

OUR LIVELY SUBURBS.

NEWS AND GOSSIP FROM SURROUNDING TOWNS.

Correspondents Write Up the Doings of the People in Eckley, Upper Lehigh, Drifton, Jeddo and Highland—Personal and Other Notes.

Special and regular correspondence from the surrounding towns is solicited by THE TRIBUNE. All writers will please send their names to this office with communications intended for publication, in order that the editor may know from whom the correspondence comes.

ECKLEY DOINGS.

Misses Ray and Lizzie James, Miss Marguerite McClure and Mr. D. W. James picked at Glen Okno July 4.

Mr. E. M. Porter and family are visiting friends at White Haven.

Miss Kate McCool, of Hazleton, is spending a few days in town.

The picnic of the A. O. H. on Saturday evening was a grand success, both socially and financially.

John Shellhaver, of Silver Brook, spent the fourth with his parents here.

BASE BALL GAME.

The Audenried club was defeated by "Our Boys" in a hard contested game on Saturday afternoon.

The Audenried club was defeated by "Our Boys" in a hard contested game on Saturday afternoon. Score: Audenried, 4; Eckley, 7.

FROM ANOTHER CORRESPONDENT.

Miss Mary Murrin, of Hazleton, was visiting her parents here on Sunday.

The Nevenses have disbanded for the season, on account of their battery, Ryan and O'Donnell, returning to their homes at Allentown.

Patrick Keeney, of Philadelphia, was among the visitors here on Sunday.

On account of a misunderstanding with the manager of the Terriers the Humboldt club arrived here on July 4, and were badly disappointed as the boys were not to be found.

DRIFTON ITEMS.

On Tuesday about half-past four o'clock there was considerable excitement created here by a balloon that came from the South Side and landed on Frank Dietrick's house.

Our boys who are booming base ball this season should be encouraged, as they are putting up a pretty good game when all the drawbacks are considered.

Miss Maggie Carr, of the West Chester Normal School, is spending her vacation with her parents.

Misses Ella and Annie Brislin, of Camden, are spending a few days here among friends.

Peter Sheridan, formerly mine foreman at No. 2 Highland, accepted a similar position for Coxe Bros. & Co. at Tomhicken.

Miss Katie Gillespie is visiting friends in Bristol, Pa.

The Sunday school children held a picnic in the Odd Fellows' hall on Monday. The little ones had a delightful time.

Miss Catherine McNeill, formerly of this place, will be married in Philadelphia about July 20.

Miss Etta Bradford, of Bethlehem, is visiting friends at No. 2.

A foot race is talked of by some of our local sprinters. There seems to be a great deal of chaff about it.

Miss Sallie Gallagher, of Philadelphia, is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. John Curran.

UPPER LEHIGH NOTES.

The Terriers met on the rocks on Saturday evening for the purpose of electing officers, and to make preparations to celebrate the Fourth.

The men are well armed, have lots of ammunition and will make trouble for everyone, except state troops, who interfere with them.

Discovery Day a Holiday.

Pitcher Clarkson Released.

HE SUCCEEDS BLAINE.

HON. JOHN W. FOSTER MADE SECRETARY OF STATE.

The Appointment of Ex-Minister Foster Gives General Satisfaction at the Capitol. Transferred from a Private Citizen to Secretary in Less Than Three Hours.

WASHINGTON, June 30.—It took two hours and thirty-five minutes only to transform a private citizen into secretary of state of the United States Wednesday. At 1:40 the president sent to the senate the nomination of Hon. John W. Foster, of Indiana.

The Good Templars held a picnic here on Monday and all who attended had a splendid time.

The Prospect Rock is one of the most delightful places that can be found anywhere to spend an idle hour.

Rumor has it that Patrick Ferry, of this place, and one of Hazleton's young ladies will soon try married life.

The two Keenan Bros., of Plains, were the guests of J. B. Keenan on the Fourth.

George McGee has a very pleasant look about him of late. It is a joy.

A large number of our young folks made a trip to Lattimer on Sunday. There must be more than the strippings to look at over there.

John Langdon intends going into the huckstering business next month. John has many friends that wish him success.

