 5 months. Interred on Sunday at Hughesville Cemetery, Bachman.

NEWS OF THE WEEK.

Paragraphs From Freeland and Nearby Towns.

LITTLE ONES OF INTEREST ABOUT PEOPLE YOU KNOW AND THINGS YOU WISH TO HEAR—SHORT NOTES FOR HURRIED READERS.

Nearly all the Foster schools are closed, the term being completed.

Robert Boyle, of Jeddo, has been granted a pension of $106 and $6 per month.

After Saturday the TRIBUNE office will be located in its new building on Main Street, between Centre and Ridge.

"A stitch in time" often saves consumption. Downy Elixir used in time saves life. Sold by Dr. Schlicher.

Several changes are made in the timetable of the Lehigh Valley Railroad this week, but none are very important.

Conductor Lyman's run has been changed under the new time-table, and he is now on the road from 12 M. to 12 P. M.

The sewer operations and the various building improvements going on here make Freeland resemble anything but a dead town.

Ex-Burgess W. D. Cowen, now of Wildwood Beach, N. J. has just completed a nine-room cottage for himself at that famous summer resort.

Louis Jester, of Wilkes-Barre, is offering $10 to any man in the county who will stand four rounds before him. Billy Jones, formerly of town, wants a chance to earn the X.

Costiveness is the primary cause of much disease. Dr. Henry Baxter's Mandrake Bitters will permanently cure costiveness. Every bottle warranted. Sold by Dr. Schlicher.

The clothes of Lucinda Flinn, a little Italian girl at Eckley, became ignited while playing near a fire on Sunday, and she was burned so badly that she died the following day.

Herman Koch has opened in the building recently vacated by John Smith, and invites his friends to call and see his stock of boots, shoes, hats, caps and gents' furnishing goods.

Maj. C. B. Cox Post is hard at work to have a rousing demonstration here on Memorial Day. A number of organizations have accepted the invitations, and the parade will be a large one.

The second annual picnic of the Soapies Base Ball Association will be held at the Firemen's Park to-morrow evening. Gillespie's Orchestra will furnish the music. Don't fail to attend the first of the season.

Attorney Hayes last evening was told by Eckley B. Cox that the deeds for the right of way of the sewer and the Firemen's Park were being prepared by his lawyer, S. P. Wolverton, of Northumberland County.

District Camp No. 4, of the P. O. S. of A. of Luzerne County, met at Drifton on Monday evening. Addresses were made by the district officers and others. Several members of Camp 147 and the camp band attended.

In Henry & Johnson's Arnica and Oil Liniment is combined the curative properties of the different oils, with the healing qualities of Arnica. Good for man and animal. Every bottle guaranteed. Sold by Dr. Schlicher.

The agitation for a Sunday evening train from Freeland to Hazleton and the South Side has commenced again. This is a real necessity and besides bringing hundreds of visitors here it would be the best-paying train the company has on this division.

It is stated that a mining school is to be established here, fch as has been carried on in Drifton for a number of years and with such good results. This is an opportunity that should not be thrown away by many of the young men in Freeland and surrounding towns.

A watchman is stationed above the switch near Drifton station, as it is feared the railroad tracks may drop at any moment into No. 2 mines. None of the passenger trains coming to Freeland cross this spot, but the heavy freight which go over the Highland branch are said to be in danger.

Joseph Horwath, of Freeland, was admitted to Hazleton Hospital on Sunday, suffering from a fractured shoulder, which he received by his horse running away. Joe is the hero of a runaway about three times every week, and it is nothing less than a miracle how he has escaped injury before this.

A delegation of Freeland Council, No. 348, J. O. U. A. M., accompanied by the P. O. S. of A. Band, went to White Haven last night and took part in the organization of a council at that place. They had an enjoyable time and all returned well pleased with their trip to the quiet little town by the river.

J. P. McDonald is laying a crossing at Centre and South Streets from his curb to the borough line, and the borough will continue it across the street. Crossings are badly needed in several portions of the Points, and such private enterprise as is being shown by those who have placed them down is a sign of progressiveness.

Correspondents will please sign their names to all communications sent to this office. The name will not be published, but it is necessary that we have the author's address. This is a rule that is rigidly enforced, and parties will understand why their articles do not appear in these columns. We also request correspondents to send their matter in before Thursday morning.