Fred Horn is laid up with a very sore arm.

James X. Sweeney intends making a trip to Europe sometime next month.

JEDDO NEWS.

Some of our young men took a night's lodging at the Freeland station house on the Fourth.

Mrs. Michael McCafferty, of Lansford, is visiting here, being the guest of Mrs. John Brannigan.

Miss Jennie Carl, of Mauch Chunk, spent the Fourth here, the guest of Miss Maggie Harkins.

John Gallagher of this place, who was hurt a few weeks ago, is able to be about again.

Daniel Marley is receiving many congratulations over his promotion to mine boss at No. 5.

Mrs. McMullen, of Pleasant Valley, spent the Fourth here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Boyle.

A great many men were idle on Tuesday—the result of a glorious Fourth.

HIGHLAND DOTS.

Charles J. McGill and Neil Ferry, of Wilkes-Barre, spent Monday with friends here.

Mrs. Thomas Mulligan, of Oneida, spent a few days here this week visiting at the residence of Mrs. James Boyle.

James Sweeney and sister, of Oneida, were among the many visitors here this week.

Miss Johanna O'Brien and Patrick Deans, of Alden, were the guests of Miss Annie Canty over Sunday.

John Gallagher, of Harwood, made a brief visit here this week.

James McGill, of Buck Mountain, took in the sights here on Sunday.

Robert Oliver, Sr., returned from Philadelphia yesterday, where he has been spending a few days.

On account of the heavy rain on Sunday our boys had to postpone their game of ball with Eckley.

Jack says he will keep an eye on the correspondent for the future. Very well, Jack, we will be around.

Patrick Ferry and wife, of Hazleton, were visiting her parents here on Monday.

Hugh McGill, of Midway, is spending a few days with his parents here.

PERSONALITIES.

John Fallon, of Scranton, formerly of Highland, spent a few days here this week with relatives.

P. J. Carey spent Monday and Tuesday with old friends at Norristown.

Con. P. Malloy, of Philadelphia, is a visitor in town.

THE KEystone STATE

ITEMS WHICH ARE OF PARTICULAR INTEREST TO PENNSYLVANIANS.

Brief Mention of Matters Which Everybody Should Know About—A Week's Accidents and Crimes Accurately and Concisely Chronicled.

PHILADELPHIA, July 5.—Jesse Colon, fifty-eight years of age, shot Christian Deger twice and then shot Officer Bazy after being chased five squares. Colon is held without bail. The only cause assigned is that Colon wanted to create a sensation with a new revolver.

Dropped Dead.

HARRISBURG, July 5.—An unknown man dropped dead in the Pennsylvania Railroad station. He had just purchased a ticket for Hagerstown, Md. A few moments before he died he remarked to a station employee, "There is not a sicker man in Harrisburg than I am."

Tore Everything Before It.

BETHLEHEM, July 5.—A terrific wind-storm from the southwest struck town. The main building of the Bethlehem Fair and Driving Park association was destroyed.

Lightning struck the cable tower of the Pennsylvania Telephone company and set the postoffice building, in which it is situated, on fire, but the blaze was soon extinguished.

Cut hay in the fields and grain growing near here is almost a total loss. The visible ruin about town is said to amount to about $150,000.

EASTON, July 5.—A furious rain and wind storm passed over this section of the framework of the Moravian church was leveled, Powell hall, one of the college buildings, was unroofed, fifty feet of the suspension bridge was torn out and the electric light, telephone and telegraph wires were prostrated.

Decline to Receive the Military Instructor.

PHILADELPHIA, July 5.—The city trustees have written to the war department at Washington declining to receive Lieutenant W. J. Pardee, of the Twenty-fifth United States infantry, as military instructor at Girard college, in place of the present incumbent Colonel J. R. C. Ward.

Another Advance in Coal.

PHILADELPHIA, July 2.—The Pennsylvania and Reading coal sale agents decided to demand the same price for July as received last fall, with the exception of chestnut coal, which will be advanced ten cents over last fall's price.

Five Hundred Men Idle.

LANCASTER, July 2.—The Susquehanna and Western Railroad company, of Columbia, have shut down. Five hundred men are thrown out of work. It is stated that the shut down is for the purpose of making repairs.

Bababy's Fatal Mistake.

PHILADELPHIA, July 2.—By a fatal mistake August Bababy, twenty-nine years old, fell into a large vessel containing hot porter, at Lynch's brewery, and was so severely scalded that he died soon after.

Shot Dead from Ambush.

NANTICOKE, July 1.—Michael Spuka, a Polisher, while picking cherries upon the farm of Henry Gommer was shot dead from ambush. Gommer and his son have been arrested.

Mint Employees Discharged.

PHILADELPHIA, July 1.—The force of employees at the mint has been reduced by the discharge of a large number of male operators. The number of dismissals is stated at from twenty-five to fifty.

Its Latest Acquisition.

PHILADELPHIA, July 1.—Mr. James L. Taylor, late general passenger agent of the Richmond and Danville system, has been appointed General European passenger agent of the Pennsylvania railroad, which office has just been created by that company.

Rolling Mill Men Hold a Mass Meeting.

PHILADELPHIA, July 1.—A mass meeting of the rolling mill men, who are now idle partly through a shutdown by Hughes & Patterson and partly through a strike at Guilbert, McCadden & Caskey's place, will be held this morning, in Schubert hall, Ayer street and Girard avenue, to determine upon their future action.

Money for Ireland.

PHILADELPHIA, July 1.—At the meeting of the Philadelphia branch of the Irish National Federation last evening at Philopatris hall, this cablegram was forwarded to Justin McCarthy, the home rule leader, at Dublin, on motion of Mr. Dunleavy: "Philadelphia contributes $6,500 to the cause of home rule, thus most emphatically disproving the assertion of John E. Redmond that Americans are sustaining him and his cause." Of this amount $3,938.50 was received by Treasurer Joseph Sheehan last evening, the balance having been previously subscribed. Rev. Walter P. Gough, through his personal exertions, collected for the fund $356.50. It is expected that at the meeting to be held on next Tuesday evening at the same place many societies and individual friends of the cause will be heard from.

Probably Fatally Injured.

PHILADELPHIA, July 1.—Mrs. Anna Dykes, sixty-three years old, of 148 Queen street, Falls of Schuylkill, mother of Undertaker C. L. Dykes, was probably fatally injured yesterday morning by tripping and falling head-first down a flight of stairs leading from the first floor to the basement of her residence.

Seized with Cramps and Drowned.

NEWARK, N. J., July 6.—Abram Gutfried, of New York city, went in bathing in Newark bay, was seized with cramps and was drowned.

BASE BALL NOTES.

Freeland Loses Another Game to Hazleton—What Other Clubs Are Doing.

The Freeland players gave another of their too-frequent exhibitions of careless and listless ball playing on Monday and allowed Hazleton to beat them by a score of 14 to 2. The game was devoid of life and interest, and barring the few fine plays of the visitors was the most uninspired contest witnessed at the park.

Following is the official score:

TABLE WITH TEAM NAMES AND SCORES

Three-base hits—Herron, Dryfoos, O'Donnell. Two-base hits—Dryfoos, McMahon, Byrnes, off Flarity; 5 by Dryfoos; 7 by Flarity; 1 off Dryfoos, 3.

On Sunday the famous Cuban Giants will occupy the park, and their opponents will be the best players that Manager McNeil can secure in the coal regions.

The Fernouts played at Upper Lehigh on Monday, and at the end of the thirteenth inning the score stood 14 to 11.

Upper Lehigh opened the fourteenth, and after two were out a dispute arose over a runner cutting third base.

Mahanoy City, 13; Ashland, 4. Catawunga, 5; Nicetown, 3. Catawunga, 7; Nicetown, 4.

Mahanoy City, 10; New Boston, 2. Jeannette, 4; Tacony, 3; (ten innings). Jeannette, 6; Tacony, 5; (eleven innings).

Lansford, 10; Painter A. A., 0. Scranton, 14; Wilkes-Barre, 4. Scranton, 9; Wilkes-Barre, 8.

Gustave Endriss, who caught for Freeland on Monday, was recommended by Wm. D. Davis, the well-known base ball man of Philadelphia, as a first-class player, and upon this recommendation he pitched the game at Hazleton.

Jeannette at present has the best club in Luzerne, Carbon and Schuylkill counties. There are rumors of internal trouble, however, but the work of the players do not bear out these reports.

Lansford is showing up in very good form the past few weeks. Gormley and Fulmer, as a battery, work very good and usually get first-class support from the other players.

Freeland has lost seven games this summer, which is as many as it lost during the whole of last season.

Scranton has the best amateur club in the eastern part of the state.

Ashland's P. O. S. of A. building is being erected. It will be three stories high.

A man was prostrated and died from the heat in an ice factory at Lancaster the other day.

President McAlpin Re-elected.

ROCKY HARBOR, N. Y., June 30.—The convention of postmasters, Edwin Adams, South Norwalk, Conn.; Nehemiah Jennings, Southport, Conn.; Florence A. Smith, Schobarie, N. Y.; Louis McCloud, East Orange, N. J.; Joseph P. Carver, Newton, Pa.; John C. McLean, Union City, Pa.

Coal Goes Up Again.

NEW YORK, June 30.—The western sales agents have ordered that on Tuesday next the price of coal be advanced twenty-five cents. Eastern agents ordered the following advances: Stove coal, thirty cents; egg, thirty-five cents; and chestnut, thirty-five cents per ton.

More Arrests at Buffalo.

BUFFALO, July 1.—Ex-Teller McCredie, of the National Savings bank, was arraigned before Judge King on three charges of forgery and grand larceny.

Agent Reavell in Trouble.

HARTFORD, June 30.—William R. Reavell, local agent of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company, was held in the police court on a charge of forgery.

More Ballot Box Stuffers Jailed.

WASHINGTON, June 30.—The president has signed the joint resolution of congress making Oct. 21, 1892, the four hundredth anniversary of the discovery of America a general holiday.

Pitcher Clarkson Released.

BOSTON, July 1.—Pitcher Clarkson has been released by the Boston Baseball club.

Special! Special!

TO OUR PATRONS AND THE PUBLIC.

For the Next Two Weeks Only!

We are offering everything in the various lines of our large stock at such low prices that they will astonish you.

Please note the following quotations:

Good teal twoling, 4 cents per yard. Best skirt lining, 4 cents per yard. Best light calico, 4 cents per yard.

In our line of Notions you can buy:

Ladies' ribbed undervests, 4 for 25 cents. Men's seamless socks, 5 pairs for 25 cents.

Shoe department:

Children's dongola spring heel shoes, 35 cents per pair. Children's heavy pebble heel, or spring shoes, with sole leather tip, 75 cents per pair.

Clothing:

Boys' outing cloth waists, 15 cents each. Men's outing shirts, 20 cents each.

All other goods At prices On which WE DEFY COMPETITION.

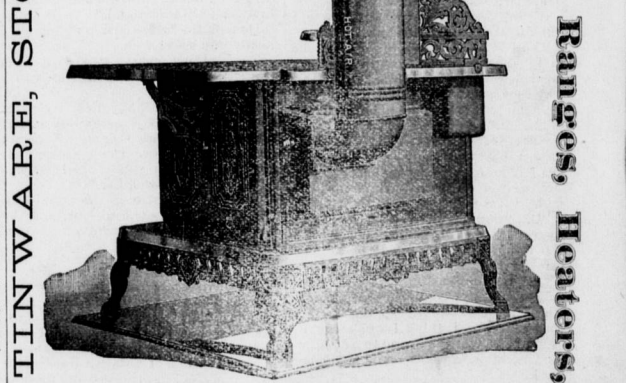

Jos. NEUBURGER, LEADER IN LOW PRICES,

P. O. S. of A. Building, Freeland, Pa.

We Are Headquarters

FOR

SHOVELS, PINNACLES, STOVES, RANGES, HEATERS,

And Hardware of Every Description.

REPAIRING DONE ON SHORT NOTICE.

We are prepared to do roofing and spouting in the most improved manner and at reasonable rates.

Fishing Tackle and Sporting Goods.

BIRKBECK'S,

CENTRE STREET, FREELAND, PA.